Harrisburg is still in the cellar. No hits when pitchers are going right; weakness in fielding, and a few other things not good in a ball game, have been responsible for the Islanders' failure to get into the winning stride. Perhaps the players are homesick. They certainly have not had a chance to get acquainted with Island Park.

She has beauty—she has poise—she has magnetism. She is dainty in manner—poised in action—and finished in performance. Her wide range and control of delicate emotions—her ability to register her feelings and thoughts so as to convey them across the screen, her rare grace of body and her finely chiselled features, it is claimed, not only make her the ideal Phillippa, but America's most popular heroine.

SATURDAY GAMES SHOW INTEREST

Harrisburg will be home this week for a series with Syracuse. The first game is scheduled for Thursday afternoon. Manager Cockill starts to day on another scouting trip. He is anxious to have the team in a winning stride before the games with Reading next week. He has confidence in the ability of the pitchers, who in his opinion have not warmed up properly.

The lateness in getting the consciption bill through is looked upon as a good thing for baseball. It is probable there will be no players called until in October. Cities within easy reach of mobilization camps, who in his opinion have not warmed up properly.
