liliegally killed is liable for the same penalty as if he had done the killing.

The game commission is given full authority to remove any game birds or animals that prove destructive to property and property owner may pursue and kill a bear that attacks person or property and may kill a deer of any sex that is actually engaged at the time in destruction of crops or trees on his property.

It is unlawful to hunt for or to kill any game bird or animal excepting raccoon between sunset and sunrise, and to shoot at or kill any game bird or animal in any other way than with a gun such as is fixed from the shoulder or a pistol or revolver which is not automatic. Boys under 14 may take rabbits in box traps on the lands on which they are resident, but all other trapping of game birds or animals is forbidden. In the hunting of wild waterfowl, the use of power boats or of more than 20 decoys by any one party is forbidden, no deer may be killed in streams or lakes or water courses and the old laws forbidding running of deer by dogs or killing of deer that are chased by dogs are re-enacted. The open season for training dogs on game is as before. September 1 to March 1, the sale of all game birds is forbidden excepting ringneek phease and the old laws forbidding running of deer by dogs or killing of deer that are chased by dogs are re-enacted. The open season for training dogs on game is as before, September 1 to March 1, the sale of all game birds in the State may not be sold or bought, and all game purchased and shipped into the State and the condition in this State may be bought or sold or shipped out of the State. No person shall have in possession except during the open season and for 30 days thereafter any ruffed grouse, ringneck or mongolian pheasant, Hungarian quall, native quall, wild turkey or any elk, or deer in the House.

re-enacted and shipment provision applies to automobiles and private vehicles as well as common carriers. Nonresidents are permitted to take out of the State one day's kill of game, during the open season of any year.

The penalties are the same as before provided except that the penalty for the illegal killing of an elk is made $200 and six months imprisonment, and the use of a gun propelling more than one bullet or ball at a time is forbidden in the hunting of deer or elk. Elk are protected until 1922.

Daylight Saving Bill to Be Pushed in Senate

By Associated Press
Washington, May 30. — "Dayligh Washington, May 30.—"Daylight saving" legislation, requiring all timepieces to be set forward one hour during the summer months, is expected to come before the Senate within a few weeks with the favorable recommendation of the commerce committee. Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, has filed a report for the committee upon the bill of Senator Calder, of New York, approving it as "fairly calculated to accomplish valuable economies in our national life."

GIRL WINS $150 HEART BALM FROM GUARD IN SCHUYLKHLE Pottsville, Pa., May 30.—A jury in court to-day awarded Miss Jennis Schatz, of Orwigsburg, $150 damage from John H. Forman, a nationa guardsman, for breach of promise to marry.

Letters from the guardsman, written while the national guard was quartered at El Paso, were placed in evidence, showing that Forman proposed marriage, to take place upon his return home, but when he got here, Miss Schatz says, he refused to keep his promise.

The bill was introduced in the Senate six weeks ago by Senator William C. Sproul, of Delaware county, and has been in the Senate Appropriations committee ever since.

Senator Clarence J. Buckman, chairman of the appropriations committee, to-day announced that the bill will be reported out when the General Assembly reconverse next Wednesday. It will carry the appropriation of about $50,000, which, Mr. Buckman explained, is sufficient to purchase the land for the home and start construction.
