PLANNING BODY BACKS PROJECT

Forty Houses Planned at Old Orchard; Recreation Provisions a Feature

The City Planning Commission has just set its seal of approval upon a big development and building project of Harold A. Hipple, the well-known builder and contractor, at Old Orchard, near Paxtang.

Mr. Hipple has laid out a plot for forty houses there, work on some of which has been started within the past few days, and all of them are to be of very attractive design, brick, stucco, and brick and stucco finish. But the outstanding feature of the development and one with which the Planning Commission is so well pleased that it will draw the attention of other builders to it, is that in the middle of one plot, bounded by Twenty-sixth street, Woodlawn street, Twenty-seventh street and Raleigh street, with opening in Raleigh and Woodlawn streets, there has been reserved a plot of ground for lawn tennis and playground purposes. The plot is sixty by seventy feet and will be dedicated to uses of the property-owners. It will be attractively planted and will for all time form a breathing-space and play place for children, and older folks too. Chairman E. S. Herman, of the Planning Commission, said to-day that he believed this to be a good practice, and that other builders would profit by adopting it. "I believe," he said, "that the value of surrounding property would be enhanced sufficiently for the setting aside of similar plots on many building operations."

"It Looks Like a New World She Says"

Dora Sheldon Glad That She Is at Last Rid of Her Affliction. BENEFITED BY TANLAC. "It looks like a new world to me nowadays," says Dora Sheldon, of Carlisle, Pa., "for I am at last able to walk in comfort after suffering such misery for so long. "Tanlac is certainly a wonderful remedy for it has brought me relief when all others had failed to help me and I cannot find words to tell my gratitude. "For a long time I had been afflicted with a swelling of my legs that was so bad that I had to hobble in shoes many sizes too large and often I could get nothing but felt slippers and could only get around the house slowly and painfully. "I tried this, that and the other medicine but none of them did me a particle of good and I was in despair when I read about Tanlac helping someone who was afflicted much as I was. "I began taking Tanlac and in a few days I noticed that the swelling was going down and soon it disappeared entirely. "Now I have no signs of any swelling and I feel wonderfully improved all over." Tanlac, the famous reconstruction tonic, is now being introduced here at Gargas' drug store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

NO. 11 Making a Friend of Your Newspaper. Why do you make friends with one man and merely have a speaking acquaintance with another who outwardly has just as many points to recommend him? Simply because one has tastes in common with yours, while the other has habits that do not appeal to you. Yet you pass no snap judgment on your friends to be; you weigh them well before you invite them to your home to meet your family. And you would very speedily put an end to the visits of any man who dropped in each morning to give your wife and children the details of the latest scandal, to show them pictures of scantily clad women, to teach them slang and practical jokes, or who ranted loudly and inaccurately about momentous questions. Would you encourage the visits of such a man? You would NOT. But have you ever looked at your daily newspaper in that light? Have you ever considered the character of the influence it is exerting over your family? If not, there is no better time to begin than right now. Of Philadelphia's newspapers that one which is the choice in the "worthwhile" homes is The Record. A newspaper that for nearly fifty years has been known as "Always Reliable," because it is clean, dependable, safe, sane and sensible. It is a newspaper well worth cultivating and worthy of the respect of thinking men and women. Tell your newsdealer to serve it to you regularly or notify us and we will attend to it for you.
