

WELL DEVELOPED WOMEN ADMIRE

Proper Development of Body Gives a Very Graceful Figure

Beauty of figure and face can be possessed by every woman who cares enough about her personal appearance to devote a very small portion of each day to the development of her physical being and to the cultivation of a good complexion and all the other little things which go to make up an attractive, well-groomed appearance.

The Lincoln Correspondence Schools course in physical and beauty culture is a scientific course in the development of all that tends to improve a woman's health and to bring out her personal charm and grace. This course, which is one of the six courses now available to subscribers of this paper, consists of ten lessons and contains over 200 illustrations. More information concerning this offer will be found on another page of this edition. The course was prepared by an expert who is known in the world over and whose advice is sought by tens of thousands of women from every part of the globe.

Miss Susan Fralick Found Dead at Millersburg

Millersburg, Pa., June 4. — Miss Susan Fralick, aged 55 years, in Race street, near the Methodist Episcopal Church, was found dead in her room Saturday noon by neighbors. Miss Fralick, who was a mute, was last seen alive on Thursday evening, while working in her garden. It is supposed that she was seized with heart failure, possibly sometime that night, while trying to close a window in her room, as her bed indicated that she had retired and had gotten up during the night. She was found near the window. She is survived by two brothers and a sister, Alfred Fralick, of Luzerne, and Frank Fralick, and Mrs. Sarah Noll of this place. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Skeath officiating.

Two More Physicians Are Given Commissions

Two more Harrisburgers, Dr. George A. Treiman and Dr. Roscoe L. Perkins, have been commissioned lieutenants in the Medical Corps by President Wilson.

JEREMIAH BURNS DIES

Jeremiah Burns, aged 70 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alice Berstler on Friday. Surviving are his children, two daughters and one son, Mrs. Sadie Benner, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Alice Berstler and George E. Burns, of Mechanicsburg; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mr. Burns was born in Smithburg Md., and his earlier days were spent in and around Chambersburg. In 1886 he moved to Mechanicsburg and has since lived here. He was a member of H. I. Zinn Post, No. 415, of Mechanicsburg, Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, Lodge No. 42, of Harrisburg, and of the Chambersburg Relief Association.

AMUSEMENTS

CAPTAIN NEMO MEETING HIS DAUGHTER, A SCENE IN "20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA"

"Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," the motion picture representation of the story of Jules Verne, with matinee every day. The picture made under the supervision of the Williamson Brothers, are unique, educational and exceptionally interesting. The entire production is unusual in type. There will be an augmented orchestra.

ORPHEUM — All week, with daily matinees — Jules Verne's "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. PAXTANG PARK—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"The Desert Man." REGENT—"The School For Husbands."

The Majestic's new bill of vaudeville the first half of this week is headed by a pretentious vaudeville act entitled "Married via Wireless." Seven talented people make up the personnel of the company, and they are said to furnish theatergoers with a most enjoyable evening. The principal feature of the act is its novel scenic equipment—the background being a moving panorama which gives the effect that the boat (where the action of the piece takes place) is moving. Harry and Etta Conley, a clever team of performers, are also on the bill, and are presenting a laughable comedy skit. The Doherty's introduce some comedy, singing and dancing into their act. Steve Freda, a well-known guitar player (formerly of the team of Bell and Freda), will furnish some excellent music. White Laidlaw, an elderly gentleman, will provide the thrills by his daring stunts on roller skates.

The following program is announced for the concert to be given on Monday evening, June 4, at the Luck Concert Hall. Luck's String Quintet in Falmestock Hall. Variations for string quintet. (Arenski); violin solo, "Spanish Dance" (Sarasate); Joel Belov; quintet (a), "Rabillage" (Gillet); (b), "In the Mill" (Gillet); cello solo (a), "Gavotte" (Popper); (b), "The Swan" (Saint Saens); quintet (a), "Menuett" (Ludwig); (b), "Wienlied" (Bach); contra-bass solo, "Concerto" (Rahmig); Arthur Luck; quintet, from the "Serenade" (Tschakowsky).

Another big vaudeville bill has been booked for the coming week by the management of the Paxtang Park Theater, and if Vaudeville the warm weather continues the park playhouse promises to be the most popular amusement place in town.

The feature attraction of the park bill this week will be Mercedes Bach and Company, in a one-act comedy entitled, "The New Reform." This act comes to the park theater after a season's successful tour of the leading vaudeville houses of the country, and promises to be one of the season's best attractions. Johnny Reynolds, the boy with the tables and chairs, who gave all Harrisburg a thrill with his daring feats at the open-air vaudeville show in Market Square a couple of years ago, will also be featured at the park show this week. If you enjoy a real, dare-devil act, here's your chance. Other acts on the park bill will be The Five Musical Jones' in a high-class comedy musical offering; Raymond Knox, who introduces himself as a nut comedian, and The Four Casters, in an acrobatic novelty. Ladies will be admitted to the Monday evening performance free of charge.

"The Desert Man," a powerful Triangle play booked for the Colonial Theater today and tomorrow is William S. Hart's latest starring vehicle. It gives the big Westerner another of his vigorous characterizations to which he is so well suited, in a play that is said to bristle with action and which is set in wide vistas of picturesque desert country. Margery Wil-

PAXTANG PARK THEATER

PLAYING High Class Vaudeville To-night Mercedes' Bach & Co. IN The New Reform Raymond Knox THE NUT COMEDIAN The 5 Musical Jones's The Four Casters NOVELTY BAR ARTISTS Johnny Reynolds, The Boy With The Chairs and Tables Ladies Admitted Free

PIONEER RESIDENT DIES Marietta, Pa., June 4. — James T. Clehennin, of Little Britain township, died Saturday night, aged 81 years. He was a descendant of one of the oldest families, and a pioneer resident. Six children, one brother and a number of grandchildren survive.

MRS. LUTHER RHEA BURIED Blain, Pa., June 4. — The death of Mrs. Luther Rhea occurred at the Harrisburg hospital on Thursday. The body was brought to her home in Jackson township, two miles west of Blain. The funeral was held this afternoon with burial at the Methodist cemetery at New Germantown.

DIES FROM BLOOD POISON Millersburg, Pa., June 4. — Paul a 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Chubb, died Friday night after several weeks' illness of blood poisoning. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Haesler officiating.

MAJESTIC THEATRE MARRIED VIA WIRELESS And Four Other Excellent Vaudeville Features

YOUNG MEN ENLIST Elizabethville, Pa., June 4. — This place sent its first young men to the front when three of them, Grover Byerly, Leroy Temple and Leo Walker offered their services as volunteers at the Harrisburg recruiting office on Saturday. A recruiting office attached from Harrisburg was here and gave them the necessary assistance.

BROWER-HALDEMAN WEDDING Lewisport, Pa., June 4. — J. P. Brower, of Millintown, and Miss Esther Haldean, of Mexico, were married on Saturday at the home of the bride's parents. The groom is a clerk in the Millifin railroad freight office.

AMUSEMENTS REGENT THEATRE DAILY CHANGE OF PROGRAM THIS WEEK TO-DAY ONLY FANNIE WARD IN "THE SCHOOL FOR HUSBANDS"

CLASSES IN FIRST AID Hummelstown, June 4. — The Red Cross Auxiliary has started two classes in first aid, the first meeting on Monday evening in the office of Dr. W. C. Baker and being under his instruction, and the second meeting on Monday afternoon and under the instruction of Dr. M. L. Nissley in the Masonic Hall.

PASTOR'S TENTH ANNIVERSARY Marietta, Pa., June 4. — The Rev. E. M. Sande, pastor of the Reformed Church of Locust Grove, yesterday celebrated his tenth anniversary as pastor of the church. It was also the tenth anniversary of his ordination. A statistical review of the work was a feature.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS JULES VERNE'S 20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA ORPHEUM ALL WEEK BEGINNING TO-DAY DAILY MATS 15 and 25c Nights--15c, 25c and 50c Augmented Orchestra

COLONIAL TODAY AND TOMORROW COLONIAL WM. S. HART IN THE DESERT MAN In the role of a Big, Whole-Souled, Square-Jawed Man with Faith Ideals and Courage. A thrilling new triangle play, filled with Hart's powerful personality. Also Ford Sterling, in a two-reel Keystone comedy, "Pinched in the Finish."

Remember! It is your great privilege as an American citizen to register your willingness to help pay part of the great debt that this country owes to the French Republic The New Store of Wm. Strouse son, who has appeared with him in a number of his biggest successes, is again an influence in directing his course. The story concerns a man of will, who, coming to the aid of a broken hope, so-called because of its desolate, dilapidated condition and the hopelessness of its inhabitants, he takes charge of its affairs, drives out the town bully, Razor Joe, and rechristens the place Belleville, denoting a new era in its life. Ford Sterling will be on the program in a screening two-reel Keystone comedy, "Pinched in the Finish." Wednesday, Chas. Ray in "The Pinch Hitter."

For real downright satisfaction King Oscar 5c CIGARS fills the bill because quality is the first consideration of its makers JOHN C. HERMAN & CO. Makers

BETTER BABIES A PRODUCT OF WAR What England has been doing since war was declared to make better babies is the subject of an interesting article by Jeanne Judson in The Mother's Magazine. In describing the day nurseries, or creches, Miss Judson says: The mothers bring the children to the creche before they go to work in the morning. This is usually about eight o'clock. They call for them again at seven o'clock at night. I was surprised that some of the youngest babies three and four weeks old could be taken away from their mothers, but investigation proved that most of them were thriving.

"These young babies are not weaned entirely from their natural nourishment. They are fed every two hours up to the age of two months. Fresh cow's milk, so boiled that all danger from germs is eliminated, and diluted with barley water, is the food given to the normal children. The older children are given three nourishing meals a day at the nursery. In this way sufficient nourishment is assured even if they do not have any addition to their diet at home. The children are bathed upon their arrival in the morning and are given fresh, clean clothing—not a uniform, but simple hygienic garments. They are dressed again in their own clothes before being sent home at night. Two paid trained nurses, four volunteer assistants, a paid matron and a doctor constitute the staff of the Mother's Army, where forty children, all under five years of age, are cared for daily. For all this service the mother pays only eight cents a day and four cents for a half day on Saturday. "As an educational movement or a social welfare work, these day nurseries would be interesting as a national movement they are vastly more so, for they show that at least the nations are beginning to realize in a practical way that their children are their greatest wealth—the nation's greatest asset."

BRAVE BOY BEN Bristorous Beatrice broke beautiful bric-a-brac; but Beatrice's brother Ben bought barrelsful. Bracing breezes blew boats bearing Ben's bric-a-brac by Benz's burst. But blizzards belated bold, brave Ben, Boylike Ben blasphemously blamed blustering blasts, but blinked kindly. Bang! boomed Bensonhurst bell buoy blocking Ben's bow. Bah! boldly bragged Ben. Boy's bravado braved Benz's bravado. Ben's brimming boat barely breasted big, brutal breakers. Ben's breast burned because bills became big. Behaving badly benefits beleaguered boys. Ban! Breakers buried Ben's boat. Bygones better be bygones.—The Youth's Companion.

"EAT LESS BREAD" London, June 4.—In connection with the food economy campaign, 35,000 placards bearing simply the words: "Eat less bread," have just been distributed to churches throughout the country. 10,000 cards have been issued to London restaurants for public display. They read: "Don't waste bread. If half a slice is enough for you, please cut the slice in half; do not break it. Everyone must save bread. It is a national duty. Will you help?"

STIFF COLLAR DOOMED IN GREAT BRITAIN London, June 4.—The stiff or starched collar virtually is doomed and the men of Great Britain will soon be wearing the soft collar, Captain Bathurst, the assistant food controller making the announcement in the House of Commons that the extraction of starch from food cereals would be prohibited in the near future. He was already anticipating the future and is wearing a soft collar himself.

LANCASTER COUNTY DEATHS Marietta.—Abram Habecker, aged 76 years, died Friday night. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served two enlistments. Five children, four brothers and sisters and a number of grandchildren survive. Marietta.—Friday Mrs. Catharine Will, aged 81, died in Manheim township after a long illness. She was one of the first members of the United Brethren Church. Several children survive.

ALUMNI OFFICERS CHOSEN New Cumberland, Pa., June 4. — The High School Alumni Association held a meeting on Friday evening and elected the following officers: President, Carl Smith; vice-president, Marguerite Witmyer; secretary, Leroy Sweigert; treasurer, Wendell Houck; historian, Chester A. Good. The annual banquet will be held Friday evening, June 29.

AMERICAN CHICLE COMPANY CHICLE ADAMS PEPSIN GUM FOR INDIGESTION AND DYSPESIA The Original Chicle Gum ADAMS PEPSIN GUM THE BIG BUSINESS-MAN'S GUM The high salaried secretary of the big business man knows how important it is to keep her high-strung employer well supplied with Adams Pepsin, the Original Chicle Gum. So she keeps it where he can get it at once without having to ask. It soothes his mind, and helps him to clear away mountains of work. Cooling Peppermint Flavor