'I've Something to Say to You'-- Nora Bayes. 'My Dear Friend: I am going to tell the secret I thought I'd never give out. I have tried all sorts of preparations, and I must confess that the best I've ever used are Aubry Sisters' Famous Beautifiers. For a touch of color I can always depend on.

Aubry Sisters' Tint made from a sherry wine foundation, perfectly harmless in its constituency. A few drops bring to the face the glow nature intended it to have. It is remarkable in its mental effect too--how rosy cheeks created in this way, bring one instantly to a happy frame of mind. On sale now at your own leading pharmacist and department stores at 25c--50c as follows: Free To-day. Special sample at these stores, or direct from makers, Aubry Sisters, Inc., 104 E. 25th St., N. Y. C. For 10c in cover postage, you may procure a complete set of samples. Just clip the coupon to your letter. An absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

SING PATRIOTIC SONGS AT DANCE Another in Fellowship Series of Pleasures For Department of Labor and Industry

With flags of the United States flying and the Souther orchestra playing patriotic airs during intermissions, guests at the Fellowship dance of the Department of Labor and Industry last evening just had to break forth into song. It was most inspiring to hear 'America,' 'Dixie,' and 'The Star-Spangled Banner,' heartily given by the men and women, so loyal to the government in whose employ they are.

YOUNG WOMEN IN FIRST AID CLASS NEARLY READY

Members of Y. W. C. A. Taking Special Courses Along Emergency Work Lines. One hundred and thirty young women have registered with the Commonwealth Club of the Y. W. C. A. for instruction in First Aid, under the direction of the National Red Cross Society. These young women will be given the regular course and after passing their examinations will be awarded certificates. At 4.30 o'clock Monday, April 23, it is earnestly requested that all of the young women who wish to take this course and who can regularly attend at 4.30 will report at John Y. Boyd Hall of the Y. W. C. A., in order to receive preliminary directions and to formally enroll. The Industrial Girls will be organized on their regular meeting night, Wednesday of next week in John Y. Boyd Hall at 7.30 p. m., April 25. All others who have registered will please report Monday evening at 7.30 in John Y. Boyd Hall in order that the class work may commence as promptly as possible. The announcement for the class in Surgical Dressing will be made later. A prompt response to this 'call' will be greatly appreciated by those in charge of the Red Cross work. The more quickly that the class gets to work the more satisfactory will be the results.

Charlie Taft Honored on Yale's Tap Day. New Haven, Conn., April 20.—'Tap Day' exercises were held at Yale College yesterday, six weeks in advance of the customary day—the last Thursday in May—because of the extraordinary conditions created by the war. Eleven of the undergraduates elected to the senior societies were tapped by those in the Yale aerial coast patrol unit. Among these five were tapped for Skull and Bones, the highest and oldest of the societies were tapped at Palm Beach, Fla., where they are serving with the Yale aerial coast patrol unit. A feature of the exercises was the tapping of Charles P. Taft, 2d, son of ex-President Taft, as the fifteenth, or last man to Skull and Bones—the highest and oldest of the societies. Taft and Garfield were the first men to be tapped for Skull and Bones, the next honorary choice.

Missionary Meeting of Pine Street Circle. The Home and Foreign Circle, of Pine Street Presbyterian Church, plans an interesting meeting this evening at 7.45 in the kindergarten room of the church. Short speeches on India will be made by Mrs. R. G. Stover, Miss Margaret Berguson, and Miss Ruth Hoover Treadman. Brief reports of the Foreign Missionary conference held recently will be given by Miss Margaret Robinson and Miss Margaret Neldig. Following the business session a social hour will be enjoyed, with Mrs. John Sharon McDonald, Mrs. Ramsey Eble and Mrs. Flyte as hostesses. A large attendance is expected this evening, as this circle, with Miss Elizabeth Garner, president, is one of the most progressive in the city.
