Copyright, 1917. The Tribune Association (New York Tribune). The part that confidence plays in sport draws additional evidence from the case of Ferdinand Schupp, the Giant lefthander. For three years Ferdy sat on the bench as a substitute pitcher. No one thought Ferdy was good enough to be a regular, so Ferdy thought the same. And, what is more to the point, Ferdy pitched that way. He had fine speed, a fast, baffling curve and pretty fair control, until some critical moment arrived. Then Ferdy's lack of confidence tore him apart.

Cricket Benefit

Those who have long wondered just what sort of game cricket was will have a chance to satisfy their desires if they happen to be near Staten Island on May 30. Memorial Day.

On this date, starting in the forenoon, the New York Halifax Cup team will meet a picked New York team for the benefit of the British Red Cross. There will be representative cricket players on both teams and the match will be well worth watching.

Shoot all the stuff, both lean and fat, Your fastest curve—your deepest drop-Till Cobb or Speaker come to bat— Then call a cop.

The toughest job in baseball to-day belongs to Bill Donovan. Bill as an old pitcher is wise enough to know that each slabman should work at least once every four or five days. Yet here is Bill, with at least eight first-class pitchers on his staff to select from. If Bill works only four men he must leave four on the bench to rust. And the tough part is that any one of the eight is about as likely to win as any of the remaining seven. Fate will need an early start this year to chop away the Yankee pitching staff, whatever it may do to the rest of the club.

How to Putt

There's only one good way to putt,
To get the proper speed and roll,
And that's to tap the bally pill
Into the hole.
