Miss Molla Bjurstedt Plays Sensational Match on Essex Courts

New York, May 12 .- Hard hitting and volleying carried Miss Molla Bjur-stedt, the national champion, into the final round of two events of the women's lawn tennis tournament, on the clay courts of the Essex County Coun-try Club, at West Orange, N. J., yestry Club, at west orange, A. yes-terday. Miss Bjurstedt won her semi-final in the singles with the loss of only one game. Paired with Harold A. Throckmorton, in the mixed dou-bles, she won the semifinal in

A. Throckmoton, bles, she won the semifinal in straight sets.

The stalwart girl from Norway appeared to be in her happiest mood. She faced Miss Isabelle Robinson in the singles, bombarding her with slashing overhanders to win at 6-0, 6-1. Miss Bjurstedt meets Mrs. Rawson Wood in the final round to-day.

Sensational Playing
Vigorous and scintillating style furnished a showy match in the mixed doubles, in which Miss Bjurstedt and Throckmorton outplayed Mr. and Mrs. Everett Colby. The activity of Throckmorton as he played smashing volleys on the run and sent the ball sizzling across court, contributed largely to the spectacular features of this match.

this match.

Miss Bjurstedt, paired with Miss Marie Wagner, won a place in the final of the women's doubles on Thursday. As a result the national title-holder is to have one of her busiest days at the conclusion of the tournament to-day.

Festus Higgins Is Out With Old-Time Injury

Scranton, May 12.—During the seventh inning of yesterday's game between Scranton and Utica Festus Higgins, star right-hander of the Miners, was selzed with a recurrence of an old affliction and fainted. He had to be taken to the clubhouse and there attended by the club physician. Seven years ago Higgins was struck on the head by a pitched ball and has had sporadic convulsions ever since. He has had several operations but none completely effected a cure. Higgins thought that he was entirely well and Manager Coughlin, of the Miners, put him in to pitch against the Utes. He was twirling a magnificent game until one of the convulsions selzed him in the seventh. It is likely that Higgins will likely voluntarily sever connections with the club.

PITT BASEBALL TEAM CUTTING BROAD SWATH

PITT BASEBALL TEAM
CUTTING BROAD SWATH
Pittsburgh, May 12.—The University of Pittsburgh's baseball nine has been keeping up its winning streak and threatens to establish a record in the diamond sport equal to that made by the football and basketball teams of the past school year. This week the team is in the East, making their annual invasion.
The coming week the team has two of its hardest games of the year scheduled. First, West Virginia University will be played and Priday Penn State, the old-time rivals of the local school, will be met. Although Pitt won by a safe margin in their first game with the Mountaineers from West Virginia still the game was played on a very cold day and a closer contest is looked for this week.

The Penn State nine has always been the chief stumbling-block for Panther baseball teams. However, this year Pitt is determined that they will do away with the jinx and come into their own. The chances are that Coach Blair will hold Langdon in reserve for this important contest.

SOMEBODY LIED

BASEBALL TO-DAY

Flame and blood by the hill and stream,

Copyright, 1917, The Tribune Association (New York Tribune).

Oldtime Stuff

This is no bromidic day
In the Calendar of Life,
Where the nations stand at bay
Through the tumult and the strife;
Yet there comes an oldtime song,
Lifted from an ancient frame—
"Keep your head up—plug along—
Hold your grip—and play the game."

Some of us will live, and some Face the sunset's closing span, Where the drums are calling—"Cor Give your service to the clan"—But, amid the weak or strong, Let this chorus face the flame—"Keep your head up—plug along—Hold your grip—and play the game."

By the middle of June the pitcher who hasn't cut in with a no-hit game will be charged admission to the park.

You Can't Always Tell

Fate has tangled ways of moving along. On one afternoon Jim Vaughn travels nine innings without yielding a hit—and then loses the game.

A few days later he allows eleven hits, while his rival only permits two. This time Vaughn wins.

He loses where he should win 999 out of 1,000 starts; and he wins where ordinarily he would come in for a tidy trimming.

It's 50—50 over the full route—provided you don't weaken.

On the Potato Bugs

Sir—As a transferred golfer, I rise to a point of information—in hoeing potato vines do you keep your eye on the hoe or on the potatoes?

BOGEY II.

Golf should be a great training for farm work. We know any number of golfers who have had enough experience operating niblicks in sand traps to churn up a ten-acre field for planting in a forenoon. And the pleasing feature about farm work is that you don't have to replace the divots or carry around more than one club.

Sir—Speaking of St. Paul—The City with the Punch—how about Chicago? Look at her entry list—

Jimmy Barry—Bantamweight champion.

Harry Forbes-Bantam champion of America.

Johnny Coulon—A bantam champion of America.

Tommy White—126-pound bantam champion of America.

Eddie Santry—126-pound champion of England.

WE OLDE TIMER.

Eddle Santry—126-pound champion of England.

Matty the Manager
YE OLDE TIMER.

Last season Matty assumed charge of a ball club that had become wedged through inefficiency and force of habit into the grotto.
The old Giant star assumed charge of a machine that was replete with punctures and had run out of gasoline. As miracles happen only at rare intervals in this dizzy existence, there is hardly a chance that Matty will hoist his Reds out of the second division this season. He may—but the odds are all the other way.

The point is, howsoever, that Matty has undoubtedly started his clan in the right direction. He is proving that he knows how to run a ball club—a job that requires knowledge of baseball and knowledge of men. Given his share of time, he has the ability and the force to lead the famished Reds from the wilderness back into the promised land.

Not Quite

"The American League," says an exchange, "is fitted out with all the game's great outfielders—Cobb, Speaker, Jackson, Lewis, Hooper, Shotten heading the list.

All the great outfielders? Not quite. If George Burns, of the Giants, doesn't belong in this circle the piffling done is more futile than ever. Burns is a better outfielder than most of those mentioned and fully as stout with the mace as Hooper, Lewis or Shotten. Nothing to it.

R. H. E.

A number of noncombatants are figuring on baseball's late summer future and what will happen to football next fall. Whereas to-morrow lies beyond the dope and next week is another age.

As to what will happen to baseball around August or September, about thirteen of the sixteen major league citadels won't care two whoops in Grandold Gehenna after July. The idea for nothing to be annoyed about in the throbbing breast of the average fan is what will happen to a ball club with no chance to finish 1-2.
