Civic Club Plans Directed by Mrs. J. K. White to Swell Red Cross Treasury

A special committee from the Harrisburg Civic Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. John K White, Front and Schuylkill streets to complete plans for the "School Childrens' Tag Day" for the benefit of the local Red Cross. The Board of Education has given permission to enlist the children in this movement and during the week Civic Club members will go to the schools, explain the system of work, and secure the registration of children willing to sell the tags in the streets next Saturday, June 2. With fifty tags and a bank to collect the money, the small folks will start out in the early morning and everyone approached is expected to give a contribution to the Red Cross.

There are sixty-four prizes for the children, including: First prize, boys; $10; first prize, girls, $10; two second prizes of $5 each for boys and the same for the girls; three prizes of $3 each for boys and the same for girls; ten prizes of $1 each for boys and the same for girls; three prizes of $0 cents each for boys and the same for girls. The three schoolrooms securing the largest amounts will each receive an American flag. Mrs. White is the general chairman and she has perfected all these arrangements.

In attendance at yesterday's meeting were the following women who enjoyed tea after the business session: Mrs. William Henderson, president of the Civic Club; Mrs. Andrew E. Buchanan, Mrs. Maurice E. Finney, Mrs. J. Thornton Balsley, Mrs. Archibald B. Millar, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., Mrs. Carroll S. QUIETLY MARRIED AT OLIVET PARSONAGE TODAY COUNTRY CLUB

MR. AND MRS. RALPH B. MANLEY

Pretty Miss Mabel C. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, of Mechanicsburg, and Ralph B. Manley, of this city, were united in marriage to-day at 1 o'clock in the par sonage of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Alfred L. Taxis, officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a modish traveling costume of tan cloth with hat to harmonize, and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses and orchids. Immediately after the service, Mr. and Mrs. Manley started for their wedding journey to Washington, D. C., Old Point Comfort and various southern resorts. They will go to housekeeping in their newly furnished bungalow along the river at West Fairview, and will be "At Home" to their friends after June 10. The bride is a graduate of the Mechanicsburg High school, class of 1912, and of the Keller Business school. She has been a stenographer with the Yohn Bros.' Music House for some time.

Mr. Manley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Manley, 1513 Swatara street, is connected with the Allison Hill Trust Company. He is interested and widely known in musical circles, a member of various musical organizations and director of the Olivet Presbyterian Church choir. Mr. Manley is an alumnus of the Technical High school of this city.
