Franklin County Man Cruel to Sick Horse

Waynesboro, Pa., May 16.—George W. Cressler, north of Waynesboro, was arrested yesterday by Corporal C. H. Rhoads of the State Police, charged with cruelty to animals. Sunday night a horse belonging to Cressler became sick and was allowed to run loose in the barnyard. In some way the animal became tangled in an old wagon and was thrown down, cutting its throat in the fall, and losing a lot of blood. When Cressler looked at the animal next morning he said he knew it would die, so he hit it on the head with an eight-pound sledge hammer. Five minutes later he noticed that the horse was still living, and he hit it again.

On Thursday evening the graduating exercises will be held in the college church, at which time the Rev. Dr. J. A. Singmaster, president of the faculty, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Keeps the Straightest, Unrullest Hair in Carl You've never seen anything work such wonders for straight, lank, unruly hair as plain liquid lime. Nothing else will keep the hair in place for so long a time—nor give such beautifully lustrous, natural-looking curls and waves. Pamp or windy weather has no terror for the woman who uses it. And no one need hesitate to use it, for it is so easily applied with a brush and is so perfectly harmless. It leaves no greasy, sticky or streaky trace. The curliness can be acquired in three hours, though many prefer to apply the liquid at bedtime. When the hair is combed out it is delightfully soft and fluffy. Anyone who will get a bottle of liquid lime from the drugist and follow the accompanying directions will have a most agreeable surprise. The liquid is also valued as a splendid dressing for the hair.—Advertisement.

"It Has Made Me Very Happy" Says Mrs. Fleck

Acute Indigestion Rendered Her Almost Helpless So She Couldn't Get About

TANLAC BENEFITTED HER

"Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and it has made me very happy," says Mrs. Isabella Fleck, of the firm of the Friendless, Harrisburg, Pa. "I had suffered terribly for a long time with acute indigestion and that was so bad that I couldn't eat, I couldn't eat anything to speak of, I had cold chills and the gas pressure was so bad at times that I couldn't talk. "Worst of all, I couldn't attend church and it is thanks to another church member that I am now able to be about again, for she told me about Tanlac and urged me to try it, even though I felt that my age was against me."

"But it has done me a wonderful lot of good for I feel so much better. I am hungry at every meal time, I have no more trouble with my stomach and I am able to go about without difficulty. I certainly advise all who are afflicted with stomach trouble to use this splendid remedy. Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Goran's Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine. Tanlac is also sold in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Chas. B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Shell's Schleissner Stores 28-30-32 N. 3rd St. Will Hold a General Clearance Sale of Women's and Misses' Suits on Thursday and Succeeding Days Which is strictly in line with the policy of this establishment not to carry over a single garment from one season to another. It is well known that we carry the most extensive assortments of women's and misses' garments in Harrisburg. We always carry large stocks in order to be prepared to meet your desires—for we know that when you select apparel of the character we carry you want plenty of styles to choose from. It is natural, then, that there is quite an assortment remaining towards the end of the season. But we are not going to wait until the end of the season to give you these extraordinary values—on the contrary, we much prefer to reduce our stocks while you have plenty of season ahead to make use of the garments. And furthermore, our summer stocks are in need of the room and we find it urgent to sell all the remaining suits as quickly as possible. Of course, there are not all sizes in each model. That is the main reason why we have made these deep reductions, and whilst we are pleased to have you come and share in the sale we hope you will not be disappointed to find your size missing in some cases. Altogether the assortments are so good that you will easily find a charming suit that will meet your requirements exactly.
