ewville, Pa., May 31.—Memorial was observed in an impressive Newville, Pa., May 31.—Memorial Day was observed in an impressive and patriotic manner here yesterday. The parade formed in Broad street and, headed by the chief marshal und aids, and followed by the Loystille Band, daughters of veterans, inchool children, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Friendship Fire Company, Centerville Band, Grand Army of the Republic, and three floats by the different schools, marched over he streets of the town. In Founain Square, where the parade dispanded, a patform had been erected, and an address was made by the Rev. J. W. Skillington, of Hazelton, Pa. The members of the Loyal Temperance Legion sang several selections. After these services the veterans followed the bands to the Prespyterian graveyard and decorated he graves of the departed veterans, at the close of this solemn service an American flag was swung to the oreczes from a pole which had been alsed at the school building in the chool building in the chool building in the copysille Band.

JOURNALIST FOR 60 YEARS Selfast, Me., May 31.—Charles Albert Pilsbury, editor-in-chief and manager of the Republican Journal, a weekly newspaper published in this city, died at his home, on Court street, at the age of seventy-seven vears. Mr. Pilsbury had been editor of the Journal for the past thirtyeight years, having succeeded Willam Henry Simpson on May 15, 1879, but his newspaper career dates from 1857, a period of starty years of continuous service. This record is sorbably without an equal in New England.
