THREE PLOTS FOR 200 APPLICANTS

Watts Busy Devising Way to Distribute Garden Lots Equally

Shirley R. Watts, superintendent of the distribution of garden plots for the Chamber of Commerce, is busily engaged in devising some manner in which to distribute the plots in an equitable manner.

There are at present only three plots, to be divided among two hundred applicants. Those plots are located at Bellevue Park, one in Seventh street, between Derry and Berryhill streets, donated by E. Z. Wallower, and one in Rudy street, donated by Mrs. S. Ort Bowman.

It is probable that a meeting of the Agricultural Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will be called late to-day, when Mr. Watts will submit a plan for the distribution of the land. Private plots in all parts of the city are under cultivation, a plot at North Market and Prospect streets, being one of the largest.
