MEHRING BOOKS STRONG WINDUP

Al. Murphy, Scranton, to Meet Tim Dronoy, Lancaster, at Next Show

Al. Murphy, Scranton, has been secured by Manager Bill Mehring, of the Keystone Sporting Club, to appear in this city in the feature bout with Tim Dronoy, Lancaster's fighting Harp. It is probable that the bout will be staged in the Chestnut Street Auditorium, on the night of May 17. The match is to be a ten-round affair and if past performances of the two boxers may be used as a comparison the bout will be one of the best staged in this city for some time.

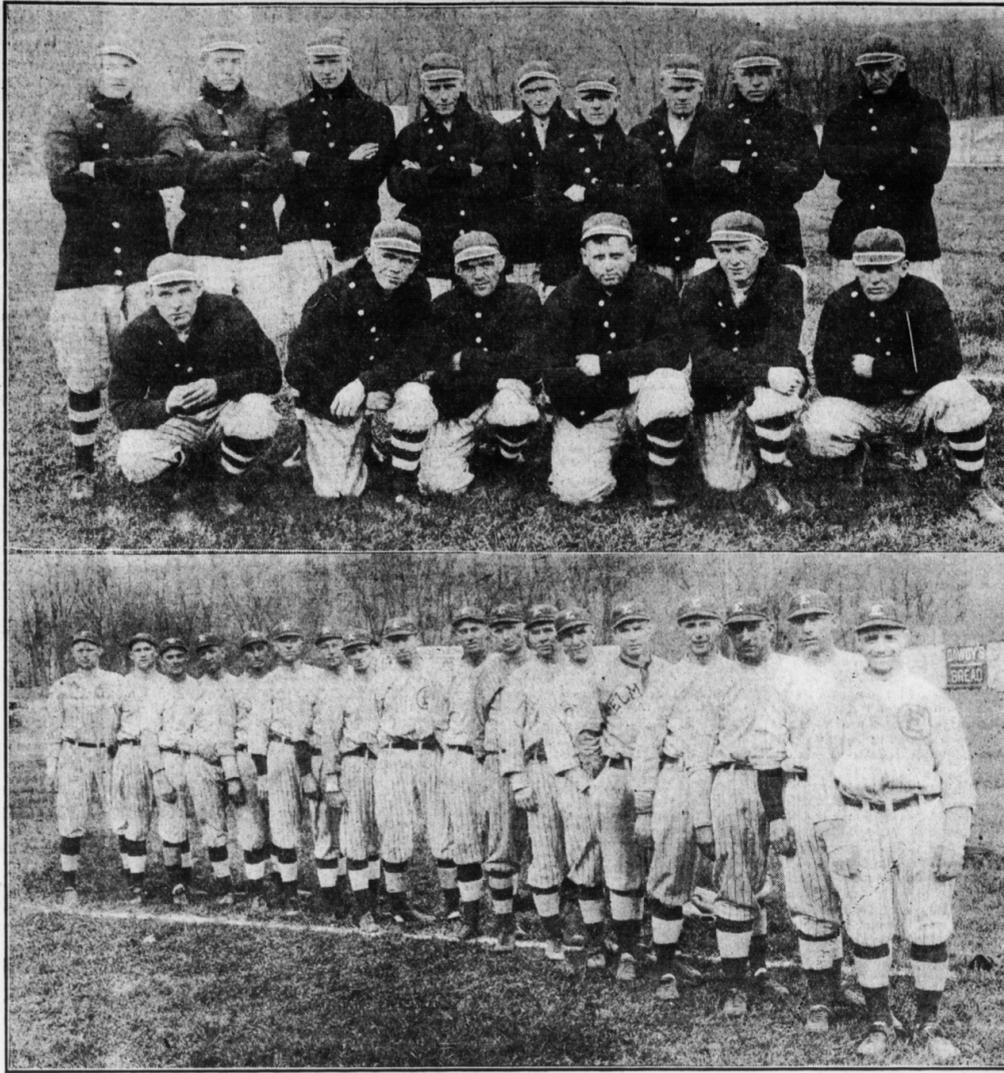

Murphy Known Here

Murphy has appeared before local fight fans on two occasions before, meeting Frankie Erne. His work was of a high caliber and the fans anxiously await a return bout. Dronoy is on Lancaster's best and several weeks ago at Joe. Barrett's show at York he fought six rounds with Johnnie Kilbane.

To Have "France Day" When Joffre Visits Chicago

Chicago, May 3.—"France Day" will be observed at either the Cub or White Sox baseball park on the day Marshal Joffre and the French commission visit Chicago. If the Cubs are playing at home, Wrigley Field will be decorated with the tri-color, bands will be playing, and an effort will be made to have the visitors stop in for an inning or two. The proceeds of the game will be turned over to the American Red Cross. A similar program will be carried out at Comiskey Park if the White Sox are at home.

Frankie McGuire Must Fight to Win Next Battle

Frankie Maguire, the local welter-weight, will have his work cut out for him on next Monday night when he faces Henry Hauber, the rugged hard-hitting Philadelphia boxer whom he is matched with at the National Athletic Club. The battle takes place in the family theatre. Hauber was present on last Monday night at Olympia, in Philadelphia, where Maguire boxed Buck Fleming, and Hauber says that Maguire's style of fighting suits him exactly. They are both fast and game fighters and the man who wins will know that he has been in some muss.

Hauber has met some of the best men of his weight in the country and he has never failed to give a good account of himself. Recently, in the Quaker City, he defeated W. O. Willie Loughlin, who recently won a six-round victory over George Chip, former middleweight champion of America. Hauber's particular stunt is aggressive fighting. He is a good boxer but he believes that the man with the hardest wallop will bring home the bacon. The club matchmaker announces that the preliminary bill will be one of the best ever offered Harrisburg sporting men, and one that no fight-fan can afford to miss.

BIBLE CLASS VISIT

Columbia, Pa., May 3.—Sixty-eight members of the Men's Bible Class of St. Paul's United Evangelical Church, of York, paid a visit to the Bible Class of Grace Church here Tuesday night, and were entertained in the church building. The men, led by Professor H. A. Bailey, of the York Y. M. C. A., marched from Wrightsville, across the bridge over the Susquehanna river and through the principal streets. At the church a male chorus, under the direction of John Nessinger, rendered selections and Daniel Gohn, the boy soloist of Grace church, sang. Raymond Weaver rendered a piano solo and recitations were given by Professor Bailey. Brief addresses followed, and the visitors were entertained at a banquet.

BLUE RIDGE COTTAGE ROBBED

Hagerstown, Md., May 3.—The cottage owned by Mrs. S. C. Gaver, of this city, at Blue Ridge Summit, was entered a few nights ago and robbed of about $200 worth of goods, including bed clothing, linens, jellies, preserves, etc. Mrs. Gaver and her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Horine, discovered the robbery when they went to the cottage to open it for the season. Four or five other cottages in the same section have been robbed recently.

MAY EXEMPT ALL PLAYERS

Washington, D. C., May 3.—If Ban Johnson doesn't win in his effort to have the War Department exempt his American League players from army services until after October and the close of the world's series, it won't be because of his lack of foresight. The American League dictator with President John K. Tener and Garry Herrmann, of the National Commission, will be in town within a day or two to talk over with the War Department the matter of exempting ball players. The average fan will probably say, why exempt ball players from the draft until October when everybody else has to register and enlist? And the answer is plain. Ban B. early in February requisitioned the War Department for the services of drill sergeants from the regular army to instruct the ball players in the manual of arms, military formations, setting up exercises and other forms of military tactics that go to make up the trained soldier. The sergeants were at the training camps with expenses paid by the ball clubs and whether they liked it or not the diamond artists had to perform this patriotic service. The result was that army formations and drill were a feature of all the opening games on the American League circuit. The National League, through its president, later sought the same assistance from army officers. Ahead of Rookies The result of all this is that the ball players are at least two or three months ahead of the ordinary "rookie" who will enlist in the army. With the War Department announcing that the registration of men of conscriptionable age will not be completed until the middle of August and the prospective soldiers assigned to camp for training before September 1, it will readily be seen that the ball players can finish their schedule and those eligible for army duty can still be assigned for service to the colors without being handicapped by missing the first month's or six weeks' drill. Doings in Big Leagues National League Another world's record, the first of the season was hoisted yesterday when Chicago and Cincinnati battled nine innings without a hit or run. Cincinnati found Vaughn for one wallop and a run in the tenth, winning the game 1 to 0. Toney pitched a no-hit game for the victors. Pittsburgh was held to two hits yesterday by Ames and St. Louis won 4 to 0. Brooklyn and New York battled to a 2 to 2 tie in fourteen innings yesterday, the game being featured with sensational fielding and superb pitching. Timely hitting and fielding of Stock and Smith yesterday aided Oeschger to pitch Philadelphia to a 2 to 1 victory over Boston. American League The Yankees pounded Walter Johnson for nine safe drives yesterday and blanked Washington 2 to 0. Chicago hit Coumbe, Smith and Gion of hand yesterday and took the opening game of the series from Cleveland, 8 to 3. Timely hitting behind Daus' superb pitching yesterday enabled Detroit to score a 2 to 0 victory over St. Louis.
