

—Photo by Roshon.

Boy Scout Fund Will Total More Than $17,000

President Howard C. Fry reported at the meeting of the Rotary Club in the palm room of the Elks Club to-day that the Boy Scout campaign, which closed Saturday afternoon, has up to this time netted $16,245, and that outstanding pledges yet to be received may run the total to more than $17,000. This is the biggest over-subscription in the history of Boy Scout campaigns in America, the sum set having been only $12,000. The money all remains in Harrisburg and will be expended during the next three years or more to finance the Boy Scout movement here.

Print Paper Controlled by Trust, Senate Hears

Washington, May 14.—News-print paper would be declared a public utility and the Federal Trade Commission would be authorized to fix its maximum price by a bill introduced to-day by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, who declared the print paper industry trust-controlled.

"Unless some relief is obtained thousands of publishers will be driven out of business," said he.

A GRADUATE NURSE

Why She Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in poor health for two years, caused by a displacement, and a u r l n g six months of this time was under a doctor's care without getting any help. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I am entirely relieved of the displacement and periodic pains, and am now the mother of a beautiful healthy baby. I am a graduate nurse and will be glad to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to other women."—Mrs. R. W. Sloan, 6028 So. Park Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

There are many women who suffer as Mrs. Sloan did and who are being benefited by this great medicine every day. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion and nervous prostration.

If you need special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

YOUR EYES

Do You Neglect Them

Glasses $2 Fitted Right

Thorough eye examination by latest methods. High grade work at low prices.

H. W. NORRIS
Eyeglass Specialist
310 MARKET STREET

Too Late For Classification.

Help Wanted—Male

WANTED — Platen pressmen and feeders. Apply Foreman Job Printing Department, The Telegraph Printing Co., Harrisburg, Pa.

MUSSER STUDIO WILL BE MOVED

To Occupy Second and Third Floors of Remodeled Keller Residence

Announcement was made to-day with the beginning of remodeling work at the old Keller residence at Second and Walnut streets, that the second and third floors will be used entirely for the Musser studio, which is now located at 16 North North Third street.

As soon as alterations are completed E. E. Musser, of the Musser studio, will remove to the new location, he said to-day. The improvements include the installation of a large skylight in the large studio room fitted for commercial and portrait work, and a large reception room. The property is one of the Keller estates and the interior remodeling which is being done by E. M. Wagner, contractor, will cost $1,000.

The Musser studio has been located at 16 North Third street for the last twenty-seven years.

BUILDING PERMITS

Building permits issued to-day to Earle E. Krenn for remodeling work at 1405 Market street, at a cost of $75; and to J. W. Smith, contractor, for Morris Tuck, for the erection of a two-story brick building at the rear of 631 Her street. The cost will be $200.

Discuss Work of New Central Publicity Bureau of Labor Open Forum

In an effort to get the Central Publicity Bureau of Labor Open Forum on a working basis, Robert Maisei, secretary of the National Labor Publicity Organization, spent Saturday and Sunday in town conferring with local officials. An effort will be made to secure greater publicity for labor news during the war.

Mr. Maisei stated that practically every labor leader of importance to labor that had been repealed in New York State had been repealed by the action of the Associated Charities, said, and when she was rescued and started right he kept on her trail.

Mr. Yates said that this is the first of a series of such arrests the Aids will make as rapidly as evidence can be collected.

Philadelphia Man Arrested For Effort to Entice Young Girl

Abe Winscoff, of Philadelphia, has been lodged in the Dauphin County jail on a charge of endeavoring to entice a Harrisburg girl, whose name is withheld, to Philadelphia for immoral purposes. Winscoff had been largely instrumental in dragging the girl into evil ways in Philadelphia.

John Yates, of the Associated Charities, said, and when she was rescued and started right he kept on her trail.

Mr. Yates said that this is the first of a series of such arrests the Aids will make as rapidly as evidence can be collected.

New Building Completed For Brazing and Welding

The machinery has been installed in the new building of the Harrisburg Welding, Brazing and Machine Works, at 94 South Cameron street, and the shop is now in active operation. The building is of brick and equipped with the necessary facilities for brazing, welding and machine work. This company will specialize on automobile machine work, tooling, and machine making. The brazing of aluminum crank cases and the cutting of boilers and boring of girders by powerful torches.

A. A. Hayward established the business three years ago two doors north of the present location. Mr. Hayward having had eight years' experience in brazing and welding. Mr. Garverick associated himself with Mr. Hayward at a machine department. This, combined with the brazing feature, necessitated the erection of the new building. Mr. Garverick is a practical machinist, for years with the Pennsylvania Railroad and later master mechanic for the Harrisburg Light and Power Company. The associated experience of these two men is a combination for mechanical service that bespeaks success for the new firm.

Funeral Services Held For David T. Robinson; Widely Known in State

David T. Robinson, aged 82, a retired carpenter, died at the home of his son, David A. No. 414 1/2 North Queen street, Lancaster. He was born in Hopewell, Chester county, but spent most of his life in Mountville. He was a member and one of the founders of the United Brethren church at Mountville in 1868. His wife died in 1882. In politics he was a staunch Democrat, but took no active part in political affairs. Fraternally he was a member of Lancaster lodge No. 68, Council No. 8, Order of United American Mechanics.

He is survived by the following sons, all emigrated by the Pennsylvania Railroad company: W. S. Robinson, engineer, of this city; J. K. Robinson, telegraph operator, of this city; David A. Robinson, assistant yard master, Lancaster; Milton T. Robinson, trainman, of this city; and R. R. Robinson, manager of the telegraph department, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia. A son-in-law, D. S. Copeland, is P. R. R. agent at Mountville. Sixteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive. Burial will be held at 10 o'clock this afternoon at the Lancaster residence, at which the Rev. Dr. B. F. Allaman officiated. Further services were held in the United Brethren church, Mountville, and interment was in the Mountville cemetery.

The Rev. E. L. Hughes, of York, a former preacher at the Mountville church, and the Rev. N. L. Leinback, of the First United Brethren church, Harrisburg, officiated at the Mountville services.

Central Penna. Chess Champion Now Enrolled in Ft. Niagara Camp

Alfred S. Ellenberger, 3207 Riverside Drive, is another Harrisburg who is in training at Fort Niagara. He is a graduate of Harvard, class of '16, where he attained high mathematical honors. While in College Ellenberger was elected captain of the chess team and for the last four years has held the Central Pennsylvania chess championship. He has been assigned to Company 13 of the artillery.

Arch G. Knisely is among the Harrisburg boys who have been ordered to the training camp for officers at Fort Niagara. Mr. Knisely is a student at Yale and came home for the purpose of entering the service.

Dr. Richard J. Miller, chief resident physician at the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, and a son of H. O. Miller, 2321 North Third street, has enlisted in the Medical Reserve Corps of the United States army.

According to information contained in army general orders issued recently more than 2,000 officers have been commissioned in the Reserve Corps. Among those who will report at Governor's Island are Dr. George B. Kunkel and Rexford M. Glaspey, of this city, and Webster Calvin, of Hollidaysburg, to be first lieutenants.

Young Woman Killed and Man Near Death When Motorcycle Hits Auto

Miss Bertha Deever, an occupant of a motorcycle sidecar driven by Samuel R. Moore, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon when the machine crashed into an automobile driven by A. J. Schaffner, of Middletown. She died a short time after being admitted to the Harrisburg Hospital. Moore is in a serious condition.

Miss Deever's parents are dead 257 North Sixth street. Moore called for her yesterday afternoon and asked her to accompany him on a short trip. They were coming down Front street at what Schaffner described as "a good clip." Schaffner claims that he signaled his intention of turning up Lewis street and Moore apparently unheeding plunged head-on into his car. Both he and Miss Deever were hurled to the pavement. Miss Deever's skull was crushed and it is believed that Moore is internally injured.

Miss Deever's parents are dead and she has been making her home with her grandparents at York.

NO PAPER IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, May 14.—German newspapers say the Berlin government admits its inability to augment the supplies of print paper and that many journals must cease publication. Other newspapers will publish one or two editions weekly, while a few of the most important will be allowed to continue daily, but with a further reduction in the size and number of pages.

Harrisburg Catholics to Join in Steelton Parade

Members of the various Catholic churches of Harrisburg will participate in the big patriotic parade at Steelton next Saturday afternoon.

Invitations, extended to Harrisburg Catholics, were read at the services in all of the local churches yesterday by the respective rectors. The Harrisburg parishioners will parade as the guests of the members of St. James' Parish, Steelton. Requests that the local men be at St. James' Church at 1:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon, accompanied the invitations.

Shreiner Will Take Charge Tomorrow

While no announcement was made to-day at the office of Governor Brumbaugh it is expected that George A. Shreiner, of this city, will be commissioned to serve as Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings until the end of the Senate. This is the term for which D. Edward Long was commissioned as Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding, after the Governor had withdrawn his name from the Senate when that body did not act promptly upon it.

Mr. Shreiner will probably take charge of the department to-morrow. The Governor did not reach the Capitol until this afternoon and the new superintendent did not meet him. The salary of the superintendent is $25,000. Friends of Mr. Shreiner all over the city have been congratulating him.

PRINCETON MEN GO TO THE FRONT IN EUROPE

Twenty-seven Princeton professors and students have gone to the front in France to work under the British Y. M. C. A., among British soldiers in France, Great Britain and Mesopotamia. They sailed on a ship which has just left New York. In the party were Professor William Gillispie and Professor William O. McConnell, of the faculty; Supervisors Maxwell Chaplin, Jr., and Samuel M. Shoemaker, Jr.; Herbert J. Strickler and Albert G. Edwards of the Princeton Seminary; the Rev. Melrose Ramsey, '10, and John D. McLanahan, '16, representing the alumni; Duncan D. Chaplin, Jr., Marshal J. Edgar, W. Butler Harris, Jr.; Alan Jackson, Mark A. McCloskey, Alfred Mathiasen, James M. Speer, Jr., and John D. Warfield, Jr., of the class of 1917; Maxwell M. Hamilton, Edward C. Herendeen, S. David Page, Jr., Richard G. Preston, David R. Shotwell, of Harrisburg, and William A. Buell, of the class of 1918; John C. Milne, '20, and Ernest C. Savage of the class of 1919; James M. Landis and Elliott Speer of the class of 1920 and Andrew L. Cobb, Jr., of the class of 1921.

You Need Not Succumb To That "All-Run Down" Feeling

Simply Cleanse Your Blood of Its Sluggishness So Prevalent in Springtime.

Possibly you are one of the thousands who just at this season find that you are losing your appetite, your system gets weaker day by day, you are easily tired, and a general good-for-nothing, run-down feeling seems to pervade your whole body. This condition is very general at the beginning of spring, and is nature's appeal for help in preparing the system for the change in seasons. Your blood is sluggish and impoverished, impurities begin to clog up the arteries, and your system needs a general purifying and housecleaning to put it in ship-shape, for the coming summer.

Just now the best investment you can make is to take a few bottles of S. S. S., the great blood purifier and tonic. This purely vegetable remedy has been in general use for more than fifty years, and thousands use it regularly every spring. It has no equal for thoroughly cleansing the blood of all impurities, improving the appetite and toning up and giving renewed life and vigor to the whole body. Go to your drug store and get a bottle to-day and start early on the important work of putting your system in tiptop shape.

Write for free booklets and interesting literature to Swift Specific Company, 75 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Gross Will Be Back in Time For Meeting to Elect New Mayor

Commissioner E. Z. Gross left for Williamsport to-day to attend the sessions of Federal court. He has been summoned as a juror.

The city official is expected to return this evening and will attend council to-morrow morning, when a mayor will be elected to succeed the late Dr. E. S. Meals. Because of the absence of Commissioner Gross, bids for ripparing the river slopes between Calder and Macay streets were postponed until to-morrow noon.

Both Parties Support War Revenue Measure as a Patriotic Bill

Washington, May 14.—Debate on the war-tax bill occupied the House again to-day with the prospects at the stage of considering amendments might be reached before adjournment and a vote assured by Friday or Saturday.

Support from both sides of the chamber continued to show the disposition of the House to stand in the main by the provisions of the bill as drawn by the ways and means committee and to defend attacks upon it on the ground that the government must have the revenue.

Representative Longworth, of Ohio, Republican, opened debate to-day in favor of the measure. He declared the bill was "ideally balanced" and that ninety-five per cent. of the tax imposes would be paid by accumulated wealth and people of moderate means. He and the other Republicans on the committee had joined with the Democrats and Progressives, he said, in unanimous support of the bill and patriotism had been the guiding motive of the committee.

URGE PURCHASE OF LIBERTY LOAN

Chamber of Commerce to Bring Speaker Here Who Will Tell Advantages

The Chamber of Commerce is planning to give every support possible to the Liberty Loan in Harrisburg. They expect to secure a speaker of national reputation in the very near future to address a patriotic meeting. At that time every angle of the loan will be explained and the necessity of local subscriptions shown to Harrisburg people.

Patriotic posters will be printed and members of the Chamber of Commerce will be asked to post them in their windows. They will carry an appeal for prompt subscriptions.

Retail Clothing Here

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Retail Clothing Association met this afternoon in the rooms of the chamber. They are taking a short tour of the State, and made this the first stop on the journey. To-night they will be the guests of the local clothing store at the Harrisburg Club. The party includes: W. W. Keck, president; Reading; E. W. Phillips, Johnstown; A. D. Goldsmith, Altoona; J. J. Haber, McKeesport; T. M. Morgan, Williamsport; W. C. Westfall, president Altoona Chamber of Commerce; Raphael Jackson, Pittsburgh; H. S. Schmidt, York.

MINISTERS MEET

Routine business was transacted at an interdenominational meeting of ministers of the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Harrisburg in the Bethel A. M. E. Church at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Baptist Ministerial Association was held at St. Paul's Baptist Church this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Resinol clears away pimples

No one knows the humiliation of being a "wall flower" better than the girl with a red, rough, pimply complexion. If your skin is not fresh and smooth, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, try Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment for a week and see if they don't begin to make a blessed difference. They also help to make hands and arms soft and white, and to keep the hair live, glossy and free from dandruff.

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For a free sample of each, write to Dept. 11-N Resinol, Baltimore, Md. You'd better try them.

The President's War Proclamation

President Wilson's recent address to Congress on the war situation will go down in history as a memorable State paper. A copy of it should be in every home in the United States.

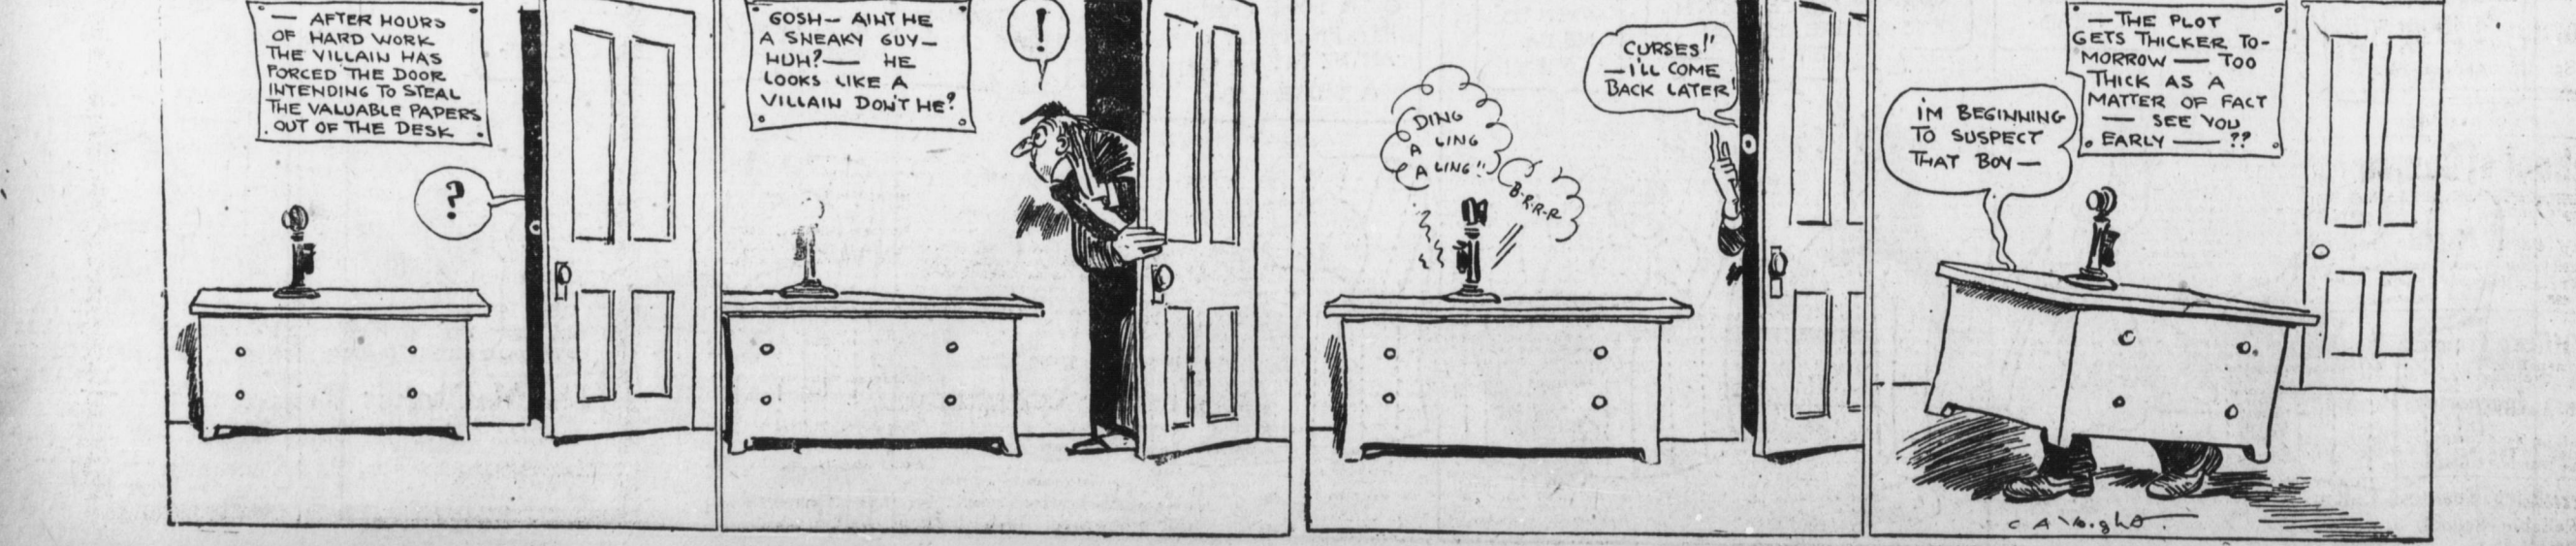

Anticipating this, we have printed the address in pamphlet form and it is now ready for distribution.

The Booklet is attractively printed in antique book paper with a handsome vignette of President Wilson with facsimile signature. Sent anywhere in United States or Canada on receipt of price.

Single Copy, 25c

The Telegraph Printing Co.
Harrisburg, Pa.

THE PERILS OF PETEY—"Gee Whizz!" Part One

By C. A. VOIGHT