At a meeting in Philadelphia of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Baseball League, at the Reading Terminal yesterday, the following officers were elected: George F. Ingram, president; Harry W. Carr, vice president; John Rice, secretary and treasurer; William K. Morris, official manager; James Flynn, manager publicity bureau. The league is composed of twelve clubs and the schedule becomes effective May 12.

At a meeting of the Reading High School Athletic Association yesterday Robert B. Kemp was elected captain of the Reading high track team, vice John Dietrich, resigned. Kemp is a fast boy and has been doing great work at practice.

If Charlie Miller does backstop work for Harrisburg this season, it will mean much to the game. He was always a favorite here. Injury to his knee took him out of the game. Miller has recovered sufficiently to stage a comeback and the veteran promises to do real work again this season.

"Babe" Brown who was said to have signed up with Manager Cockill is still in the city. He expects to go to Lewisburg to-morrow. Brown was rather disappointed in not getting word from the local manager to report with the rest of the bunch. He has been unable to get away from his duties, but said yesterday that he was anxious to start work.

Entries for Penn's relay carnival will close today and judging by the large number that has already been set in the list will be pretty well cleaned up by to-night. Scores of colleges and schools have been heard from. In spite of the defection of a few Eastern colleges, there is keen interest in the races. The fact that the big Western colleges will be here in force should keep the meet up to the high standard that it has maintained for many years.

THIRD BASEMAN USES SHIN GUARDS

Philadelphia, April 19.—A player with shin guards. This is not a party where football and soccer is concerned, or even baseball, when the catcher is the object of one's thought, but for an infielder to don the old shin protectors is indeed a novelty. Sam Schaefer, a sturdy youth, whose chief ambition in life at present is to be the regular gopher of the "hot corner" on the Germantown high school nine, is the enterprising lad who recently came across with the novel idea of using a pad instead of his shin guards.
