NATIONAL A. C. SHOW A FLIVVER

Murray-Smith Bout Was Slow and Preliminary Boys Were Poorly Matched

"If you want to see a fight enlist in the army, don't go to see a boxing show," was the opinion of the fans who attended the opening show of the National Athletic Club last night in the Family theater.

The preliminary bouts were a farce and the fans did not even get a chance to see any action at all.

Second Bout Goes Limit—The second bout was but little better but lasted the limit, it was between Eddie Dugan, Baltimore and Young Seidels, York. Seidels was outwheeled about twenty pounds and outreached about six, but was given credit for putting up the better fight.

Wind-up Only Fair—Harry Smith, Philadelphia and Jimmie Murray, New York, were matched in the final bout and while it was good at times it was by no means a real fight.

BEIDLEMAN HITS COMMISSION FORM

Argues For His One Council Bill and Cross-Questions Opponents

In the Senate chamber yesterday afternoon the upper branch committee on municipal affairs heard argument for and against the bill introduced by Senator Beidleman on April 21, providing the one council form of government for third class cities, one from each ward, and doing away with the present commission form.

Matthew Long, of Hazleton, accompanied by four residents of that city, opposed with considerable vigor a continuation of the commission form of government on the ground that it is more extravagant than representation by wards.

When the bids were opened it was found that the bid of the Central Construction Corporation of Harrisburg was $2 a square yard and that of the Warner-Quinn Asphalt Company $2.15.

At a meeting in Johnstown former Mayor Ira W. Stratton, of Reading, told the committee that without exception the commission form of government was endorsed.

Referring to the Wilkes-Barre paving contract Senator Beidleman said that a few months ago Wilkes-Barre council advertised for bids for the paving of several streets with asphalt.

HUGGED TOO MUCH SHE SUES HER HUSBAND

Chicago, Ill., April 26.—There is such a thing as being too affectionate. George A. Millen was his wife's ally in a bill for divorce.

"He squeezed and hugged me with the gentility of a bear, until paring only created sore ribs," reads part of her complaint.

The young lady across the way says that until recently she hasn't heard the word fluster since she was a little girl and the little boys used to slide down hill that way.

"What's the matter with the little fellows, Mrs. Dragon?" "I don't know, I'm going over to think Doc Pebblepills with 'em now, I think their fires have gone out."

Sonny doesn't mind being "washed up," if the water is good and hot.
