YORK WATER CO. CASE NOW OVER

After Many Hearings Only One Reduction Is Found to Be Justifiable

The decision was given in a case inaugurated in August, 1915, and had several hearings. Mr. Ryan says that there is nothing in the testimony to warrant making of an order for reduction of the domestic service into metered and nonmetered classes or that the rates are excessive except in the instance in which a change is ordered.

Commissioner Ryan last night handed down a dissenting opinion in the complaint against republishing of cars on a Philadelphia division. He holds that the company acted illegally in republishing its cars without city approval.

Delegates Named—Governor Brumbaugh has appointed the following delegates to represent the state at the conference of the National League for American Unity in Washington, June 10-12.

Water Case Heard—The Public Service Commission to-day gave a hearing on the contest between the Northampton Water Company and the city of Bethlehem Water Company for the right to furnish water in the tract where dwellings are being constructed to house additional workmen for the Bethlehem Steel Works.

Public Service Commissioner Michael J. Ryan to-day handed down a decision in which he declined to order installation of meters on the system of the York Water Company, which supplies the city of York, and refuses to interfere with the rates charged by the company except for the mixing of concrete for paving purposes.

New Guard Officers—Joseph Gladstone Butterworth and John F. Harvey have been appointed second lieutenants and assigned to the machine gun troop of the First cavalry; and Dr. Martin L. Quigley, Tyrone, appointed a veterinarian in the National Guard with rank of first lieutenant.
