

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME... Founded 1837... Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO., Telegraph Building, Federal Square.

E. J. STACKPOLE, Pres't & Editor-in-Chief... GUS M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carriers, ten cents a week; by mail, $6.00 a year in advance.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 4

Give man a consciousness of what he is and he will soon be what he ought to be.—SCHILLING.

MAKE THE CAMPS "DRY"

THE order making the officers' training camps "dry" has had such an excellent effect, according to reports from Niagara and elsewhere, that it should be extended to all of the selective conscription camps about to be established.

CLOSING THE SALOONS

THE TELEGRAPH lays no claim to being a friend of the liquor trade, but in all fairness it calls attention to the action of members of the Liquor League in voluntarily closing the bars of the city to-morrow, registration day.

REGISTRATION DAY

TOMORROW, registration day, will be observed without pomp or ceremony in Harrisburg. Mayor Miller very properly has frowned upon anything like a celebration.

ORDER ON THE RIVER

DISORDERLY conduct on the islands in the river opposite the city is reported by a TELEGRAPH correspondent, whose letter, reciting conditions that ought not to be allowed to exist for a moment, was published on this page a few days ago.

PENNA. AND WAR LOANS

NOBODY familiar with the history of Pennsylvania will wonder at the energy and enthusiasm with which men of this State have taken up the task of making the Liberty Loan a success.

THE RIFLE CLUB'S OFFER

THE Harrisburg Rifle Club has performed a patriotic service in offering the use of its ranges to the newly-formed local military company.

quite another. If the company is to amount to anything it must learn something of marksmanship with the type of gun with which it will be equipped.

NOT FOR PARADE PURPOSES

THE military company formed at the courthouse Saturday night by more than one hundred Harrisburg men beyond the conscription age is a move in the right direction.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman David H. Lane, the Republican city chairman of Philadelphia, in an interview at Atlantic City yesterday, hit the nail on the head when he said that if the Republicans of the state are united there will not be any chance for any Democrat.

Predicts Dry New York

If the war continues New York City is likely to vote "dry" in April, 1919, William H. Anderson, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, predicts.

Why Lions Roar

The eminent English naturalist, Sir Richard Owen, made the interesting discovery that the lion roars simply because the hyoid bone in his throat is loose.

General Misinformation

[From Bostonia.] A graduate of the College of Liberal Arts who is teaching in a New England State Normal School, in the following answers which were actually handed in at a recent examination designed to test the amount of general information possessed by the students:

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

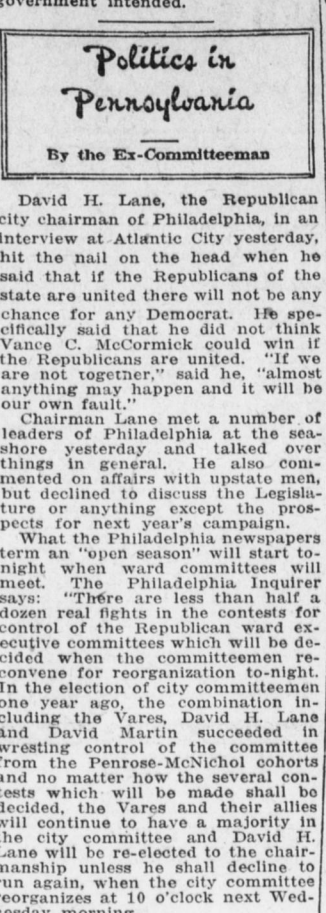

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

Evening Chat

The meeting preliminary to the organization of the Home Defense Corps, of Volunteer Reserves, as the association will probably be called, is the first to be held in Harrisburg since the outbreak of the war.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

RUSSIAN CONSCIENCE AGAINST PEACE

By Herman Bernstein From time to time disquieting rumors have come to this country from various sources to the effect that Russia was on the point of concluding a separate peace with Germany; that a truce was about to be declared between the Russian and German armies; that the New Russia was ready to make peace at all costs.

A Veto With a Sting

[Wilkes-Barre Record] In vetoing the bill raising the fees in the office of Recorder of Deeds in Luzerne and Lackawanna counties Governor Brumbaugh remarks that the people have a right to pay a fair price but not an excessive or discriminating one for the rendition of a public service, and he further remarks that "there are many protests against it (the bill) on the ground that the present price is adequate if competent clerks and not merely persons with political claims are given this work to do."

This Is Your War

[Nashville Tennessean] Outside of Washington, New York, and other large cities of the East, Americans are not yet awake to the seriousness of the grim struggle, to the death into which this nation has gone.

A Suspicious Move

[From Albany (N. Y. Times Union)] A well-to-do manufacturer who made a hobby of archaeological research was traveling in Palestine when he reached the site of the addition to his family. The manufacturer sacrificed archaeological to parental joys. Providing himself with some Easter candy, he returned to the christening, he at once set out for Kentucky.

Letters to the Editor

"WHAT WILL THE JUDGES DO?" To the Editor of the Telegraph: This question has been asked with reference to the closing of saloons on registration day.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

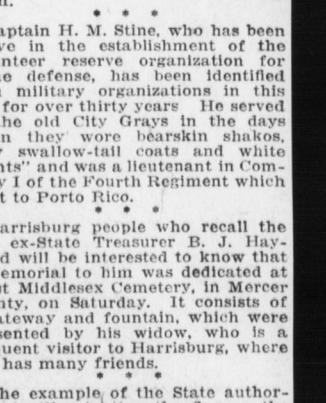

OUR DAILY LAUGH

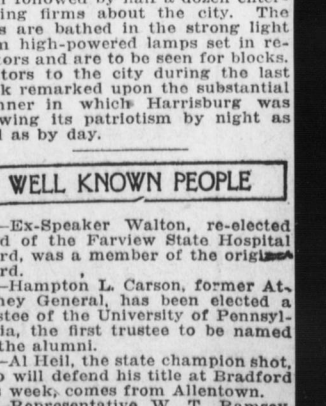

OUR DAILY LAUGH

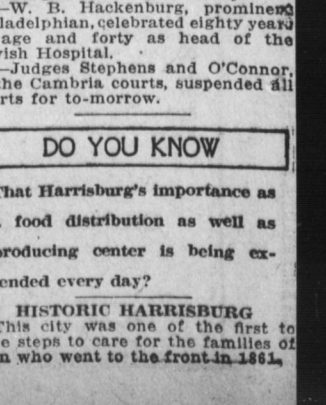

OUR DAILY LAUGH

OUR DAILY LAUGH

OUR DAILY LAUGH

OUR DAILY LAUGH

OUR DAILY LAUGH

