SHOPPING IN JUNE

Thoughts For the Sweet Girl Graduate and the June Bride

For the bride's first "at home" it is a gracious hospitality to serve a cup of tea to those who call, and the bride will naturally be eager to make her first act as hostess in her new home one that will be pleasantly remembered. If the tea served is bought at the Grand Union Tea Co., 208 North Second street, the hostess is sure of serving a tea that is unequalled for flavor, and no matter which of these numerous blends she tries, she will get a tea that has been carefully tested by experts whose skill and experience teaches them to know just what the best tea should be.

Good Taste in the Bride's Home
The bride who desires a home which expresses good taste and individuality, will welcome the lovely wall papers so artistically arranged with hangings to correspond, which are shown by the Blake Shop, 225 North Second street. For the living room, they offer a paper of cool restful gray with shadowy stripes of varying widths with which is used most unusual cretonnes with a two-inch stripe of black gray flanked with roses, alternating with a wide panel of flower-strewn gray, combining the serenity of neutral colorings with the smart touch of black and cheerful notes of gray color.

Smart Styles For Summer
There is an air of smart style combined with a suggestion of summer coolness in the lovely new hats of fine white milan, delightfully trimmed with clever wing effects and unusual uses of crisp white grosgrain which are shown in a charming assortment in the French Room in Astor's new store at 408 Market street. A Fifth Avenue vogue which is exploited in this assortment shows the use of very fine white panne velvet on these new white hats, giving a tone and distinction to these models which makes them exceptionally chic and becoming, while the prices are most moderate.

FLAT SILVER IN NEW DESIGNS
Of special interest at this time is the wonderful assortment of flat silver, both sterling and plated, offered by Jacob Tausig's Sons, 420 Market street. One turns, with admiration, from the graceful distinction of the lovely Fairfax patterns to the equally charming daintiness of the Shirley, while the dignity of the Brandon and the unusual beauty of the America patterns, sold exclusively by this store, offer an unequalled variety for selection. Besides the many, many patterns in sterling shown, there are offered the finest plated ware, including the famous Rogers 1847, and the beautiful Community Plate, at most conservative prices.
