GOVERNOR USES HIS VETO AX

Seven Bills Fell nder the Dis- Headquarters at Boston to Be approval Weapon; Some Bills Get By Governor Brumbaugh late yesterthe following:

dedication of the completed C. E. headquarters building will occur, this to take the place of the public tis meritorious legislation and although agreed upon last fall to become effective before the State lettits new printing contract in February it has just reached the Governor. As a result the Governor charge that if enacted now it would cost the State thousands of dollars. The word," says the Governor, "this bill by delay negatives its good provisions and if now approved would add a very large sum to the cost of the State's printing."

House bill amending school code so that auditors would have to file their statements by September 1, 1917, the Governor saying that to add an additional law for a purpose so obviously unnecessary is not economy" and that the present act is adequate.

House bill providing that expenses add an additional law for a purpose so obviously unnecessary is not economy" and that the present act is adequate.

House bill providing that expenses of treatment of persons bitten by rabid dogs should be paid by counties out of the dog licease fund on which the Governor says: "Why should a county pay for the medical and surgical treatment of a well-toperson suffering from a dog bite and not pay for any other injury? Why make the county pay one of a hundred types of injury and not for others? Why pay at all if the person is able to pay his own doctor's bills?" House bill increasing salaries of clerks and employes in office of Philadelphia register of wills, on which the Governor says "that probably the men are entitled to increased pay, but that if they need relef it is but business of the City Councils to grant it. "The State is not warranted in entering into local municipal affairs in this manner."

House bill increasing fees of jurors in Allegheny county. The Governor says there is no reason why a juror should be paid more in one county than in another and that the proposed act is a backward step. "Jurors worthy of a place on a jury are there as a patriotic duty, not for the fee." says the Governor.

House bill validating certain elections, a similar bill having been approved April 26.

The Haight House bill to make the National Guard of Pennsylvania conform to the provisions of the National defense act approved yesterday is a complete military code and will become effective June 1, supplanting the act of 1915.

Senate bills approved were: Requiring citizens of other States to take out Pennsylvania hunters' licenses when hunting in this State and forbidding aliens to hunt.

Civil service for paid fire departments in third-class cities.

Authorizing cities, boroughs and towns to lease water works and systems and to operate them, the Public Service Commission to approve lates.

Validating elections which occurred in the case of the election in tems and to operate them, the Public Service Commission to approve rates.

Validating elections which occurred in the case of the election in Bethelehm on the question of becoming a third class city.

Giving Board of Delaware River Navigation Commissioners power to according of motor boats on the Delaware. Validating acts of corporations before recording of charters.

Six acts repealing obsolete laws relating to Allegheny county.

Amending act of 1915 providing that counties, cities and other municipalities need not file affidavits of defense.

House bills approved were:

Authorizing legislative reference bureau to continue work of codification of laws.

Providing that Philadelphia board of recreation shall consist of seven persons to be appointed for two year terms after this year; providing for a vice-president of the board. Exempting from claims of creditors proceeds of annuity and life insurance contracts not exceeding $100 per month.

Making persons appointed by County Commissioners to inspect county roads officers to enforce road regulations.

Increasing to $4 per week the allowance for care and treatment of chronic insane, half to be paid by counties from which insane persons were received at State institutions.

RETIRED MANUFACTURER, 85, TAKES BRIDE 78 VEARS OUD

RETIRED MANUFACTURER, 85, TAKES BRIDE 78 YEARS OLD

Hawley, Pa., May 4. — David A. Barnes, 85 years old, a retired silk manufacturer, and Miss Katherine Ackerman, 78 years old, were married at Hendersonville, N. C., on April 27, according to announcements just received here.

The pair were drawn together here two years ago when Barnes, following the death of his wife, came to Hawley to make his home with his sister, Mrs. Eliza Bigart, with whom Miss Ackerman was living. She is a sister of the late Mrs. Barnes, They will make their home here for the summer.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 4. — Because the crew of a Harvey's Lake car refused to stop at Fernbrook station early yesterday, leaving Joseph Bolotsky, of Luzerne borough, to await the arrival of the next car, Bolotsky, according to charges preferred to-day, dragged a heavy tie across the tracks and caused a derailment of a trolley express to Dallas. No one was injured.

Bolotsky was found hiding in the bushes that skirt the track and was identified as the man who had been passed by the earlier car.
