College Stars Training at Newport Plan Football Eleven

The reservists' regiment, which is being trained for military duty at Newport, R. I., contains some of the best college and ex-college athletes of the day...

A tentative array of talent for the reservists' baseball nine shows the names of Barrett, of Cornell, and Keddle and Rols, of Dartmouth...

Plans for a football eleven next fall, providing the members of the reservists' regiment are not called out, have already been made.

Delaware River League Throws Up the Sponge; Will Try to Reorganize

Morrisville, Pa., June 4.—Because some of the managers refused to give a point over a dispute in the schedule, the Delaware River League...

The league had every indication of having a prosperous year this season, but because too many of the teams played in Trenton there has been some little trouble...

President Charles H. Heller, of Morrisville, will receive applications from any club desiring to enter the league and as soon as enough applications are in, a meeting will be called.

FOUR TIES IN PENNSYLVANIA

HARRISBURG WINS AT WILMINGTON; NOW CONTENDER FOR FIRST PLACE

When all battles in the Pennsylvania Railroad Motive Power League were over Saturday, four teams were tied for first place.

Although Wilmington outplayed Harrisburg both at the bat and in the field, they were badly beaten, 11 to 4. Nine runs were scored in the fourth session by "Red" Owens' crew when Holveck and Coffin were unable to locate the plate...

THE SPORTLIGHT BY Grantland Rice

When you ask any Canadian who follows any game what effect the war will have upon sport in Uncle Sam's domain he immediately returns one set answer—an answer that carries more than his share of grimness.

Those who have watched and followed events in the great Dominion to the north are confident that the first list of the dead and wounded will throw a black, heavy shadow above all American sport to the end of the war.

"I know," remarked one prominent Canadian sportsman, "just what a grip baseball has upon the people of the United States. But I don't believe that even big league baseball can stand up under the shock of the casualty list which comes singing a dirge across any nation—leaving in almost unbearable suspense those whom it does not strike at first.

"It is all very well," continued the Canadian, "to say that those who remain at home need recreation and diversion. The theory sounds exceedingly plausible until put to the test. But can you imagine yourself or any normal person taking any deep interest in a two-base hit or a 3-4 running catch—even when the home team makes it—just after he has read that 10,000 of his fellow countrymen have been shot down by machine guns and shrapnel in some daring advance or some dash across the top?

In spite of all this Canada recently has come upon a new sport. The new sport referred to was not developed by a Canadian, but by William O'Connell McGeehan, better known as Gaffer Bill.

The new sport was developed and promulgated up Cains River in a salmon fishing expedition which consisted of nine fishermen and nine guides. At one pool along the Cains the salmon, weighing between 15 and 20 pounds, were jumping and rising in such copious quantities that terrific excitement prevailed.

"Those who have followed sport before the war," remarked one of the returned overseas contingent, "have had a much better time of it in this New York and New Jersey training and conditioning than they have been able to stand the hard work better and they have been able to keep in better shape. This applies especially to the marching and drilling and the routine physical work. It has been extra hard on those who have talked big before the war, but they have been caught up with a smash. The football men found the training easier than any of the others for they had already become accustomed to much the same degree of hard work and tests of endurance."

NEWPORT IS PACEMAKER IN DAUPHIN-PERRY LEAGUE KING LEAR GIVEN JOLT

By winning its third successive extra-inning game on Saturday, Newport maintained its perfect record and continued its Dauphin-Perry League leadership. After twelve innings of play, Halifax fell by a 9-5 score.

With a rejuvenated team, Millersburg journeyed to Dauphin on Saturday afternoon and got right after Gilday, amassing four runs, enough to win the fray in the first inning.

At 11 o'clock on Saturday, the 34 Marysville nine was veritably slaughtered. After nine innings of play, the scoreboard told a 11-0 victory for the home team.

18,000 WILL REGISTER Sunbury, Pa., June 4.—According to Sheriff Jeremiah 18,000 persons are expected to register for military draft in Northumberland county tomorrow.

WELLY'S CORNER

The proof of the pudding is in eating it. Manager George Cockill said he would get new men. He kept his word. The fans said they would attend games if the team played baseball. The Islanders are doing their bit. The fans turned out Saturday, but not up to what the game warranted. Let everybody get together. Keep Harrisburg on the baseball map.

With four teams tied up for first place in the Pennsylvania Railroad Motive Power League, the race is quite interesting. Harrisburg is one of the four contenders for the leadership. Washington will be here next Saturday and the locals will put up a hard fight to prevent slipping down a peg.

Millersburg hit a winning stride on Saturday. This town has been up against hard luck in getting a team working together, but keep a watch on Millersburg. There will be something doing later on.

Marysville's great baseball machine is going to pieces. The fans are rather gloomy these days. Every effort is being made to get together and the Perry county boys will be leading again ere long.

Steelton's Bethlehem League team annexed another victory Saturday, winning over the East End team of Harrisburg, score, 7 to 1. Next Saturday the Bethlehem Steel Company League will open the season.

Midway A. C. lost to Bolling Springs Saturday, score, 5 to 4. Midway hit the ball, but was unable to get enough runs in their late rally.

"Hank" Gowdy has enlisted in the Ohio State National Guard and will go to the front on the first cut. He will be a private in the Second Brigade.

Omar Khayyam (imp.), the great 3-year-old chestnut colt that belonged to C. K. G. Billings and Fred Johnson, was sold Saturday to Wilfred Viaux for $26,500.

The national commission has made a ruling that veteran players must be given consideration and there must be no boycott.

Local games were attractive Saturday. The West End played St. Mary's C. C. Stuelton, winning by a score of 6 to 5. The crowd was small and rather discouraging to the West End boys, who have given their time and money in providing a good field and interesting games. The Galahads won out at Shippensburg, score, 5 to 4.

Members of the Harrisburg Track and Athletic Committee will meet tonight and draw for the tenth annual grammar school track and field meet. Entries closed at noon today. The big event takes place Thursday. The meeting to-night will be at the rooms of the Harrisburg Park Commissioners.

Manager Billy Mehring, of the Keystone Sporting Club, will attend the Leonard-Walsh bout at Philadelphia to-night. He will endeavor to line up a big list of fighters for the next show, June 20.

An important meeting of the Dauphin-Perry League will be held this evening Wednesday night. The teams are all drawing good and the race is interesting. "Buck" Gilday, star twirler for Dauphin, had a bad start Saturday, but his work later on showed that he has the goods. They all go bad once in a while.

"Red" Calhoun and Scranton played a game yesterday to a crowd of 4,000. It was Harrisburg's date with the Miners, but due to a foolish league rule which does not allow a guarantee Manager Cockill did not care to take chances in making the jump. Wilkes-Barre won, score, 12 to 2. Utica won over Elmira, score, 4 to 1; errors causing the Colonels' downfall. Syracuse trounced Binghamton, score, 11 to 6.

"MUD BALL" IS REAL PUZZLER CICOTTE HAS IT

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—Eddie Cicotte, who is having a remarkably good year, owes his success to another new trick in pitching, according to players of teams that have opposed him.

According to the athletes, Cicotte is pulling the old Marty McFale trick of going on the slab with one leg of his knickers thoroughly saturated with water. He rubs the seam of the ball with this, then grinds the dampened seam into soil that he has picked in his glove, and thus develops a mud ball.

The theory is that the small amount of mud that the pitcher can drive into the seam makes the ball heavier on one side than on the other, and thus causes it to induce in mysterious moves on the way to the plate, just as the spitter, because the ball does not rotate as does one that has had English put on it, falls away in peculiar manner.

Some of the Eastern clubs that have opposed Cicotte have entered vigorous protests, and have tried to prove that his methods violate the rules, but without any success.

regation this spring and Coach Blair's men are anxious to wipe out this defeat by a dual win over the Center Countians.

Pitt to Continue Sports; Two More Baseball Games

Pittsburgh, June 4.—According to present indications athletics at the University of Pittsburgh will be continued throughout the period of the war unless conditions change.

Only three more games are left on the schedule for Pitt's baseball nine. Two of these with Penn State will be staged at the latter's field and will probably decide the leaders of this part of the State. Penn State has been the only team to defeat the Panther gang.
