WOMEN QUALIFY AS MESSENGERS

Important Branch of Red Cross Urges Women Motorists to Register at Once

The Women's Motor Messenger Service of the Red Cross Society is receiving an impetus here, and at a meeting held yesterday with the chairman, Mrs. V. Lorne Hummel, it was decided to put it on a military basis.

There will be captains and lieutenants, wearing regulation uniforms, and members will be divided into sections for repair work classes under the instruction of skilled mechanics.

The messenger service will carry supplies, transport nurses and physicians, answer emergency calls of all kinds and assist in every way that a messenger can. Among the appointments already made are Mrs. V. Lorne Hummel, captain; Miss Marjorie Leib, adjutant; Miss Mary Spangler, Mrs. C. Lytle Miller and Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle, lieutenants.

All woman motor drivers of the city and vicinity who are interested and can take up this work are asked to register at once and qualify for the service. They can send their names to Mrs. V. Lorne Hummel, Bell Telephone 838, or at the Red Cross Society's rooms, Walnut street.

PUPILS' RECITAL IS INTERESTING

Readings by Class of Roberta Swartz Harling to Augment Red Cross Treasury

Some of the pupils of the elocution classes of Mrs. Roberta Swartz Harling will give a free recital Saturday evening, May 19, at 8 o'clock in John Y. Boyd Hall of the Y. W. C. A., Fourth and Walnut streets.

While the entire program is not arranged, yet it is known that the following young girls will participate: Miss Dorothy Rickett, of Elizabethtown, who will present a cutting from "Anne of Green Gables"; Miss Anna Gross, giving "Patricia"; Miss Lovina Buckwalter in a sketch from "Pollyanna," and Miss Irene Perego in several humorous selections.

Mrs. Harling, whose fame as a reader is more than local, is being urged to appear on the program herself, and as this is to be a Red Cross benefit, she will probably do so. There are no tickets, but a silver offering will be taken, and the general public is invited to be present.

ENTERTAIN FOR ROBERT K. YOUNG

Retiring State Treasurer Receives Glowing Tribute From Friends

Robert K. Young, who retired yesterday as State Treasurer, was the guest of honor last night at a dinner given by the force of his office at the Harrisburg Club. Thomas A. Crichton, cashier of the Treasury, was toastmaster, and many clever speeches were made. The floral decorations were beautiful, and the dinner was in every way a great compliment to Mr. Young. One of the interesting incidents of the occasion was the presentation to the head of the department of a beautiful and original set of exquisite design in silver, as a personal tribute from the force. The retires yesterday, and the force responded to the many complimentary speeches with much feeling, expressing his appreciation of the good will of the force and their loyalty and affection.

This evening Senators Sproul and McNichol will give a dinner to the State Senate at the Harrisburg Club with State Treasurer Kephart, the retiring chief clerk of the Senate, as the guest of honor. Mr. Young will be one of the special guests.

To-morrow evening about thirty of the persons who were in the former State Treasurer in the membership of the Harrisburg Club will give a luncheon in honor of Mr. Young on the eve of his departure for his home at Westboro.

Many pleasant little incidents of the week have shown the personal good feeling of the friends of the retiring State Treasurer. Mr. Dunlap, one of the clerks of the department, presented on Wednesday an initial ring hammered out of virgin gold, the personal handiwork of the clerk. Another clerk, Mr. Curry, painted a marine view in oil and presented it to his retiring chief.

Miss Helen H. Miller Bride of Norman Shettel

MRS. NORMAN SHETTEL

The marriage of Miss Helen H. Miller, daughter of Mrs. A. K. Zellars, 1315 North Sixth street, to Norman Shettel of Lisburn, was a quiet event of last evening at the parsonage of the Westminster Presbyterian Church with the pastor, the Rev. Edwin E. Curtis, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Shettel will make their home in this city. The bride has been an operator for the Cumberland Valley Telephone Company for some time past and Mr. Shettel is connected with the Miller Automobile Company here.

Ohev Shalom Auxiliary Hears Fine Programs

There was quite an enthusiastic meeting of the Ohev Shalom Auxiliary held Sunday evening in the vestry rooms of the Temple at Second and South streets, when final plans were made for the Red Cross benefit dance given by the combined Jewish Societies of this vicinity, to-morrow evening in Winterdale.

The entertainment committee of the Auxiliary has planned a series of most interesting programs, the first one of Sunday night on the general subject of "The Jew as a Patriot," including: a paper of Judah Touro, the great American financier and philanthropist by Miss Clarissa Claster followed by reading Longfellow's poem "The Jewish Cemetery at Newport," where Touro is buried.

The subject for the next meeting will be "Jewish Women of America," and the program will include: a life of Rebecca Gratz by Miss Jeanette Nachman; the story of Emma Lazarus by Miss Evelyn Gutman and a paper of Woman Suffrage by Miss Helma Kapner.

SHIPWRECK BRINGS BRIDE TO MECHANICSBURG MAN WHO IS CONSUL TO SWATOW, CHINA

MYRL SCOTT MYERS

Mechanicsburg, May 8.—Romance as thrilling as any tale of fiction will culminate in the marriage of Miss Alice Kelsey Brown, of Toledo, Ohio, and Myrl Scott Myers, of Mechanicsburg, United States Consul to China, in Yokohama, Japan.

When Mr. Myers returned to China last spring, after a visit to his mother, Mrs. W. S. Myers, and his boyhood home in Mechanicsburg, the days on shipboard were long and tedious and he writes home that he longed for a real adventure to enliven the monotony. Unknown to him, Dan Cupid was traveling on the same boat and conspiring with old Father Neptune for two great adventures.

Then Opportunity Came

Diversion came in the form of Miss Brown, a beautiful girl, but Myers found no way of becoming acquainted with the young woman who flashed by him on deck or sat demurely besides her mother at the dining table, all unconscious of the difficultly and landed them safely at a seaport town—a few hours after he and Miss Brown had decided that life would not be worth living if they had to be permanently separated.

Miss Brown, in company with her mother and sister, Mrs. Frank M. Heller, of Toledo, Ohio, sailed from San Francisco the early part of last month on the steamer Lenyo-Maru for Yokohama, Japan, where the couple will be married at high noon, May 15, at the American consulate in the presence of the officials and a few friends. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Brown will give the wedding breakfast at the Grand Hotel. After a honeymoon trip through the Orient, the couple will go to Swatow, China, where they will reside.

Miss Brown, who is a charming girl, and prominent socially in Toledo, is a graduate of Smith College, and has traveled extensively through Europe and the Orient. Mr. Myers is the son of Mrs. W. S. Myers, of Mechanicsburg, and was graduated from Dickinson College. He is particularly well fitted for consular service, having received training in various foreign cities and lately appointed consul to Swatow.

Initiative Legislation Is Upheld by Court

Philadelphia, Pa., May 8.—The initiative and referendum legislation of June 27, 1913, received judicial sanction yesterday in the State Supreme Court when Justice Meitzel filed an opinion upholding the right of the citizens of Luzerne County, Pa., to repeal a contract for lighting the streets of that city.

The litigation was the result of a fight between Mayor John V. Kosak, and City Councils on one side and Frank P. Slattery, District Attorney of Luzerne County and the citizens on the other. The dispute was over a lighting contract awarded to the Wilkes-Barre Company by council in October, 1916. A petition signed by 20 per cent of the voters protested against the awarding of the contract. Councils refused to entertain the petition and this action was sustained by the lower court.

The Supreme Court, in reversing this ruling holds there is no ambiguity in the referendum article and directs a mandamus be issued against the Mayor and Councils and the question of the lighting contract be submitted to the voters.

The Old Age Sign Double Crossed

Don't let gray hair make you look years older than you are. It is now an easy matter to tint gray, faded or bleached hair in a harmless way, the new preparation, "Brownatone," is proving so popular that thousands of people of refinement and many leading hair-dressers are now using this wonderful product exclusively.

Produces the most beautiful shades from light golden to the deepest brown or black. Will not rub or wash off and cannot be detected. Most all leading druggists everywhere now sell "Brownatone" in two sizes, 25c and $1.00, and in two colors—No. 1, produce "golden or medium brown," the other "dark brown or black."

Get a 25c bottle from your dealer to-day, or, if you prefer, a sample bottle with interesting book will be mailed on receipt of 10c.
