KEYSTONE CLUB HAS GOOD BILL

Tim Dronay Meets Al Murphy in Ten-Round Windup; Fast Preliminaries

Speed boys feature the bill of the Keystone Sporting Club at Chestnut Street Auditorium Thursday night. Manager Billy Mehring has been busy getting this aggregation together. The windup will be between Tim Dronay, of Lancaster, and Al Murphy, of Scranton. Both boys are popular in Harrisburg. Dronay has always given a good account of himself in local battles. He has a hard foe in Al Murphy. The latter will reach Harrisburg to-morrow and finish his training here. Semiwindup Strong In the semiwindup will be Tommy Higgins, of Scranton, and Pete Howell, of Philadelphia. The Scranton lad has a grievance with his Quaker opponent and wants to settle it Thursday night. There has been a dispute as to claims of these fighters, each having won a decision that was questioned. The preliminaries will include Herb Hunter, of this city, who is scheduled to meet Dave Shank, of Lancaster; and Billie Waltz, of Lancaster, who will go six rounds with Charlie Daggert, of Philadelphia. This bout has been picked as one of the best exhibitions of the evening.

Hepford, Taylor, Kirk, Stutzman, Clecker, G. Hepford, S. Ludlow and Schang. He has selected Kurtz and Cooper for his battery.

Senate Fails to Pass Salary Raiser Bill The Senate last night failed to pass the bill which would increase the pay of legislators from $1,000 to $2,500. The bill had been passed by the House, but failed to get a constitutional majority in the Senate. It is apparent from several of the votes that members who favor it may make an effort to have it reconsidered after they have gone over the situation.

NEW BABY WITH BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS

There is a new baby with the Barnum & Bailey circus which will be seen here next Monday. He is Emil Pallenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pallenberg, who have the trained bears that go on roller skates and ride bicycles. The little fellow is just passed his first year and you may be sure that there is a keen rivalry among the women behind the scenes for the privilege of taking care of the baby when his mother and father are out on the road. Little Emil came along late in the winter of 1916 and was just in time to take the place of Katherine Wallace, who for five years was the pet of every member of the circus organization. Little Katherine is to old now to be a circus baby—being all of five years, so she was left behind in New York to go to school. Her mother, who is chief of the circus wardrobe, was inconsolable when the big show first started on the road, but Katherine must be educated and the big show won't see her again as a traveling pet until her school days are over and then, perhaps, she will follow the circus route and become a star.

Before the circus left New York, Katherine paid an official visit to the new baby and gravely bestowed upon him the kiss of sovereignty. "He is the nicest baby I ever saw,"

ORPHEUM—Entire week, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday. MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"The Woman Who Dared." REGENT—"The Prison Without Walls."

Wallace Reid and Myrtle Stedman will be shown to-day at the Regent in a final presentation. "The Prison Without Walls," Regent To-day. Though not a political film, in the sense that it is partisan, the story has to do with official strife, and crusades against crime. The workrooms of a well-known penitentiary and the services of a number of its guards are shown in this picture.

"The Woman Who Dared," a splendid seven-part motion picture, starring Virginia Blinn, will be the attraction at the Colonial Theatre for the day, where it is showing on the same program with a screaming two-reel Keystone comedy.

MY TIRED FEET ACHE FOR "TIZ" Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-cracked, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy as they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callosities and bunions. There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Decisive measures with a view to democratization of the army and reinforcement of Russia's military strength at the front for the defense of Russian liberty.
