A Tale of the Sea!

About two years ago there sailed from India a vessel bound to the United States.

Many hardships and delays were encountered on the journey that reads more like the legend of the Flying Dutchman than a reality, for the ship only reached our shores a few weeks ago.

A series of storms swept the vessel from stem to stern—driven from her course time and time again—held and searched by warring nations—through daring navigating she reached her destination with a cargo of

Genuine India Druggets

We were fortunate in procuring from this cargo a quantity of these druggets which are the scarcest item for floor coverings to-day—as well as the most sought after.

They are made of heavy cotton chain with all-wool filling—the patterns woven through in rich colorings, making the rug reversible—offered at the following prices—

- Size 3x6 ft., at $7.50
- Size 6x9 ft., at $20.00
- Size 2.6x9 ft., at $7.50
- Size 8x10 ft., at $31.50
