Grand Jury in Favor of Camp Hill Annexation

Carlisle, Pa., May 9.—In Cumberland County Court this afternoon the grand jury submitted its report on the proposed annexation of a section of East Pennsboro township to the borough of Camp Hill.

unanimous enthusiasm manifested everywhere shows that the people of the State fully realize the immensity of the task that lies before them and that they are preparing for it in the same great and earnest spirit that, early in the war the citizens and peasants of France, whom I know so well, showed.

bear away not only the pleasantest memories of most encouraging sights everywhere, but an assurance for my soldiers and the allies that cannot but raise their spirits. They shall know from me that not only are the immense resources of America pledged to the cause of civilization, but that Americans are with them in spirit as well.

of the United States was exemplified on the trip by M. Viviani at a meeting attended by thousands of the laboring classes as well as the soldiers and sailors of the United States. He concluded on that occasion: "Up, citizens in arms, to defend liberty, to defend justice. Our meeting place shall be on the battlefield that liberates. There we will complete the great work Washington began.

No man has a right to live for himself alone, to die for himself alone. No people has a right to live for itself alone, no people to die for itself alone. We all owe the same debt to civilization, to democracy. For them we will fight to the death. Long live France! Long live the United States of America!"
