MRS. KIESO SICK SEVEN MONTHS

Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my housework, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and to-day I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for themselves how good it is."—Mrs. Carl A. Kieso, 596 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory, many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will do you good and may save your life.—Advertisement.

See the Poisons In Your Blood

Mighty Poisons Accumulated Through the Winter Months Mean Rheumatism and Disease.

Springtime always brings with it joy and distress. The distress is in the form of catarrh, neuralgia, rheumatic pains, constipation, inactive kidneys and usually feverish, sluggish lethargy that is hard to throw off.

Do you remember how grandmother fed you sulphur and molasses every spring to purify the blood? It was a good, old-fashioned, but nauseous remedy. Now you can take sulphur, cream of tartar and herbs in tablet form. A better remedy, easy and pleasant to take, in Sulphur Tablets. Sold by all druggists. A laxative, blood purifier of unequalled merit for those who are constipated and suffering in any way from such poisons. Each package is guaranteed to give wonderfully satisfactory results. Be sure you get Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets).

Spoiled Foodstuffs

Increase the already high cost of living. The use of ice will preserve your food until it can be economically consumed. Food placed on your back porch or on the window ledge is exposed to extreme temperature. During the night the weather gets cold. Next day the thermometer may go to 70 or 80 degrees. The rapidly changing temperature will make butter soft, milk sour, and fruits and vegetables spoil.

A small piece of Alspure Ice will save from decay food valued at many times the cost of ice. A well-iced refrigerator presents true economy. Alspure Ice is made from filtered water that has been boiled, reboiled, skimmed and again filtered.

She Wants Others To Know About It

"I feel that it is my duty to let others know of the relief that Tanlac brought me, so that all who suffer as I did will know how their health may be restored, says Mrs. E. M. Wert, whose address is R. D. No. 4, Hamburg, Pa., just outside of Reading.

"For years I was afflicted with stomach trouble in such an aggravated form that I was miserable both day and night. Nothing I ate agreed with me but would lie in my stomach and ferment causing me to become bloated with gas so that I felt wretched."

"I had headaches all the time, my eyes were weak and though I was run down and terribly tired all the time I could not get a good night's rest but would toss and tumble until dawn."

"But when I started taking Tanlac I noticed a marked improvement from the very first dose. My appetite improved so that everything tasted good, my stomach resumed its normal functions and gas no longer formed, and I commenced to sleep better and better until now I get 8 or 9 hours of glorious rest every night. My headaches are gone; my eyes are much better and I feel wonderfully well and strong. That's why I want others to know about this splendid remedy."

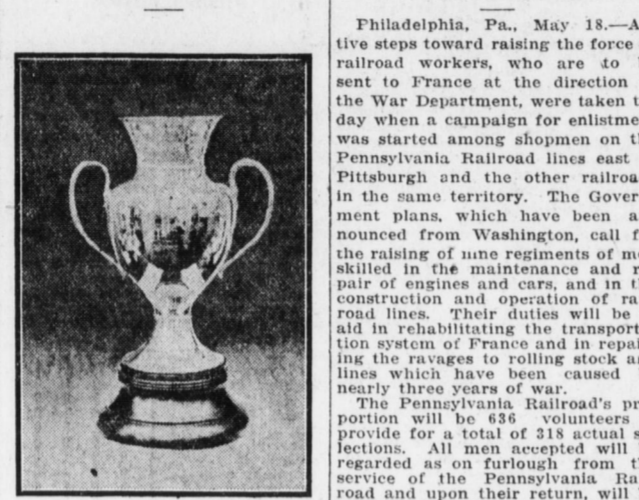

"Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine."

Tanlac is also sold in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethville, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Chas. B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy.

You may have had severe colds, leaving your system full of catarrh. La grippe, too, leaves its victims in reduced vitality. You haven't had the fresh air as much as you should. You have over-eaten and indulged in various excesses and in the Springtime, when you ought to feel strong and vigorous, you are tired, sluggish and filled with aches and pains—with no energy or ambition. So you sometimes wonder if life is worth living.

We tell you of Cadomene Tablets and a package or two will tell you more than we can, how they strengthen, tone up, and vitalize your natural resources.

The symptoms tell you you need a tonic—a Spring Tonic—and Cadomene Tablets is the tonic incomparable. Remember that! And remember that "alcoholic tonics" are false stimulants. JOE REDDY LOSES FIERCE FIGHT WITH TOMBSTONE

Well-Known Police Character Challenges Marker to Deadly Combat, but Is Unable to Score Knockout

The tired feet of the well-known police character, Joe Reddy, seldom wander far from his own narrow and well-beaten path between the police station, county jail and certain points en route where Joe steps aside for liquid refreshments. However, Joe wandered far enough from his beat on Tuesday night to challenge a tombstone in the Harrisburg cemetery. The police character and the tombstone met in a personal combat and then he was forced to take the count, ten days, at the hands of Referee James B. DeShong. An officer on his beat near the cemetery heard the familiar voice of Joe declaring himself, but the noise evidently came from the tombstone. Joe is well known to the police that his demise would be instantly heralded even to the outposts and the officer in question had heard of such tidings, so immediately investigated.

Picks Out One His Size
Drawing near to the voice he at first thought Joe to be in combat with at least a half dozen high school boys, but closer investigation showed Joe stripped of his coat addressing a tombstone of his own height in an uncertain terms. Not wishing to interrupt the little scene the officer allowed Joe to continue undisturbed. A familiar Scotch-Irish exclaiming as he circled his opponent, "take that will ye," as he danced a little nearer. "Come on and fight like a man," Joe's next utterance when he received no reply. Still that silent opponent made no reply and Joe knew from former experience that a quiet man was not to be fooled with. Nevertheless he was anxious to get the thing started in the right way and give the other fellow a chance at retribution.

Officers Drags Him Off
"Come on and fight like the man ye air," repeated Joe. "Ye air, won't ye, well take this, and that, and also this," he shouted as he dealt several telling blows on the tombstone. If nothing happens Joe will block him as he dug his toes into the ground to press his shoulders to the mat.

The officer, thinking Joe was going far enough, took him into custody and back to his familiar path, the police station and the jail for the night. If nothing happens Joe will spend the next ten nights there and again be ready to remind the alderman that he has a good job in Camp Hill that he will lose if he isn't given another chance to keep straight.
