

GOVERNOR VISITS FORT NIAGARA

Reviews Officers in Training For U. S. Army Commissions

Fort Niagara, N. Y., May 26.—Nature was exceedingly kind yesterday and a cloudless sky and warm weather—the fairest this year—greeted the 2,500 Pennsylvanians in training here when they awoke in the morning and prepared to entertain their governor.

It was 10 o'clock when Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Pepper, Major Williams, and paymaster general of the United States army for the State of Pennsylvania, and W. H. Ball, the Governor's private secretary, accompanied by a private car, they had been met at Niagara Falls by Captain Fred S. Strong Jr., post adjutant. They were taken to post headquarters, where the company colonel Miller, the post commandant, and Colonel Heavy, chief instructor of the student officers, who arrived on the parade grounds just as the companies began to form preparatory to the ceremonies.

At a command from Colonel Miller, the companies formed a hollow square, one battalion on the north, south and east sides of the square, with the post band and other guests standing on the west side. The sight was an imposing one, as the men stacked their 2,500 rifles in the center of the square and saluted the Governor and the services attending the formal presentation of the stand of colors.

After he had referred to the historic character of the camp, the Governor paid a high tribute to the men whose remains were beneath the sod on which the 2,500 soldiers and 1,000 civilians were standing. Governor Brumbaugh made a very appropriate reference to the nearness of the land of the country's greatest ally.

Continuing, Governor Brumbaugh said: "It is a peculiar coincidence that we of Pennsylvania should be gathered at Fort Niagara on this day and for this purpose. It is to be noted that the command of a distinguished officer of the United States army, Colonel Miller, from my own home town, and this I wish to congratulate you, and this country should pride itself to know you are under his superb leadership, the borough at Williamsport Tuesday, son College.

"You men in this camp, the flower of manhood of Pennsylvania, you are charged with a duty; see to it that you acquit yourselves with honor that your State may be proud of you. Your bravery should be equal to those who went before you and shouldered the musket in the name of the Republic.

"Here sleep some of the heroic men who gave their services and their lives that their country should end as the land of the free and the home of the brave. It is the solid compact of purpose that is back of your work, that will count for the upholding of the standard of American democracy and liberty is our duty. It ought to be our sacred privilege as that of the heroic dead that lie here to-day.

"It has been said frequently that this is an ungrateful Republic. There is no fact for this indictment. Every year we gather around our dead and memorialize them.

"There is another matter. It was said by the great English statesman Burleigh that the only contract that man can never be true to God. The converse of that statement is likewise true, I believe. He that is false to God never is true to man. You men must be true to God and trust in Him.

"You are a great body of men banded together for a common purpose and you can't be true to your country if you do not believe in the teaching of your minister, your mother, your church and home. It is only with the teachings of these that you can rise to the loftiest heights.

"Praises Pennsylvanians "We are all proud of you, Pennsylvanians, when you men marched before us here there was a thrill in our hearts of gratitude for you and for this old Keystone State. Down there, among your mothers, wives and friends, all those people of Pennsylvania look to you to carry forward the standards of your country unstained and uphold its honor wherever you may go.

"Pennsylvania has never failed to do its duty. Its record is unswerving. I charge you to keep it so. "We have not gone into this war willingly, hastily, but solemnly and resolutely. We have gone into it because the principles of this republic are in danger. It is for you to carry forward the principles of democracy, until it rules the world and the thrones of Europe have fallen to earth.

"God bless you boys of Fort Niagara and may He give you strength to carry to victory the principles of this great Republic."

STATE OF WAR HELPS RAILWAYS

Puts End to Trespassers Who Have Been Troublesome; Less Fatalities

"In one respect the state of war we are now in may prove to be of benefit to the railways," says the Railway Age Gazette in an editorial in its current issue. "A reduction in the number of trespassers upon railway tracks and trains may result from the guarding of trains and bridges by the armed forces of the United States for the purpose of preventing willful interference with transportation facilities.

Refuse Warnings "The trespasser, in great numbers, has persistently refused to heed all sorts of warnings of the ever-present danger of being killed by a train. The latest railway accident statistics are those covering the months of July, August and September, 1916, which are given in the quarterly bulletin recently issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission. They show that the number of all persons killed in that period in accidents resulting from the operation of trains was 2,781 and of this number 1,512, or 54.4 per cent. were trespassers.

"More than three times as many trespassers as of employes on duty were killed during the period under consideration. When it is taken into account that the list of employes killed in accidents resulting from the operation of trains included road trainmen and switching crews, engineers and motormen, firemen and helpers, conductors, brakemen and flagmen, hostlers, brakemen acting as switchmen or helpers—switch-tenders, crossing flagmen, gatemen, policeman and watchmen, trackmen and other employes, and that less than one-third as many men were killed in all these employments as the number that met death on account of their own disregard for their personal safety, it appears that railway operation is not a specially hazardous industry except for those who go on railway property entirely through recklessness or negligence.

Passengers Killed "During the same period, two passengers on passenger trains, two passengers on other trains, and three persons killed under contract (two class comprising postal clerks, Pullman employes, newsboys, baggage and transfer agents, etc.) were killed, and fifty-seven persons classed as passengers, met death from various causes around trains or in yards. In other words, twenty-three times as many trespassers were killed as of those excepting employes, who were rightfully on or about trains.

RAILROAD NOTES John Rorkle, checker and ticket examiner at the Pennsylvania railroad station, has returned from a three days' trip to Philadelphia. Passenger Fireman Percy L. Smith of the Middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was in Huntington last night.

causes around trains or in yards. In other words, twenty-three times as many trespassers were killed as of those excepting employes, who were rightfully on or about trains. "More than five thousand trespassers were killed in train service accidents during the year ended June 30, 1916. This number was more than 56 per cent. of the whole number of persons killed in all classes of accidents resulting from the operation of trains, locomotives and cars during the year."

LOCAL EMPLOYEES WILL NOT GO TO WASHINGTON Orders to send ticket examiners, special officers and baggage men to Washington, D. C., for the Confederate reunion next week, were canceled to-day by the Pennsylvania railroad. Adam Kreig and Joseph Trigo, employes at the Pennsylvania railroad station, were about to leave for the National Capital to-day, when the cancellation order was received. Special Officers Thomas Eckert and Charles Reidy, from the department of Captain Paul L. Barclay, were also ordered for duty during the big reunion. Charles L. Brensholtz, checkman at the local baggage department, has been in Washington for several days.

WORK ON CORNWALL BRANCH Equipment and material to be used in yard extensions at Conewago yards of the Cornwall and Lebanon branch of the Pennsy is being delivered. Work will start on the track extensions in the near future. The work of double tracking this branch has been delayed because of the uncertainty whether the training camp will be established at Miletina.

Charles E. Pass Makes Address at Elizabethtown Elizabethtown, Pa., May 31.—Yesterday the Citizens Band headed the Memorial Day parade, made up of the Grand Army of the Republic, Red Cross Branch, Ladies of the Patriotic Order of Americans, Odd Fellows, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Junior Mechanics, Wood-men of America and all the pupils of the public schools. In the exercises following the parade James E. Lantz made a short address and then introduced Charles E. Pass, of Harrisburg, who delivered "a stirring patriotic address. Miss Irene Lantz recited "Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg." C. E. Forney and D. M. Stine presented the Grand Army ceremony at the cemetery. The salute was fired by a squad of the Patriotic Order Sons of America and John H. Lyter sounded "taps." The chief marshal of the parade was J. A. Andre and his aids were Paul Bonawitz, Harold Romberger and C. C. McLaughlin.

William J. Lampton Poet and Writer, Dies New York, May 31.—William J. Lampton, newspaper and magazine writer, whose poems on current subjects are familiar throughout the country, died of apoplexy at his home here yesterday. His contribution to verse in the New York Herald yesterday is entitled "The Flag in Sight." Mr. Lampton was born in Lawrence county, Ohio. He began his newspaper work in 1874 as editor of a small paper in Kentucky and at various times had been associated with newspapers in the East and Middle West. He contributed also to many national magazines. Among his best known works are "Yaws and Other Things," "Confessions of a Husband," "The Trolley Car and the Lady," and "Some Animals I Have Known."

Many Foreigners An outstanding feature of the exercises in the cemeteries of Harrisburg and vicinity yesterday was the presence of many citizens of foreign birth and alien who have not yet assumed the obligations of sworn citizenship. These men and women, with their children, noted with inter-

VETERANS GIVEN GREAT OVATION

Thousands Cheer as Civil War Survivors March Along Streets

Ovations unequalled as demonstrations of patriotism and reverence were given yesterday afternoon to the Grand Army veterans as they marched over the city streets to the Harrisburg Cemetery, where the annual Memorial Day ceremonies were held.

The appearance of the local units of the National Guard, the Sons of Veterans, Spanish-American War veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Grand Army of the Republic and City Grays' Veteran Association with the Grand Army men added to the omnibus parade. The City Grays' Veteran Association, at the cemetery, too, the same feeling pervaded the spectators of past wars and the country's stand for liberty and justice.

Few Dry Eyes The roll had the grand old flag the salutes over the graves added to the impressiveness, and there were few dry eyes among those who witnessed the ceremonies when taps sounded clearly and sharply across the cemetery with the grass-covered mounds, decorated with flowers and flags.

Bands in line in the parade yesterday included the Eight Regiment organization, which made its first appearance in the City of Harrisburg, and the Sons of Veterans' drum corps. The principal memorial address of the day was made by the Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes, pastor of Market Square Presbyterian Church at the ceremonies in the Harrisburg Cemetery. The City of Harrisburg was in his declaration that the nation must stand together in the struggle. Pointing to the nations representing militarism and aristocracy, with their population of 164,000,000, he then said that the nations on the side of liberty, righteousness and democracy, with a population of more than 1,000,000,000, must eventually win.

In part of the address, the Rev. Dr. Hawes gave details of other wars, and emphasized that in the Civil War, "We cannot refuse to take part in the war that is fought for such noble ideals as these. We must compel Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey by force of arms to realize that we are fighting against world hopes and ideals."

An outstanding feature of the exercises in the cemeteries of Harrisburg and vicinity yesterday was the presence of many citizens of foreign birth and alien who have not yet assumed the obligations of sworn citizenship. These men and women, with their children, noted with inter-

Barney Baruch Eliminated as War Purchasing Agent

Washington, May 31.—Bernard Baruch, a member of the Advisory Board of the Council on National Defense, will not be appointed as head of the commission to purchase supplies for this Government and the allies. Neither will he be appointed to a cabinet position that had been discussed which was to have authority over the nations representing the allied governments.

This information has been given by a close adviser of the President familiar with the war plans and the discussion relative to the strengthening of the bureau for the war emergency. Mr. Baruch, this informant said, had perhaps innocently caused himself to be mentioned for such a post as a sort of tryout of the President and public opinion. The response from the public, business and Wall Street was so unanimous against placing Mr. Baruch in any position of such unquestioned importance and authority that if the President ever had in mind the naming of the New York broker as the head of the proposed commission it was quickly abandoned. The same informant said there would be no new cabinet places.

A commission will be created to purchase supplies, but Mr. Baruch will not be in authority, although he may be associated with others in the commission.

HEPTASOPHS MEET The regular meeting of Dauphin county, No. 96, Heptasophs, will be held in the Grand Army Hall, 26 North Third street, Monday evening. Representatives of the supreme order will be present. A. J. Guinn is archon and W. H. Shetter, secretary.

VETERANS' ANNUAL TRIP Elizabethtown, Pa., May 31.—Yesterday James E. Lantz and Roy Romberger, with their automobiles, took the eight surviving veterans of Elizabethtown on their annual trip to the five cemeteries in this vicinity.

Want Odd Fellow Centers Established in Army Camps

At a recent meeting of the Past Grands Association of the southern district of Dauphin county, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, resolutions were adopted urging the grand lodge to establish "Odd Fellow centers in the various training and field camps. The resolutions follow:

Whereas the present national emergency and the requirements of military necessity will call into the service of our country a large number of the younger element of our membership, and Whereas their location in military camps, whether within the borders of our own land or on foreign soil, will remove them from the influences and associations of their lodges, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Past Grands Association of the Southern District of Dauphin County hereby recommends to the grand master and board of grand officers that our representatives to the sovereign grand lodge be instructed to institute such action as shall lead to the establishment by the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows centers or headquarters in the several camps and military centers which have been or may be maintained by the United States military authorities.

The purpose of the above resolution is to provide a means by which members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows may be kept in touch with the friends and associations of their homes and to co-operate so far as may be possible in furnishing them with refining and entertaining influences. As the membership of the order reaches nearly two million men, the order will be strongly represented among our soldiers.

Removes Roots As Well As Surface Hairs (Something New and Different) The chemist who discovered the remarkable hair-destroying properties of this new preparation has conferred a genuine blessing upon a multitude of women. This peculiar substance seems to paralyze and destroy the hair roots, which it is applied, right down to their roots—and grows out very easily and quickly, roots and all, before one's very eyes!

Pinelectin is perfectly odorless, non-irritating, non-poisonous—a child could eat it without the least harm. Not to be compared at all with depilatories or electrolysis. It leaves the skin so soft, smooth and hairless, no one would guess you ever had a moustache or other hairy growth. If you will obtain a stick of pinelectin and follow the simple instructions, you will certainly be "more than pleased" or druggist will refund the price, without question.—Advertisement.
