arrests which they said might result in disclosures of a German spy system. Apparently the government officers hoped they could uncover an explanation of how Germany knew in advance of the approach of the American destroyers to the British coast so that an Irish port could be mined.

"The charge against the three men are present," United States Assistant District Attorney John C. Knox, said, "is that of competing with the government by carrying mail in opposition to the government." Mr. Knox added that the charge might be changed to treason. Two of the men are said to be American born and a third, a naturalized citizen of Sweden. Examination of a quantity of mails said by federal agents indicated transmission of information on steamships to

PAPER BIDS ARE John Yates Makes Plea For Support of Ass'd. MUCH HIGHER Charities Work Here John Yates, secretary and man

John Yates, secretary and manager of the Associated Aids, outlined the work of that organization before the members of the Rotary Club at their noon lunches to-day in the palm room at the Elks Club. Mr. Yates, who leaves this city shortly to accept a more important position in the same line of work in Pittsburgh, bespoke for the Charities and his successor the same hearty support-the club has given him. The secretary has ben the most influential and most practical worker ever employed by the Associated Aids and has placed the organization on a firm footing.

Robert B. Reeves, the new secretary of the Harrisburg Y. M. C. A., was a guest at the luncheon and spoke briefly on the work he is about to undertake. He was a member of the Troy, N. Y., Rotary Club and will become a member here. This was the last luncheon over which President Howard C. Fry will preside. His term expires to-morrow evening when at a meeting to be held at the home of John S. Musser, Washington Heights, Andrew Buchanan, the new president, will be inaugurated. Under President Fyr's administration the club luncheons have grown in attendance and interest. They will be continued throughout the summer.

For Missionary Cause

The Rev. William P. Schell, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board, occupied the pulpit of the Market Square Presbyterian Church yesterday morning. Mr. Schell is a native of Harrisburg and spent his youth and early manhood here.

His address yesterday was one of the most impressive appeals for the missionary cause which has ever been heard in this city. He told of the sacrifices of missionaries in Africa and Persian and all over the world and gave some graphic word pictures of their heroism in the countries now desolated by the great war. Many of his old friends met Mr. Schell at the conclusion of the service and congratulated him upon the fine work which he is doing for missions.
