GAME BILLS ARE ADVANCED

With four of its bills passed finally the Senate, of which two have ne to the Governor, and the new me Code advanced to the point of al passage, the Wild Life League Pennsylvania is hopeful that in the xt two weeks the entire program legislation advocated by the or-advance and forests.

The bills which are now in the hands of the Governor are three in number, including the Bidelspacher bill extending the duties of fish, game and forest wardens which was passed last week, the Wallace bill providing for the establishment of auxiliary game preserves in counties having no state forest lands, and the bill giving additional protection to frogs, terrapin and turtles, which latter measure is a Eisheries Department bill.

The bills which were passed finally by the Senate this week after breaking speed-records for such legislation, are the Whitten bill doing away with the necessity for biennial appropriations of the Resident Hunters' License, funds, by making these funds available as soon as they reach the state treasury, and the new bounty bill introduced by Senator McConneil. There are still in committees the following measures advocated by the League: In the Senate, the Dell bill opening the unseated and auxiliary forest reserve lands to hunters and fishermen which is meeting with determined annesition and the Creater transury and the Creater tran forest reserve tands fishermen which is meeting with determined opposition, and the Crowresolution providing for a scientific, study of industrial pollution and its abatement where possible: in the House the Cook forest purchase bill

House the Cook forest purchase bill is still in committee.

The Powell bill appropriating the Resident Hunters' License Fund to the uses of the Game Commission is now on the House calendar. It provides for an increase for deserving game wardens up to $90 per month, and carries a provision for sixty wardens, an increase of ten war in the force. increase of ten men in the force. It also is expected to reach final passage in the House next week.

COLLEGE GETS POST OFFICE State College, Pa., May 24.—Har-Foster, postmaster here, received notification from Washington that State College wil have a $48,000 post office building erected here this summer. Plans and specifications for the structure provide for either a limestone or sandstone structure, trimmed with granite. The new building will have a frontage of eighty feet, and a depth of fitty-six feet. It will be placed on a lot, already purchased for $13,000 at Beaver avenue and Allen street. An additional $10,000 will be provided for equipment.
