ARMY WAR BILL GOES TO WILSON

Provisions of the Bill For Conscription in U.S.

The army bill, backed by the Administration, was introduced in the Senate April 19, was passed April 28—in the Senate by a vote of 81 to 8 and in the House, 307 to 24—and since has been tied up in conference, returned there twice by the House to include the Roosevelt volunteer provision and further pay increases for enlisted men. Its chief provisions are:

Raising of armed forces by the selective draft system, imposed upon all males between 21 and 30 years, inclusive, subject to registration and certain exemptions, Increasing the regular army to maximum war strength.

Drafting into the Federal service of National Careal

Drafting into the Federal service of National Guard

Raising of an initial force

Raising of an initial force by conscription of 500,000 men, with addition of 500,000 men, with addition of 500,000 if deemed necessary.

Raising, if the President sees fit, of four divisions of volunteer infantry. (The Roosevelt amendment.)

Increasing the pay of all enlisted men as follows: $15 additional monthly for those now receiving less than $21, comprising the bulk of the army, graduated downward to $6 additional monthly for those receiving $45 or ward to $6 additional monthly for those receiving $45 or more.

Prohibiting sale of liquor at or near army training camps and otherwise protecting morals of the soldiers.

Secretary Baker has announced that it is not expected to call out the first 500,000 men before September 1, because of "the depleted state of our supplies," and that there will therefore be no "appreciable interference with labor supply of the country until that date."

Machinery to register and draft the first 500,000 men already has been set up by the War Department. Immediately after the President signs the bill he will by proclamation designate the day for registration of the ten million or more men of the prescribed age. Registration books will be in the hands of state and local authorities who are to co-operate in the work, and Brigadier General Crowder, the provost marsnal general, expects to have his complete lists in Washington within five days after registering begins.

Then will come the task of select.

Then will come the task of selecting the first half million, exempting the physically unfit, those with dependants and men who are needed on the farm and in industries. The process of selection probably will be completed long before the men are wanted.

CATHOLIC BUY BONDS
Scranton, May 18. — The Catholic Women's Benevolent Legion at their national convention here subscribed $10,000 of their treasury funds for the United States Liberty Loan bonds. They also donated $5,000 to be raised by the councils throughout the country to the Maryknoll school at Ossinning, N. Y., an institution that educates priests for work in foriegn missionary fields.

Six U. S. Hospital Units DOES NOT WANT Equipped For Work in France Arrive in London

London, May 18 .- The first of six fully organized and equipped hospital units which the American Red Cross is sending to, France, arrived in England yesterday. The unit comprised about 300 persons, in-cluding twenty army medical officers, sixty nurses and more than 200 other attaches.

This unit will be the first officially sanctioned by the United States government to carry the American flag to the battlefields of France since the United States entered the war.

After a brief stay in England the unit will be sent to the continent where it will take charge of a base hospital behind the British front. The hospital will have accommoda-tions for 500 patients and be fully equipped by the British hospital service.

service.

Sir Alfred Keogh, surgeon general of the British army, in making the foregoing announcement to the Associated Press to-day said the arrival of the American unit was the result of plans completed by Secretary of War Baker and Colonel T. H. Goodwin, of the British service whom surgeon general Keogh recently sent to the United States to confer with the army medical authorities here. Surgeon General Keogh said it had been decided to send from America isk units comprising about 1,500 persons.
