Drags Wife Through Street by Hair After Shooting Her

Philadelphia, May 8.—After shooting his wife four times in the arms and head yesterday at their home, John New, 28 years old, seized the woman by the hair and dregged her out of the house and along the street. It was only when the victim's cries for help were heard and two men ran to the rescue that the infuriated husband released his hold and dropped her. New then attempted to escape, but was captured 15 minutes later in a shoe store.

Mrs. New, whose first name is Victorene, and who is 29 years old, was sent to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital, suffering from bullet wounds of each arm, the right wrist and the scalp. She will recover.

According to the police, New head right wrist and the scarp. She will recover.

According to the police, New had been drinking heavily for several months and upon complaint of his wife several months ago was sent to the House of Correction. He was released about three weeks ago and, the police say, has been quarreling with his wife ever since.

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY Marjetta, Pa., May 8. — Mrs. Maria Doster, of Ephrata township, aged 67, died suddenly Sunday night from heart disease. Three children, eleven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren survive.

SWALLOWS PARIS GREEN Chambersburg, Pa., May 8.—Henry J. Stull, a forest ranger living at Black Gap, swallowed a teacupful of Paris green yesterday in an attempt to commit suicide. Physicians are trying to save his life.

A Tribute to the Lawyer

rie's keen and ne's clean—that's plain to be seen

Through all his long cases, tho' trouble he faces

And by IT he means WRIGLEY'S-just try it!

He argues and pleads for his client's needs

He cites and recites till you're dizzy

He's brainy, he's bright and he's busy.

He's calm and he's cool and he's quiet

He says to feel fit there is nothing like IT has won its case - people are for it. Largest selling gum in the world because it's liked by more folks. "AFTER EVERY MEAL."
