"EVERY WOMAN" IS SEEN AGAIN

Modern Morality Play Well Presented For Second Time in This City

The return of "Everywoman" to the Orpheum Theater last night was greeted with a well-filled house. Everywoman will be remembered by local theatergoers as that unusual morality play from the pen of Walter Browne, a clever young New York newspaperman whose death occurred the morning that his play was to first be produced...

The cast presenting "Everywoman" last evening was searched closely for flaws. There were none. Each characterization was filled beautifully but of special merit was the work of Miss Paula Shay, in the title role of "Everywoman," and that of George Sydenham, as "Nobody." Mr. Sydenham is the originator of the character, "Nobody," and in his creation of the role he has earned for himself a warm spot in the hearts of playgoers...

CANOISTS FEAR THEY MAY BE FIRED UPON

big five-mile canoe race from Millersport to Newport. To the winners of first place will be given a gold medal; winners of second place a silver medal and third place bronze medal. These medals will be the insignia of the Greater Harrisburg Navy and will be similar to the medals awarded to the winners in the similar event during the big Kipona celebration last Labor Day...

No Designs on Bridge In order that the canoeists might not be mistaken for a pro-German force by the soldiers on guard at the Rockville bridge, Ira R. Kindler was appointed a committee to visit Captain Paul A. Barclay of the Pennsylvania Railroad police, and to assure the captain that the canoeists will have no designs against the safety of the world's largest stone arch bridge...

Women's Best Beauty Reflects Health

Women who wish to be more beautiful, more attractive—should take care of their health. No woman can look her best, feel her best, or do her best, so long as she allows herself to suffer from unstrung nerves, headache, biliousness or constipation. There is no need to be burdened and depressed by these worrying ailments, for will soon relieve and dispel them, by renewing the activities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and promoting healthy conditions. With better digestion, stronger nerves and purer blood, come brighter eyes, clearer skin and cheerful spirits. This world-famed remedy is most useful as a corrective, for it acts promptly and pleasantly.
