WAR CAUTION MAKES MARKET VERY DULL

Prices Hold Remarkably Well in the Main, the Only Marked Exception Being Shown by Motor Groups Which Adds to Yesterday's Setback

By Associated Press

New York, May 19.—Wall Street.—Dullness was the outstanding feature of to-day's limited session, latest events in relation to the war making for general caution. Prices held remarkably well in the main, the only marked exception being shown by the motor grou which added to yesterday's set back by 2 to 4 points. A 6½-point break in Denver and Rio Grande pfd. followed publication of an important court decision against that road. Other rails were firm with a firm inquiry for minor issues. United States Steel and affiliated industrials, as well as popular equipments and munitions were inclined to regain part of yesterday's late reversal. Specialties and utilities were featured by Industrial Alchol, Distillers Securities and Ohio Gas at extreme advance of 1½ to 2 points. Final quotations were only slightly changed from the best. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 250,000 shares. oBnds were heavy.

The Editor of our Investment Summary has just returned from a two weeks' tour of inspection of the
MID-CONTINENT OIL FIELD
His observations and conclusions, as set forth in a special report just issued, SHOULD PROVE OF UNUSUAL INTEREST TO ALL INVESTORS IN OIL SECURITIES.
Supplementing this, we have prepared an 8x24-inch brochre, containing about fifty half-tone pictures descriptive of the petroleum industry in Oklahoma, which is equivalent from an instructive standpoint to a
TRIP THRU OILDOM
and of immeasurable value to investors interested in Cosden Oil & Gas, Sinclair Oil & Refining, Okmulgee, Oklahoma Producing & Refining, Sequoyah, Osage-Hominy and other active dividend paying oil companies.

RULE OF IRON TO BRING RUSS OUT OF CHAOS

War Minister Calls on the People to Support New Government

By Associated Press

Petrograd, May 9.—Minister of War Kerensky, addressing the Congress of Peasants, announced his determination to introduce an iron discipline into the army. He made an impassioned appeal for support in restoring the morals of Russia's military forces and his speech was greeted with enthusiastic applause. A great demonstration occurred after he finished his address. The delegates embraced the minister and carried him on their shoulders to his automobile. Mr. Kerensky said in part:

"We must before everything consolidate the civic liberty, the revolution gave us, and we shall not do this if each does not do his duty to his country with complete self-sacrifice. Let us show the world we know not only how to destroy but also how to create.

Iron Discipline

"Soldiers, sailors and officers, I call on you to make a last heroic effort. I am your servant. Help me to show the world that the Russian army is not a demolished temple but is strong and formidable, capable of making itself respected and of defending the free republic of democratic Russia.

"It may appear strange that I, a civilian who was never a soldier, have undertaken the heavy task of restoring discipline in the army, but I accept it because I understand that this discipline is based on your duty and reciprocal respect. I have never known what this liscipline is but nevertheless propose to introduce an iron discipline into the army and I am sure I shall succeed."
