

HOW COLLEGE SPRINTERS WILL LINEUP IN PENN RELAYS---PLAYS AND PLAYERS

ENOLA P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. ENTERS FIELD WITH STRONG BALL TEAM

"Bobbie" Wallace Is Manager; Season Starts at Chambersburg in Two Weeks; Line-Up of Players

Enola, Pa., April 18.—The P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. baseball team has been organized for the year. C. W. (Bobbie) Wallace has been selected as manager, and Walter B. Doebler, is secretary of the club. Yesterday afternoon the first preliminary practice was held on the association grounds. About twenty candidates reported and were given their first workout. The team will open its season at Chambersburg, with the Chambersburg nine of the Blue Ridge League, on April 28. The team will also play the Mercersburg Academy nine May 12. Games will probably be played with several other teams of the Blue Ridge League, and various teams on the Pennsylvania Railroad system.

whom had trials with some of the leagues in Central Pennsylvania. Manager Wallace, was a member of the battleship Connecticut team during the world tour in 1909, and has played on other league teams. Secretary Doebler would like to arrange a number of games with strong amateur nines either at Enola or away from home. All communications should be addressed to W. B. Doebler, secretary, P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. baseball team. The players trying out for the team are:

OBERLIN GIRLS CLAIM VICTORY
To the editor: The Central Grammar school basketball girls of Steelton stated in Friday evening's TELEGRAPH that only two teams handed them defeat during the season, those being Carlisle High school and Lincoln Grammar school. That is a mistake, as we, (the Oberlin High school basketball girls) played them March 24, at Steelton, and defeated them with a score of 8 to 0. They also cancelled twice, after promising to play on our floor.

OSWALD YORKE AND PATRICIA COLLINGE IN THE GLAD PLAY "POLLYANNA"

"Pollyanna," "the glad girl" is coming among us to spread the gospel of good cheer, and warm the hearts of those who think the world is out of kilter and getting harder and harder for him to live in who thinks, talks and walks straight.

"Pollyanna" is the flesh and blood we like—not because she is the high and mighty, or any of the other things the world kow-tows to and runs after, but because she is human and kind and glad. She reaches one's heart as the sun reaches the fields and trees to make them live and glow.

"Pollyanna" will be seen at the Orpheum Theater, matinee and night, Saturday, April 21.

"HOME RUN" BAKER.

New York, April 18.—An X-ray examination shows that Frankie Baker suffered less than had been feared from the pitched ball that struck his left hand on Saturday. The thumb was dislocated and bruised but not broken and Baker may be back at third base within two or three days.

GIANTS HELP READING
Albany, N. Y., April 18.—George Wiltse left here for Reading yesterday to take charge of the squad that will try for places on the Reading New York State League team.

EILBER TIES HOFFMAN
Fort Washington, Pa., April 18.—Each with a straight score of fifteen, "Izzy" Hoffman and George Eilber, both of Philadelphia, tied for high gun at yesterday's livebird shoot at the Fortside Gun Club.

OSAR WINS MATCH
Lebanon, Pa., April 18.—Jack Ozar, of this city, last night defeated Ludwig Resz, of New York, winning two straight falls in their wrestling bout in Fisher Academy of Music.

PHYSICIAN MINUTE MEN
London, April 18.—Groups of surgeons and physicians who may be called upon at any time by the authorities to go anywhere in case of sudden disaster or emergency, are being established throughout England by the Royal Society of Medicine.

Savage's greatest popular success, "Everywoman" Browne's modern morality play, which comes to the Orpheum next Monday evening. "Everywoman" is now making its seventh triumphal tour of both the large and small cities and promises to rival in popularity and old age the famous production of "Hurr." In the course of the present tour "Everywoman" has made a third visit to Salt Lake, Denver, Kansas City, St. Louis, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Baltimore. This is the one and only company. Henry W. Savage's own great organization, acclaimed one of the greatest dramatic and musical productions ever sent on tour.

Patrons who attend the Majestic Theater the first half of this week will not be disappointed as far as the comedy is concerned, for Majestic every act on the bill is good for much laughter. Comedy honors go to Charles Howard and Company, one of vaudeville's cleverest troupes who offer chirily, talking and dancing melange called "A Happy Combination." Other comedy hits on the bill include John La. and the great excellent work on the flying trapeze; Cecile Weston and Company, in a pleasing singing and piano offering; Mason and Morris, clever novelty dancers, and Mahoney and Rogers, introducing a bright song and patter skit. A musical comedy "girl" act, with twelve people, entitled "Oh, Doctor!" will head the bill the last half of the week, surrounding this attraction are: Fred Correll and Company, in a big novelty offering; Marie Sparrow, dainty singing comedienne; Kane and Herman, in a comedy variety turn, and Charles Rice and Company, presenting a comedy playlet, entitled "The Spirit of Preparedness."

The sun shone benevolently upon the old, romantic garden in Mecca. The birds fluttered about the stone fountain playing Broadway" and straggly into the great Colonial basin.

In the garden strolled the daring American, with the girl whose love he had won—the girl who was considered the flower of womanhood of all Mecca. The natives resent the foreigner's entrance into their life and learning he is in the garden, they attempt to force the great door and when this fails scale the wall.

Realizing her sweetheart's danger, the girl hastens to hide him in the old well, which has not been used in years, and whose rope is rotten from age. Getting into the old bucket, he permits her to lower him into the round, stone foundation of the well until the men have left.

In order that the rope look old it was necessary for it really to be rotten, but Antonio Moreno, who plays the American, was willing to risk safety for the realism of "Aladdin From Broadway," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, co-starring him in the title role with Edith Storey and William Dunham, showing at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow. "Lonesome Luke's Lively Life," a screaming two-reel comedy, and the latest Pathé News, will be the added attraction of the program. Coming Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Robert Warwick in "The Argyle Case."

LIBERTY SOCIETIES MEET
The Southern Middle District Visitation Association of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty will hold their monthly meeting Thursday, April 19, at Riverside Council No. 97, New Cumberland, Pa. All members of the Fraternity are requested to be present. It is also the anniversary of the Council.

VOTE TO CLOSE 142 LICENSED SALOONS

"Drys" Win Fourteen Towns and Lose Three in Illinois

Chicago, April 18.—Figures compiled to-day by the Anti-Saloon League show that 142 saloons were voted out of business in elections yesterday in various cities and towns of Illinois. The "drys" won in fourteen "wet" cities and towns, but lost three dry towns. The liquor forces retained twelve wet towns besides winning the only three dry towns where the local option elections were held. The largest city to enter the dry column yesterday was Danville, of 30,000 inhabitants, where sixty-eight saloons will close May 1.
