SCOUT MOVEMENT TO BE ENDORSED

Ministers Will Praise Work of Boys in Sermons Boosting Campaign

Boy Scouts Day will be observed in a number of city churches tomorrow. The ministers will base their sermons chiefly on the work of the scouts and they will also boost the $12,000 campaign which will be opened Wednesday for the purpose of raising money for the scouts.

Local Troop 4 will attend the services at Immanuel Presbyterian Church in a body. The Rev. I. J. Everett Hallman, pastor, will preach a special sermon. The Rev. Dr. Thomas Reich, pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church will preach to the troop of the church in charge of the scouts. This troop is the second largest in the city. Other sermons pertaining to the scout movement will be preached by the Rev. L. Taxis, pastor of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. George F. Schaum, pastor of the Harris Street United Evangelical Church.

Boy Scout Troop No. 7 is located at the Harris Street United Evangelical Church, which was organized in February and now contains 32 scouts. Dr. C. W. Batorf gave the scouts a very interesting lecture on first aid, this being part of their course to become a second-class scout.

It helps the scout to act quickly in response to doing his "good turns daily" to those who meet with accidents. This troop is under the leadership of Jerome E. Miller, scoutmaster, and Will L. Bailey, assistant scoutmaster.
