127 American Citizens Held Prisoner by Kaiser

Washington, May 10. - That 127

Washington, May 10. — That 127
Americans still are held prisoners in Germany, probably crews from captured armed merchantment, was revealed to-day at the State Department. It is assumed that the men were brought to Germany by raiders operating in the South Atlantic.

The men are held, not because of their American nationality, but because they took pay on enemy armed merchantment. Other Americans in Germany are understood to be entirely unmolested, except for slightly increased police regulations, under Germany's policy not to recognize a state of war with this country.

LOCAL MAN OUTSHOOTS THREE WELL KNOWN EXPERTS AT TARGETS

Three expert shooters landed in Harrisburg yesterday. The trio met in a local store and there was some discussion on scores. Former President John G. Martin of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association proposed a testimonial shoot for the distinguished visitors. No sooner said than done. Yesterday aftermoon the shoot took place at Second and Division streets.

Harrisburg's crack shot carried off honors, Martin scoring 98 out of 100, and breaking 67 straight. There were others who shot well. A high wind prevailed and it required a good eye to get the targets in time. The other scores follows:

Keller, 124 out of 150; Welles, 117 out of 125; Shoop, 46 out of 50; Winchester, 90 out of 100; Cleckner, 39 out of 50; Squires, 89 out of 100; Esheman, 83 out of 100; Shank, 69 out of 75; Roberts, 48 out of 50; Casner, 33 out of 50.

Banquet For Employes by Mrs. Astrich

A most enjoyable banquet was given last evening in the diningroom of the B. P. O. E. Elks by Mrs. Herman Astrich for her employes to express her appreciation of their loyal efforts and enthusiastic co-operation in the difficult task of moving the big establishment from its old home at Fourth and Market streets to the new and enlarged quarters at 308 Market street, formerly the L. W. Cook building. Mrs. Astrich bid them all a hearty welcome and asked them to have "a royal good time," after which the banquet progressed with much merriment and the singing of patriotic and popular ongs. Covers were laid for eighty guests which comprised all the members of the store organization. The tables were attractively decorated with spring flowers, and a pretty budy as filled with flowers was at each place as a souvenir for each lady, while the men received pocketknives. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Edith Vigars, educational director of R. H. Macy & Co., New York City, who gave a very interest of the dignity and importance of salesmanship which has now become a recognized profession.

The next speech was by Louis Astrich, and when he rose in response to the toastmaster's call for a few words from "Mr. Louis," the butter was master mechanic for the spoke his popularity with the force, Mr. Harold Astrich, expressed for himself and his mother their sincer appreciation of the fine spirit which ment and so splendidly shown and the speaker of the spoke his popularity with the force, Mr. Harold Astrich, expressed for himself and his mother their sincer appreciation of the fine spirit which ment and so splendidly shown and the speaker and Mr. Plack can himself and his mother their sincer appreciation of the fine spirit which ment and so splendidly shown and the speaker and Mr. Plack can himself and his mother their sincer appreciation of the fine spirit which ment and so splendidly shown and the speaker and Mr. Plack can himself the speaker and the speaker guests which comprised all the members of the store organization. POULTRY RAISING EFFICIENCY URGED BY STATE COLLEGE Poultry raising is of the utmost importance in these days of high prices and food shortage. The poultry business in Pennsylvania amounts ness in Pennsylvania, according to the story told yesterday by Deputy Insurance Commissioner S. W. McCulloch. He said:

"This is not the first time we have met Mr. Birdseye. Several years ago, during the administration of Insurance Commissioner Charles Johnson, Mr. Birdseye appeared at the office of the department. He said he had acquired the charter of the Interstate Trust Company of Philadelphia and desired to start a life insurance complained for charter is one of those is use for some time. "Mr. Birdseye wanted to know what he would have to do to comply with the insurance laws of the State in getting his company started. Informed him that he would have to provide the necessary capital and sufficient surplus.

"He handed me mortgages for $500.000 on some coal lands in Schuylkilicounty, and $100,000 worth of brades on the Manatawney Railroad. Perhaps no article of diet of animai origin is more commonly eaten or served in a greater variety of ways than eggs. In Pennsylvania one and a half-million dollars worth of eggs spoil annually because they are not given proper care.

Eggs are cheapest during Maxolt, April and May, and are of better quality for preserving. For home use, eggs are satisfactorily preserved in one part of water glass to nine parts of boiled water. A ten gallon die cost of preserving, including cost of jar, should not exceed $1.50.

Where no poultry is kept, pullets should be purchased in the fall and a flock started. In existing flocks so casily as fertile eggs. Roosters
