Man Dies During Night on Porch of Waynesboro House

Waynesboro, Pa., April 21.-Jo-seph F. Mechan, 47 years old, was found dead yesterday morning on the front porch at the home of Norman A. King, in Ridge avenue, here. Shortly after midnight Thursday, Mrs. King after midnight Thursday, Mrs. King heard a noise in the porch and raised a window inquiring who was there. She received a reply that it was some one who wanted to be let in. She rc-fused to comply to the stranger's de-mand, and the husband of Mrs. King told the man to move on. Nothing more was thought of the affair until early Friday morning when Mr. King went into his porch and saw Mr. Mee-han dead. Mr. Meehan was a native of near Emmitsburg, Frederick coun-ty, Md., and a brother to William J. Meehan and Mrs. Isaac Kelly, of Waynesboro.

Governor Makes Some Comment Upon School Directors in Vetoing a Bill

Governor Brumbaugh vetoed the Snyder Senate bill designed to author-ize second and third class school districts to levy a special tax for even-ing schools, vocation schools, gymnasing schools, iums, playgrounds, public baths, etc. The Governor says that the bill would compel school boards to do what by law they now may do. He says that the method of compulsion is "expensive and impractical." The Gover nor says that "an elective school board Watched by U. S. Agents reflects public opinion and that the schools are what the people make Authorizing Charles S. Grubb, of Dauphin county, to sue the State for damages for injuries alleged to have been received while in employ of the State Highway Department. Authorizing Theodore Davis and wife, of Erie county, to sue the State for injuries alleged to have been re-ceived on a State highway. The Governor also approved the House bill providing for election of as-sistant assessors in each election dis-trict in becautes and to subtract the substant assessors in each election dis-rict in boroughs and townships.

U.OCDEN-ARMOUR So serious does J. Ogden Armour, the great packer of Chicago, think the food situation in the United States since we have entered the war, that he had this to say on the subject: "As a measure of conservation, for example, I should favor the institu-tion, by government edict, if neces-sary, of meatless days, one or two of them a week, such as they now have in Europe. This is a strange doctrine for a meat packer to preach, but I believe that either by law or volun-tarily people will be obliged to stop eating so much meat during the sum-mer months, especially if they expect to have a sufficient supply next fall and winter. the basis of an army of 1,000,000 men as proposed by the administration to be raised during the next year.

Busy Times For Men Guarding Capitol

These are busy days for the score of State Capitol Policemen, the dozen of State Capitol Policemen, the dozen or so State Policemen and plain clothes men who are co-operating with the various departmental and legislative watchmen in protecting the State Cap-itol. Numerous rumors have been afloat that efforts are being made to steal the plans for renewing the tint on the walls of some of the corridors in the north wing and that the exhibit of a model road in the State Highway De-partment was being sought by an em-issary of the Bulgarian government disgulaed in smoked glasses and a red wig.

issary of the Bulgarian government disguised in smoked glasses and a red wig. The orders closing at sunset all doors except the central bronze door, known as "The People's Doorway." came near being annulled the other night by a drunk who went into the building and becoming wedged in the revolving door required the assistance of some State Policemen before being extricated and shipped from the Hill in the patrol wagon. And last night re-ports that a suspicious person was lurking about the north wing created much excitement. It turned out that the mysterious person was a drunk sgainst whom a charge of indecency had to be made. Thin clothes men who have rein-forced the Capitol policemen in the rotunda, are getting tired of drawing the fire of people they have to stop and question about bundles of laun-dry and there is more or less irrita-tion displayed by the men on guard when people quiz them as to why very often Capitol policemen and State po-licemen stroll up and down in each other's company. Reports that they are keeping watch on each other were indignantly denied last night.

ONLY 1200 SETS left out of 75,000 printed of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica in the superblarge-size Cambridge University Issue printed on Genuine India paper.

These are the very last in the world—and when they are gone, as they will be in a week or so, not another set can be offered at any price. Because no more India paper can be had for printing the Britannica in either this splendid form or in the popular smaller "Handy Volume" form.

THE Cambridge University Issue of the new Britannica is a magnificent set of books-printed in large type on large, wide-margined pages of the famous thinbut-tough India paper, and attractively bound, making each of the 29 volumes a fine specimen of the bookmaker's art.

The purchasers of this large, higherpriced Cambridge Issue include nearly all the prominent men and women of America. If the price of the Britannica is a secondary consideration with you, you should certainly buy one of these last sets of the Cambridge Issue printed on genuine India paper and bound in full or three-quarter morocco, or soft gray suede. (You can also buy it in green cloth.)

Don't buy a set without seeing both the Cambridge and the popular "Handy Volume" Issues, and making your own comparisons as to the differences in bindings and prices. They are identical in contents -page for page, illustration for illustration.

You will have to act quickly if you want a set of either.

The popular "Handy Volume" Issue printed on genuine India paper will all be sold within a few weeksthe last day will soon be announced when any order can be accepted with the possibility of filling it.

But the last of the few remaining sets of the Cambridge Issue will be sold even earlier. A week or so will see the very last set sold. And this means the last in the world—

BECAUSE no more genuine India paper can be obtained for printing any more sets.

This advertisement is being printed in the leading newspapers of the large cities; it will be read by thousands of men and women who, like you, are just now deciding to own the Britannica, convinced that it will be useful to them in their business and work.

If you prefer the beautiful large-size Cambridge Issue, you must order now to secure a set. There is no time for dillydallying-send your order in TO-DAY.

It is too late for you to send for literature describing the Britannica; you wouldn't have time to read it and make up your mind that you wanted the Britannica and send in your order before the last set is sold. You can see a complete set of the Britannica and samples of the different bindings, both the large-size Cambridge Issue and the popular "Handy Volume" Issue, at
