OLIVET CHOIR'S SPRING MUSICALE

Excellent Program Arranged For This Evening in the Church Auditorium

This evening at 8 o'clock, the choir of Olivet Presbyterian Church will present its first annual spring musicale in the church auditorium.

Under the direction of Ralph B. Manley they have prepared two beautiful anthems, "Sing Alleluia Forth" by Dudley Buck, and "By the Rivers of Babylon," by Stillman.

Roy Mathias, the basso of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, will sing two solos. Meredith Germer, the young trombonist, whose work at the recent Tech high concert elicited many words of praise will play "Resignation" by Caro Roma and Mendelssohn Quartet composed of Messrs. Hoover, Runkle, Manley and Stamm will sing "The Boys of the Old Brigade" and "The Vacant Chair." Miss Moeslein will read "Italian Rosa" and "Pretty Brown Baby." Miss Sheaffer, of Middletown, will play two selections and the Stevens Memorial orchestra will complete the 'prospam with several numbers.

A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the choir fund which, it is hoped, will enable them to purchase new music and carry on their work on a more extended plan.

The choir is composed of the fol-This evening at 8 o'clock, the choir was given a farewell reception by the class members prior to leaving Saturday for her new home in Pitts Games, music and refreshments were enjoyed.
