"Raise Potatoes"--Slogan; Read Pennsy Booklet

"Raise Potatoes and Help to Win the War" is the title of a booklet the Pennsylvania Railroad is about to distribute to farmers and residents along its lines. It is a summary of a special bulletin issued by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

"Every potato produced before next fall will be more effective in the cause of the United States and the Allies than a bullet," is the basis of the argument upon which y J. W. Bowman. Plan to Link British and American Governments

Washington, May 4.—Linking of the American and British governments in direct and permanent financial relationship, a step deemed extremely desirable in view of American loans to the Allies, probably will be accomplished this week by the formal appointment of the Bank of England as correspondent of the Tederal Reserve Bank of New York. Appointment of the Bank of France it a similar capacity is expected to fellow soon.
