"Red" Calhoun Is Worried
Over Three Baron Holdouts
Wilkes-Barre, April 21. — Pitcher

Six hurlers anxious to make a berth.
Short garden is a weakling in Cal's roster at this time. However, he believes his team will be in shape when the bell is sounded on May 2.

Herbert Kutz, of this city, Outfielder Tom Brown, of Reisertown, Md., and Shortstop Burns of Brooklyn, are the only three Barons who have failed to return their signed contracts.

The Royal Giants of Brooklyn, at a team that has played in the South the greater part of the winter, will play here Wednesday and Thursday, April 25 and 26.

It is believed the three 1916 Barons are holding out because of salary cuts.

Calhoun has three good outfielders in Clemons, Orcutt and Reichle and yarious degrees of slowness.

When we can let 'em know With confidence and pride, 'he swap is blow for blow And something else beside-

You'll find that from the bunch Who scorned us, soft and fat, They'll pipe the waiting punch— And let it go at that.

About fifteen or sixteen years ago Jim Jeffries had speed, power, bulk stamina and the punch. The result was that for several years he couldn't get a fight. They let him alone—where even the loser's end became highly repugnant. But when Jeff got fat, slow and soft—they hooked him.

Old Giants and New

Some one launched the discussion a day or so ago as to whether the present Giant array was the strongest club McGraw ever had.

There isn't any question of it being a greater machine than the three-time flag winners from 1911 through 1913.

The pitching staff doesn't look to be up to the standard set by Mathewson, Marquard and Tesreau. But with Schupp in such rare form, there is no great difference here, for the southpaw, through his finish last fall and his spring start, has shown an effectiveness not to be beaten. In his last eight games from late last August he has allowed but five runs, a record showing.

Outside of the pitching, the present Giants are far stronger in the outfield and fully as strong around the infield.

They look to be a better balanced club. As to whether they are a greater machine than the Giants of 1905—that brings on another debate. That 1906 array was a nectarine full of Juice. But most of that 1905 crowd were slipping at the time; whereas McGraw's present consignment of talent is off to a new start.

new start.
Unless the future is replete with rickety upsets—which it often is—this Giant line-up now in action should hold the right of way to the finish. It is an unusual ball club, with a mixture of skill and power, plus the brand of cool confidence that generally manages to get there. Injuries or accidents would make a big difference, but unless fate is more than passing rough McGraw looks to be well on his way to his sixth pennant—an achievement that no National League manager has ever turned in before.

A 1917 Call

Some years ago Herman Hagedorn wrote a Harvard class poem known as "A Troop of the Guard." There is at least one call in that excellent verse which is more than applicable to present days:
"The dawn is upon us, the pale light speeds
To the zenith with glamour and golden darts;
On, up! Boot and suddle! Give spurs to your steeds!
There's a nation beleaguered that cries for men's deeds
With the pain of the world in its cavernous heart.
Ours be the triumphant! Humanity calls!
Life's not a dream in the clover!
On to the walls—on to the walls—
On to the walls, and over!"

As a rallying war cry, this would be exceptionally hard to beat. It might have been written yesterday in place of ten years ago.

This country, for twenty years in sport, has taught these things:

1. The value of team play.

2. The value of long, hard preparation.

These two things alone, with any sort of material, are long steps toward success. If the nation in its present circumstances will only apply its teachings and methods in sport to the larger affairs there will be no question as to the ultimate answer. And the habit and training which sport has developed are bound to count somewhere along the way.

As an average proposition, you can generally figure it out that the citizen posed to Universal Service is the one who has already decided not to do opposed to Universal Service is the one had his part.

And the "Let-the-Other-Fellow-Do-It Club" has a pretty fair membership,

After all, war isn't very much a matter of sentiment. The bulk of it is efficiency, for those who expect to arrive. And losing isn't exactly the same as osing a pennant or a world series or a football game. Not just exactly.

"To decide an argument," writes a Fan, "who is the greater second baseman—Herzog or Barry?" The two are much alike. Both were fine shortstops before becoming second basemen. Both are alert, aggressive and on the job. But as Herzog is a trifle stronger on attack, he would undoubtedly get the call. The Giant star is a better hitter and a better baserunner than the Boston leader, and about as good in defensive work.

Supreme Court Decision In the least of the Mary A. Condon, wide and prevent and prevent of cook county, in the case of Mary A. Condon, widew of John Condon, owner of the once famous Harlem race track, now used as a semipublic golf links, against the village of Forest Park to prevent the payment of a license as an amusement park.
When horse racing was driven out of Illinois by the enforcement of the statute against gambling, Harlem race track, after lying idle some time, was turned into golf links, for the use of which a fee was charged by the day. The plan was successful and an attempt was made to license it as an amusement park. Judge Baldwin held that golf was not an amusement, but a healthful recreation. On appeal the Supreme Court upheld this decision.

FAST AMATEUR BOUTS

Cleveland, O., April 21.—Seven fast bouts featured the A. A. U. amateur boxing tourney here last night. Jack O'Dell defeated Eddie Mack, in the 15spound class, furnishing the feature bout. The results: 115-pound finals, won by Young Rudy: 135 pounds finals, won by Johnny Russell; heavyweight finals won by John Edwards, all of Cleveland.

This was the date set for the opening of the amateur season in Harrisburg. Local players, however, are just as full of patriotism and possible and the games were called off early in the week. Several managers cancelled out of town games in order to home for the big patriotic parade.

It is very evident that Manager George Cockill is anxious to better prospects. He reports a fast bunch at Lewisburg but several of the positions are not sizing up satisfactorily, so the local leaders will go on a scouting trip with a view to landing more good men.

President J. H. Farrell, of the New York State League, has picked som good umps for the coming season. There will be two indicator men in There will be two indicator men in the farrelly of the opinion that he can get a faster boy.

New Feature Record Is Feature of National Match

Pittsburgh, April 21 .- Five second were clipped from the world's record for 200 yards breast stroke swimming in the national championship meet in that event here last night when Mike McDermott, of the Illinois Athletic Club, made the distance in a 75-foot pool in 2:39 4-5. The new time represents about the biggest cut into exist-ing swimming records made in recent years, and was possible largely through the elimination of trial heats, the swimmers placing in the final ac-won by Johnny Russell; heavyweight finals won by Johnny Russell; heavyweight finals won by John Edwards, all of Cleveland.

Carlisle Athlete Fast Boy; Equals Thorpe's Dash Record

Carlisle, Pa., April 21.-Athletic endeavor at the Carlisle Indian School this week was divided between preparation for the meet with Dickinson College Wednesday and the selection of men to represent the school at the relay meet at Philadelphia next Sat-urday.

relay meet at Philadelphia next Saturday.

While the results in the meet were hot quite up to expectations, yet some men showed up so well that Coach Clevett is very optimistic for the season. Special attention will be given to train men for the weight and field events, two departments in which the aborigines were lacking and which caused their defeat Wednesday.

Wilbur made the time in 10 seconds flat, which is the record for the Carrisle Indian School, although it has been made by four men.

Creswell first established the mark in 1894, and it was later equaled by Frank Mt. Pleasant, and again by James Thorpe, now with the Giants.

Wilbur will probably constitute one of the relay team men and may take part in other events at Philadelphia. The other men from whom the Indian quartet will be selected are Tibbets, Warringston, Spider and May, the captain.

Routzo will be one of the best dis-

Routzo will be one of the best distance men ever developed here, according to opinion. In the two-mile against Dickinson he won easily, finishing a quarter of a lap ahead of his nearest opponent and being scarcely winded. His time was 10.8, and could have been bettered had he been pushed. Routzo is a Pueblo.

Dickinson Cancels on Park Tennis Club

Officials of the Dickinson College tennis team called off the match with the Harrisburg Park Tennis Club, which was scheduled for this afternoon. The courts could not be gotten in condition for the event. It is likely that the two teams will clash next month and a second game played on Commencement day, June 2. The courts at Reservoir will be ready for use by next Saturday and the Park officials are trying to arrange games with Lancaster, York and Shamokin.
