

"OLD GLORY" FLOATS FROM TOP OF MAHANOY MOUNTAIN

Group of Newspaper Editors and Other Prominent Men Place Flag Far Above Susquehanna River Near Middleburg

Middleburg, Pa., April 27.—"Old Glory" floats from the top of Mahanoy Mountain, the highest point in this section of the State. It is about 1,800 feet above sea level, and over 1,400 feet above the Susquehanna river. The mountain is steep and rocky, but it remained for seven enthusiastic patriots, three being newspaper editors, to scale the dizzy heights and plant "Old Glory" there.

guide, and Frank Betts, of Port Trevorton, the official photographer. The flag was presented and personally hung by Mr. Walker. When the flag was floated to the breeze, all hats were removed and addresses were made by the different members of the party. The work was done by the Pennsylvania Alpine Club, organized by the above as charter members. The flag can be seen for many miles in all directions.

Prosecuted For Cruelty in Driving a Horse

One prosecution for cruelty in driving a horse was reported yesterday afternoon at the regular monthly directors' meeting of the Harrisburg S. P. C. A. held in the office of the president, J. Harris Bell. This resulted in a fine of ten dollars.

Peace Officer O'Donnell also reported that he had made 251 visits inspection during the month and had investigated 25 complaints. As a result he shot 4 dogs, a horse and chloroformed 8 cats. A special vote of thanks was given to the newspapers of the city for their courtesy and generosity to the society in giving publicity to the Alfred Noyes benefit lecture. Special mention was made of the helpful and appreciative editorials on the work of the Harrisburg S. P. C. A. and its needs.

WILL PARADE IN ALLENTOWN

from 10 to 5 o'clock, and in the evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock. Included in the returns this morning were fifty additional memberships from Zion Lutheran Church, bringing its total up to 160. The Water Supply Commission sent in twenty-one memberships, and fifteen were received from the School of Commerce, 15 South Market Square. The School of Commerce also turned in a contribution of $12.51.

A contribution of $25 was received to-day from the Central Pennsylvania Suffrage Association for the surgical dressing department of the local chapter. The Central Construction Corporation took out fifty memberships this morning. More than $50 was raised for the Red Cross at the concert and dance given last night by the girl employees of the Dauphin Cigar Company, in the auditorium of the factory. Music was furnished by the Keystone orchestra.

City to Wage Campaign Campaign leaders and others active in Red Cross work in this city were greatly cheered this morning when word was received from Washington that to Harrisburg belongs the distinction of being the first city of its size in the country to start an intensive Red Cross membership campaign. Commenting on the good news, Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, chairman of the membership committee of the local chapter, and one of Harrisburg's forward-looking women, said: "I am very much pleased to hear it. Harrisburg always does its part and gives heartiest co-operation to any movement for the public good."

Serving As Example Harrisburg's enterprise in serving as an example to other cities in the State. Reading has been one of the first cities to follow Harrisburg's lead, and officers of the Red Cross chapter in that city have been in communication with the local chapter getting pointers on membership campaigning.

The Reading chapter has asked for the two big ambulance signs which are daily recording the enrollments in the local chapter. They are displayed on the Red Cross building, at 15 Walnut street, and on the old Commonwealth Hotel building.

Supplies of the little Red Cross stickers have been sent to Reading. The Harrisburg chapter is the originator of this marker and has received credit for it from National Headquarters of the Red Cross at Washington. Ship Fifteen Boxes of Supplies Fifteen huge boxes of surgical supplies were shipped to Philadelphia yesterday by the local chapter. The boxes contained 11,790 articles which had been prepared by women volunteer workers during the last two months. Other boxes of supplies are being held, awaiting word for shipment.

An auxiliary was organized at Halifax last night by Mrs. George A. Matson, chairman of the local committee on organizing auxiliaries. Mrs. Matson was enthusiastically received by more than a hundred men and women of the town.

"The Live Store"

"Always Reliable"

No Time For Haphazard Buying

In these days of increased prices in every commodity, haphazard buying has no place in the matter of clothes-buying, every man should see to it that his clothes-money gets value-quality.

Today there are more quality seekers than there are quality clothes—for quality is hard to get. The answer is: Place your faith with a store which has rigidly maintained its quality standards and whose growth and success is founded on the bedrock of greater value-giving. Such a store is Doutrichs "Live Store." One has only to see our stocks of

Kuppenheimer Clothes

To verify our claims of greater value-giving—One has only to note the wide range of styles for men of every age and taste to determine who holds the place of "leadership" in Harrisburg.

You take no chances when you come here in being satisfied, in getting quality, in getting the maximum value for every dollar. Don't take our word for it—come in and see for yourself—then compare the clothes here at

Something brings the vast crowds of loyal enthusiastic customers to the "House of Doutrich"

And we leave it to your good judgment why most people prefer this square-dealing store when it comes to buy in clothing and furnishings—Standards have not been lowered at this "Live Store." You can get the same high quality here now as always. In fact we have finer and better suits, hats and furnishings in our store to-day than we have ever shown in our business career.

A boy's mind is always active—he likes to be in the big game too—and he knows that he is playing a

"Winning Stroke"

When he goes to Doutrichs for his clothes—he knows also that it's impossible to get anything there that is not EXACTLY RIGHT and up-to-the-minute, for our new Boys' Department is brimful of the kind of clothes boys are looking for—Light and dark mixtures—shepherd checks—blue serges—pleated back models with new style pockets—all have two pair trousers except blue serges.

$100.00 REWARD.

$100.00 in gold will be paid to whoever suggests the name that the judges select as the one best suited for our new remedy, the wonder tonic Tablet. This formula has now been completed. It has been passed upon and pronounced good by prominent authorities. It is the last word in a remedy that builds, rejuvenates, invigorates the pale, the tired, the listless. It is all ready—but the name. We want the public to name this new wonder remedy and will give $100.00 for that name. Send in your suggestions—as many or as few as you like. The selection will be made by a board of five competent men whose decision shall be final and irrevocable and everyone who submits any suggestions thereby agrees to accept and abide by the decision of the Board of Judges. Contest is open to all excepting the employees of this Company. There are no conditions, no restrictions nor entrance fee. Send in your suggestions promptly. Every suggestion will be numbered in the order of its receipt. Contest closes May 1, 1917. Mail all suggestions to the Board of Judges, Care of The Sentanel Remedies Co., Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.
