TAGGART REFEREE FOR TITLE BATTLE

Announcement was made yesterday that E. C. Taggart, the well-known football coach of Steinton, would referee the game Saturday night between Motive Power Athletic Association tilters and the Rosewood A. C. champions of the City Amateur League.

The Motive Power team defeated the local Independents on the gymnasium floor at Seventh and Rely streets. Subsequently, Rosewood A. C. was taken into camp on the same floor.

The city champions last Saturday won over the Independents and disputed the claim of the Motive Power team to the championship.

Should Rosewood win Saturday, Manager Householder will insist on a third game. Both teams have been training hard for this contest.

Each five will get two chances to practice on Chestnut street floor where the big battle will be staged. The railroaders were busy this afternoon.

SULLIVAN CALLS WILLARD SLACKER

New York, April 20.—"My idea of a fighting man is a fellow who is willing to fight," said John L. Sullivan yesterday, "and for the life of me I cannot see how a chap who pretends to be a fighting man and is on the level will duck the chance to get into the biggest fight the world has ever known by refusing to enlist to fight for Uncle Sam."

"If I had my way," said he, "every boxing club in this and every other State would close its doors until the war is over."

"They're slackers, every one of them beginning with Jess Willard and going down the line. Willard says he's too big to pass the recruiting sergeant. Let him come to me and I'll show him the way to a recruiting officer that will accept him so fast he'll imagine he was always in the service. So on down the line. Governor Whitman drew the line on Darcy because he was a slacker, and other governors have properly followed suit."

HUNS WANT PEACE TERMS PUBLISHED

Berne, Switzerland, via Paris, April 20.—The Hungarian Socialists have adopted resolutions at a secret convention demanding that the central powers make public their peace conditions, excluding all forcible annexations, according to the Tagwacht, the official organ of the Swiss Social Democrats.

The convention called upon the Hungarian government to abolish all restrictions on public gatherings, to restore the freedom of the press and to furnish genuine proof of its desire for peace. The resolutions declared that peace terms should provide for the obligatory reference of all disputes to an international tribunal, gradual disarmament of the nations, means for a free economic, national and cultural development of all peoples and the removal of causes of friction between the nations and their governments.

Lalanc-Grosjean Workers Raise Large U. S. Flag

A large American flag was hoisted to the top of a tall staff, facing the Pennsylvania Railroad main line yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Hot Mill and other department employees of the Lalanc-Grosjean Manufacturing Company. C. E. Landis, cashier of the company opened the proceedings by saying: "As we stand about this staff, from which in a few moments is to float our own country's starry banner, we all have the same feeling—a just feeling of pride that whatever our place of birth, we are all true blue Americans, each man of us ready and willing to do his bit to defend our own beloved land from foes within as well as foes without. Our forefathers fought and sacrificed their fortunes and their lives that we might enjoy the blessings of liberty in the truest, most sublime sense of the word, and it shall not be said of us that we are any less determined to preserve all the free institutions their courage bequeathed to us, and at the same time to extend these blessings to our fellow-creatures now groaning and starving under the curse of war-craed autocracy."

With three hearty cheers the flag was raised to the top of the pole. Earlier in the day that shipping department employees of the same company raised a large American flag on the roof of their building.
