QUIMET TO BE GOLF CENTER FOR SPORT WAR

The decision of the Western association to adopt radical reforms is a direct thrust at the reactionary United States Golf Association, the American parent body, and may result in untold complications in the national tournament this summer. Wagner Is Sore Over Salary Cut by Dreyfuss

Pittsburgh, May 26.—Local reports say the real reason why Hans Wagner quit the Pirates this season was the veteran's disgust at the ungrateful attitude of Owner Dreyfuss. It had generally been supposed that Dreyfuss cut Wagner's salary from $10,000 to $8,000, but the story which is believed to be true, states that Dreyfuss made the figure $5,500. Wagner would not have objected to a cut of $2,000, but he balked at the $5,500 salary. What made him more indignant was the cool manner in which Dreyfuss treated him. The magnate didn't offer Hans his unconditional release if the terms didn't suit him but dickered as he would with a raw recruit. Later when the Pirates made a poor start Dreyfuss got in touch with Wagner and offered him $8,000. Later he raised this to $10,000, but the old boy felt hurt and would not listen to Dreyfuss. He thought that after his years of faithful service for Dreyfuss and the money he brought into the Pittsburgh treasury, he should have been accorded better treatment.
