RAILROAD RUMBLES

MOTIVE POWER OPENS SATURDAY

First Game With Wilmington at Island Park; Big Parade Before Game

Another baseball opening of un usual interest will be that of the and the local Motive Power Athletic gram for Saturday afternoon.

mington, and will be played on Island Park field. Preceding the game there will be a parade. Motive nembers of the Athletic Association numbering 1,000 will patricipate.

Big Crowd From Enola

Enola will send a large delegation members and will be in the autoof members and will be in the automobile division. Auto trucks will be provided for Harrisburg and Wilmington teams. Music will be furnished by the Motive Power Band. Everybody in line will carry a flag.

Manager "Red" Owens is drilling a large squad and will pick his team to-morrow. He has good material at his disposal this season and is anxious to land the pennant. Wilmington will present a strong team. To date the following candidates have been out for practice: Catchers, Vanish and McDonough; pitchers, Rash, Holveck and Ray Elliott; first base, Mannering and Thomas; second base, Hannigan and Russel Smith; third base, Wingate; shortstop, Frank Duncan; outfielders, Shields, Jones, Walther, Camby Smith, Richard Elliott, Arthur Duncan and Paul Ray.

Altoona Veteran Dead, Was Boatman on Old Canal

William Waterson Vaughan, one of the oldest retired employes of the Pennsy in Altoona, died yesterday.

He was aged 90 years.
Mr. Vaughan was one of the few surviving veterans of the old Portage canal. He has lived in retirement for venteen years and enjoyed good

He was a native of Blair county and spent almost his entire life in the county. Being born at Newry, June 20, 1826, the son of James and Catherine Vaughan, he spent his early life at Newry, his first position being as a boatman on the old Portage canal, since abandoned, and operated between Hollidaysburg and Havre de Grace, Md.

Grace, Md.

He followed the life of a boatman for a number of years until his promotion to engineer in charge of the plane at the Head-of-Ten. From there he was transferred to Alliance, O., where he remained a short time, coming later to Altoona. He was night foreman at the Middle division roundhouse of the Pennsy until his retirement, July 1, 1900.

Pennsy Needs Men For Work in Railroad Yards

Sunbury, May 3.—Two crews in the Northumberland yards of the Penn-sylvania Railroad went on the eight-hour basis to-day, and more crews will follow as fast as they can be supplied.

The company is hiring men as fast they can get them to establish the ght-hour basis in the yards. Thus r they have been handicapped by a ck of men. It was the same they have been the same than the same lack of men. It was announced to-day that at least 100 men are needed to put the crews in yards and on the road on the eight-hour basis estab-lished by the Adamson law.

Railroad Notes

J. C. Buck, Jr., who is in charge of the hospital car of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Enola, has been appinted First Aid man for all ball games of the Motive Power Athletic Associa-tion.

J. B. Allen, storekeeper at the Enola shops at night, who has been on the sick list, with his family has removed to Millerstown, where he will reside in the future.

James K. Linn, treasurer of the Grand Assembly Mutual Beneficial As-sociation, with headquarters in Phila delphia, was in Harrisburg yesterday.

An interesting program is being prepared for the opening of the base-ball season at Lucknow on Monday. Weighing of mails on the Reading system has been completed. The Pennsy will continue weighing for another week.

The last of the ten shifting engines ordered by the Reading, some time ago, has been completed and wall be in service next week.

After fifty-two years of railroad service, John J. Burrows, general baggage agent of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway, has been retired under the pension rules of that company. Mr. Burrows started his railroad career in 1865 with the Lake Shore Railroad, and remained with that company for seventeen years.

FEW TAKEN FOR TRAINING CAMPS

Many Fall Down on Either Educational, Physical or Personal Qualifications

Although there seems to be no end of applicants who have applied and passed the physical tests for admission to the officers' training camps, a bulletin just issued from the Military Training Camps Association Headquarters in New York city, indicates that only a fair percentage of those examined are being accepted, and that there is a likelihood of the camps being opened on May 14 without the full quota called for.

This means that there is a demand for the type of men suggested in the original call, who can qualify from an educational, physical, and personality standpoint to office troops. If the 2,500 men desired for the Fort Niagara Camp are not selected by May 8, the date set for announcing the chosen list, it is
