

Whistle Pig Fishermen Start on Tour Tomorrow

Saturday morning the celebrated Whistle Pig Trout Fishing Club of this city will motor to the headwaters of Little Pine creek, somewhere in North Pennsylvania, for a two weeks' trout chasing.

This club has among its active fly fishermen some of its original members, who delight to recount their experience in teaching one like Walton how to cast the fly. The happy participants of the club are: S. S. Rupp, John H. Shopp, M. G. Cookin, William Cocklin, the Rev. H. Nelson Bassler, E. E. Ewing, C. Day Rudy, Luther S. Williams, H. C. Sessenan, John Plowman, John H. Sible, William E. Bennett, Michael E. Stroup, W. E. Parthemore, Boyd Rothrock, Robert Lyons and Dr. I. Blecker.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

CAMP FIRE GIRLS TO PRESENT PLAY

Honor Beads Awarded and Plans Completed For Entertainment

The Susquehanna Camp Fire Girls held their regular monthly council in the social rooms of the Olivet Presbyterian Church.

Honor beads were presented to those completing the honorary work. Miss Bertha G. Adams was awarded 34 beads, the highest number given. Miss Effie Blough received eleven beads, the next highest. Others sharing honors were: Miss Martha Shartzer, Miss Julia Shartzer, Miss Mildred Smiley and Miss Marian Shilby. Further plans for the camp fire play, "Any Girl," were discussed. The performance will be held in the Shimmell school building, Tuesday evening, May 29. The girls have been practicing ardently for it several weeks and are most enthusiastic for its success, as well as skillful amateur artists in their various roles. A hearty response is urged on the part of the friends and general public to attend this play and thus cooperate and broaden this fine work among the girls.

Those participating in the play, under the direction of the guardian, Mrs. Roscoe Bowman, include: Miss Bertha G. Adams, Miss Jane Wallace, Miss Sara Colsher, Miss Effie Blough, Miss Francis Todd, Miss Mildred Smiley, Miss Martha Shartzer, Miss Julia Shartzer, Miss Helen Gable, Miss Marion Shilby, Miss Mary Unger, Miss Dorothy Weidman, Miss Virginia Storey and Miss Edith Holbert.

ANNOUNCE BRIGHTBILL-FREELAND WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. RALPH M. S. BRIGHTBILL

Many friends in this vicinity were surprised when Mrs. Ella Brightbill told them to-day of the marriage of her son, Ralph M. S. Brightbill, and Miss Helene Elizabeth Freeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeland of Newport, Pa. The young folks quietly slipped away to Hagerstown yesterday and were married there by the Rev. W. L. Lynn, pastor of the Washington Square Methodist Church. The bride is a former employee of the Bell Telephone Company and Mr. Brightbill, formerly connected with Slabach & Co., is now with the Steelton Store Company. Mr. and Mrs. Brightbill are now "at home" at 1721 Apricot street.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL D. A. R.

Chapter in Flourishing Condition; Fine Reports Made and Officers Elected

With patriotism running high throughout the land it is no wonder that Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held a most enthusiastic annual meeting yesterday afternoon in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A. "Old Glory" held sway in the decorations with white and purple lilacs prevailing in the flowers on the platform and window sills. It was inspiring to remember that just 141 years ago to the day, Patrick Henry arose in the Virginia House of Burgesses and made his famous speech closing with "Give me liberty or give me death!"—the idea with which America is now filled.

The regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, presided, and after the usual opening exercises of song and ritual, the secretary, Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea, gave an admirable annual report. Highlights of the year noted were an outdoor celebration of Flag Day with Attorney Jesse E. B. Cunningham, orator; and regular meetings addressed by the Rev. Dr. Floyd Appleton, Jackson Herr Boyd, Miss Caroline Pearson, the Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson and Mrs. Maurice E. Finney, wife of Col. Finney of the Eighth Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, and a reception given by Bishop and Mrs. Darlington to the chapter to meet Marcel Knecht of France, who spoke on the war. The chapter assists in supporting a young girl of the mountaineers at the Hindman school, Kentucky, and contributes toward the Berry mountain school in Georgia. One hundred dollars was sent to the American Ambulance Field Service in France and at yesterday's meeting it was voted to present a fine new sewing machine to the local Red Cross, which will bear an engraved plate naming the chapter as donor.

Mrs. Frederick H. Marsh gave the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Edward Boyer spoke for the auditing committee, Miss Anna U. Wert reported for the prize committee, which presented three prizes in gold to girls of the senior class of Central High School writing the best essays on "Children of Colonial Days." Mrs. S. J. M. McCarell, as registrar, gave the present membership as 103, with an addition of twelve during the year and loss of three by death and since the formation of the chapter a total of 184 members.

Reports of Congress
The chapter was fortunate in having two delegates attend the national congress in Washington in April and most interesting reports were given by Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, the regent's alter ego who in her own happy manner told of important business transacted by that great body of patriotic women coming from all over the United States and various parts of the world. The delegates were unanimously in favor of enforced military training and every chapter is busy at work "doing its bit" for the welfare of the nation.

Mrs. Charles J. Wood Jr., who was chapter delegate, gave her impressions of the four candidates for president general of the national organization, and interspersed humor, accounts of a number of social functions and special meetings.

Mrs. Henry McCormick read an article on "Who Makes the Flag?" and Miss Ellen K. McCulloch presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That it is the sense of Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, that Memorial Day, 1917, be observed with all the solemnity intended by those who conceived the plan of consecrating one day of each year to paying tribute to the nation's heroic dead; the crisis through which this nation is passing, making it especially appropriate that every means be taken to stir the people to patriotic thought and action; and, be it further—present of Miss Laura Appell, Officers For Coming Year.

Mrs. Frederick H. Marsh, Mrs. John M. J. Raunick and Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle, the regents, announced the following officers elected to serve for the coming year: Honorary regent, Mrs. Robert A. Lambertson; regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder; vice-regents, Miss Caroline Pearson, Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. Elizabeth Crain Kunkel, Mrs. A. J. Herr, Miss Margaret Ruthford, Mrs. George Preston Mains; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frederick H. Marsh, registrar, Mrs. S. J. M. McCarell; assistant, Miss Ellen K. McCulloch; treasurer, Mrs. Rudolph K. Spicer; assistant, Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle; historian, Mrs. Charles J. Wood Jr.; prize committee, Mrs. David S. Funk, Mrs. Eugene Dismukes, Mrs. Joseph A. Thompson; governing board, Mrs. Levi Brandt, Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Mrs. James I. Chamberlin and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones.

The regent appointed the membership committee, with Mrs. Edward Z. Gross, Mrs. Henry C. Ross and Mrs. Charles B. Fager, and the music committee, with Mrs. Henry F. Hershey, Mrs. Guert W. Ensign, Harry F. Beck and Mrs. Frederick Morgenthaler, members.

The regent, Miss Snyder, who was elected for the third term, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses, orchid sweet peas, valley lilies and fern, tied with pastel and gold ribbons "from your devoted and loyal chapter," and the session closed with singing "America," followed with a pledge of allegiance to the flag.

RAISE PASTOR'S SALARY DESPITE HIS PROTESTS

Despite the protests of the Rev. Dr. Luther DeYoe, who has been pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Germantown avenue and Queen lane, Philadelphia, for just thirteen years, the congregation has increased his salary from $2,400 to $3,000 a year. Dr. DeYoe, who was at one time pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church, this city, has been most active in his ministerial duties and is deeply interested in the activities of the new parish house erected a short time ago in West Penn street.

Miss Jeanette Hoover, of Reading, formerly of this city, is the guest of her brother, Ralph Hoover, 216 Yale street.

Arthur Heinbaugh, 629 Wisconsin street, is home after several days' visit in Pittsburgh.

Will Continue to Be Prosperous

This is a time for sensible economy—but not for hysterical retrenchment in every direction. ECONOMY—so vital in wartime—is the judicious expenditure of money.

Without free circulation of money there can be no prosperity and RIGHT NOW the country needs prosperity much more so than when at peace.
