The International Sunday School Lesson For April 29 Is "Jesus Welcomed as King."-John 12:12-16

Perhaps the news dispatches will had come up to the feast. At the present moment the British troops are approaching, and the most obvious of comments upon this story of the Triumphal Entry will have been rendered unnecessary. At the present moment the British troops are approaching, and the British troops are approached—the ancient city of Jerusalem. Until now the Turks have been in command, as for centuries past. looks squarely out on the Mount of Dilves, and while the present wall is not the one that surrounded the city in our Lord's time, this bricked-up portal is still called the gate of the triumphal entry. We need not be surprised to hear that the British, who have a full sense of the importance of religious impressions, have been deadly the surprised to hear that the British, who have a full sense of the importance of religious impressions, have beened the Golden Gate, in symbol that the long sway of the false prophet over the city of our Lord is ended.

For as surely as the Spirit of the Almighty rules the world to-day, overturning the counsels of men to the praise of the Lord, the new triamph of Jesus is being accomplished. He is entering anew into the minds of men and into the affairs of nations. Whatever else it will have lone, this war will have accomplished the rule of freedom and justice for oppressed people; and will have brought to the benighted places light and knowledge and health. Consider what the new-conquest of Jerusalem means in the way of sanitation and aw and order and freedom from petty tyrrany and oppression. Safety will come to even the poorest and weakest of Jewish refugees. No more will Jew or Christian have to skulk or hide in the old city. Wherever lighteousness wins a victory, there is a triumphal entry for Christ. Let as get firm hold of the truth that the victories of our Lord are not all n the past tense and in remote ands.

Moonlight Memories on Olivet One unforgettable night, in the full effulgence of the Passover moon, of stood on the slope of Olivet, looking over toward the city. I had crossed the Brook Kedron, and assed up beyond Gethsemane. Just below the rival German and Russian thurches which crown the crest of his mount of memories I tarried to ook upon the city over which Jesus prooded and wept. From Nebo's leight I had once looked toward it. Olivet, and knew the prominent place it occupies in the topography of the country, even as it does in the instory of the life of Jesus. Here, tanding above the very soll pressed by His feet, I mused on the great and heart-warming triumph that and come to Him on Olivet's slope. Then the city was thronged with levout Jews, gathered for the passiver. Their dress was as varied as hat which one could see, before the var, on the Galata Bridge at Contatinople. and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.
