COCKILL'S CREW IN POOR FORM

Hand Utica Another Victory; Islanders Play Like Rookies; Lack Leader

Utica, May 22.—Ragged fielding by Harrisburg with Ramsey's failure to show form gave Utica an easy victory yesterday, score 15 to 5. The Islanders put up an indifferent game. Downey at third was a big factor in the Utes scoring . Miller lacked his old-time form back of the bat.

old-time form back of the bat.

Ramsey went to pieces in the second inning. Keefe, who followed the veteran, had nothing and Tom Cockill came in and held the locals until the finish. Harrisburg had a rally in the sixth. Holmes, a new first baseman, who came from Norfolk, joined the Islanders and made a good showing. Bold, who has been holding down first sack, will warm up for pitching. The score:

The Season's Feature

With Francis Ouimet booked to enter the western amateur championship at Midlothian in July, this event will be the leading golf feature of the year. With Ouimet, Evans, Gardner and Sawyer as a nucleus, the West will take on the proportions of a national championship, so far as golf class is concerned.

take on the proportions of a national championship, so far as golf class is concerned.

Ouimet hasn't played in a tournament since he fell at Detroit before Jimmy Standish in 1915—the year of the Massive Upset, where Ouimet, Evans and Travers were all beaten in a bunch before the championship had hardly gotten under way. In spite of this absence from competitive golf, the Boston star has been playing brilliantly, and will again be a powerful rival for Evans or Gardner to face.

Ouimet, so far as the records show, has only faced Evans and Gardner once each. In 1915 he was drawn against Chick in the East-West preliminary, defeating the Chicago star 1 up in a nineteen hole affair. In 1914, at Ekwanok he beat Bob Gardner 9 and 8. So the two western stars will esteem it considerable bliss to have another shot at the Bostonian's headpiece. We the Quinet on hand the Western will have entries who have won two open and four amateur championships. Ouimet has won both the open and the amateur; Gardner has won the amateur twice, and Evans is now in possession of both titles. when Mitchell so the surple of the statement of the state of the surple of the state of the stat offense and strike out thirteen out of a possible fifteen on the defense, and still lose the game, was the hard luck of Platt, pitching for Reading against the Rosewood team last evening. Score, Rosewood, 2; Reading, 1.

Mell's homerun in the fourth with a man on base clinched the contest for the league leaders. Both teams were weak with the willow, a total of seven bingles being all that the two teams secured. Of the fifteen Rosewood players that were refired by the railroaders, thirteen were by the strike-out route. A little heavier work with the willow would have brought victory for the Readingites.

Darcy Is No Champion According to Late Reports;

Australian in Hard Luck

New York, May 22.—"Snowy" Baker, the daddy of boxing in Australia, informs us that as far as Australia is concerned, Lester Darcy is no kind of a champion now.

When Darcy skipped out from the Antipodes he was stripped of the middleweight and heavyweight titles. He is no longer considered a champion, and elimination battles are being held now to decide these titles. Australians, after hearing that Darcy had enlisted in the United States army, expressed surprise, but if they could; know of the reverses the Boy of Maitland has met with in this country they would understand that it was a case of necessity with Darcy.

Manager George Cockill has start-ed to strengthen up his team. If those in the graduating classes in engineering and medical schools be dismissed at once.

there is to be a team in this season's race, and patronage desired, the local leader cannot show activity any too soon. The team will be home Thursday for a two weeks' stay. During that period Manager Cockill hopes to get his team in the running. With one or two exceptions he has the material, but there has been a lack of team work.

Leg Darcy may not be able to enter the ring again, and according to reports will not even get a chance to enlist. His condition in a Memphis Hospital is said to be serious. It is also reported that should he recover he will have to take a long vacation to recuperate.
