Manufacture Special Uniform For Workers

Carlisle, Pa., April 17. — Another phase of war preparations is shown in the newest of Carlisle's industries, a factory for the manufacture of a special patented design of working uniform for women who take the places of men called to the The factory is operated by J. W. Mc Cullough and twenty-five women and girls are employed. The design is modeled along Turkish lines, with full bloomers and a small jacket of blue cloth, while other modifications consist of an adaptation of the regulation overall, with an apron cut on wide lines and with a bloomer effect. A slightly better design is made for house work.

memberships in front of headquarters at 206 Walnut street, keeps moving toward the 5,000 mark at a brisk pace, and that it will be reached by Saturday is a prediction that was made by many of the canvassers to-day.

The first day of the campaign showed a total membership of almost 800, and when the final count is made tonight it is expected the figure will be close to 2,000.

Fifty new canvassers volunteered today, coming from several civic, fraternal and social organizations and from churches and business houses. Biliposters from the Harrisburg Poster Advertising Company, re-enforced by Boy Scouts, continued to-day to cover the city with big Red Cross signs, Over 160 Red Cross volunteer workers also signed up at headquarters yesterday and more kept coming to-day. These persons were put to work making surgical dressings and bandages. Wednesday evening Colonel Henry Page, of the Medical Rèserve Corps, U. S. A., will speak at a massmeeting in Chestnut Street, Auditorium. Red Cross headquarters will be closed that evening so as to permit the volunteer workers to attend.

An auxiliary of the Harrisburg chapter will be organized to-night at Milersburg by Miss Anne McCormick and Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls-if you want plenty of thick beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you starve your hair and ruin, it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at moisten the scalp and rub it in gently the moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will seed, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.
