TO SPEND SUMMER AT Y. W. C. A. CAMP

Miss Richter Given Delightful Surprise Before Leaving For Vacation in Canton

MISS FLORENCE RICHTER

Miss Florence Richter, who left yesterday for Canton, Pa., where she will spend the summer at Camp Nephawin, was the guest of honor at a delightful surprise party the other evening with Mrs. H. R. Eckert, of 2017 Green street, as hostess. Many friends of Miss Richter, associated with her in various work at the Y. W. C. A., were among the guests who showered her with many good wishes for a happy time and joyous vacation at the camp. Miss Myrtle Brown played for the guests and Miss Alberta Hertzler sang, and a general good time was enjoyed as stories of camp life and fun were told. The guests present included: Miss Jean Matter, Miss Marguerite Reynolds, Miss Bertha Seifert, Miss Daisy Seide, Miss Alberta Hertzler, Miss Myrtle Brown, Miss Irene Brown, Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Evans, Miss Sylvia Nagle, Miss Katherine Shillinger and Miss Ruth Gilbert.

A JUNE WEDDING FOR MISS DUNKEL

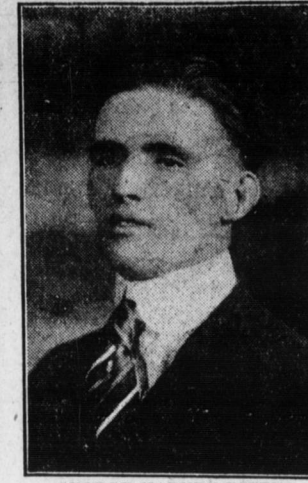

Lloyd Lutz Weds Local Girl; Ceremony Performed by Rev. Harvey Klaer

Among the attractive June weddings of the week was that held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Dunkel, 2408 Jefferson street, last evening at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary Kathryn Dunkel, became the bride of Lloyd Wesley Lutz. Ferns and daisies, cleverly arranged in an altar effect, made an attractive background for the bridal party. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey Klaer, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white point de spirit, over white silk. Her shower bouquet was of daisies. Little Miss Dorothy Gladys Lutz, a sister of the bridegroom, who acted as flower girl, wore a dainty gown of white with the anemone ruffles, and carried a basket of daisies. The ushers were William Benjamin Dunkel Jr., Alvin Colestock and Berwyn Ronig. Miss Helen Hampton played the wedding march, while Wynona "Loehengrin," and Miss Marion Lutz, a sister of the groom, sang "O Promise Me" during the ceremony.

YOUNG COUPLE WEDS TONIGHT IN PROGRESS

MISS MARY E. LONGENECKER

GEORGE HARVEY RITTER

Miss Mary Elizabeth Longenecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Longenecker of Progress, and George Harvey Ritter of this city will be united in marriage this evening at the bride's home, in the presence of a number of friends. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. E. A. Mell, pastor of the Maclay Street Church of God, amid decorative decorations of ferns and peonies. Mrs. David C. Gotwald will play the wedding marches, using the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as a processional. The bride has chosen a slimy frock of white georgette crepe over tulle and will carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. Miss Minnie Blough, the maid of honor, will wear light blue crepe de chine and carry a large round bouquet of pink orchid sweet peas. Theodore Lyons will be best man. Congratulations and a wedding supper will follow the ceremony, and after June 15 Mr. and Mrs. Ritter will be at home at 411 South Thirteenth street. Mr. Ritter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Ritter, is employed by the Collier Publishing Company. Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Mary Sourbier, Miss Annie Donahower, Mr. and Mrs. David Gotwald, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Strickler of this city.

MOTOR TO DEODATE: Miss Hetty Miller, of Scranton; Mrs. A. T. Hubley, Miss Irene Etter, Miss Ruth Etter and Samuel Etter motored to Deodate Tuesday.

Thoughts For the Sweet Girl Graduate and the June Bride

The bride who has a home wedding this month should not fail to have her picture taken in her own home on the day of her wedding. It is possible, and this can be conveniently arranged by the Roshon Studio, 8 North Second street. This studio makes a specialty of home portraits, and by means of a special lighting device, they can take satisfactory pictures on cloudy or rainy days as well as on sunny days, so that they are practically independent of the Weather Man. A pretty idea, especially for the bride who goes away to be married, is to have her photograph taken in her new home, and the Roshon Studio arranges for photographs in the home at most reasonable rates.

The Gift of a Picture If you want to give a commencement or wedding gift and yet cannot afford to spend very much, why not select a pretty picture from a magazine or calendar, and have it framed artistically at the Roshon Studio, 8 North Second street in the block just above the Broad street market house. This shop makes a specialty of framing pictures at reasonable rates, and their assortment of pictures for framing is so complete that no matter what type of picture you have, or what color tones appear in it, a frame which is both suitable and artistic may be found at this shop. A number of charming pictures in excellent taste, about $8 12 or 15 inches are offered at $1.25 and $1.50.

"I want to send them a wedding gift, but it is so hard to know just what to give"—is an expression often heard this month but Jacob Tausig's Sons, 429 Market street make it easy to know just what to give. A jewelry store is always full of gift suggestions, and this store offers dependable quality, comprehensive assortments and prices that suit the purse just as the gifts please the eye. From their many lovely offerings in silver, from the display of delicate and beautiful pieces of crystal and cut glass, and the novelties in brassware and hammered silver, it is easy to choose just the right thing for the June bride.

A Smart and Sensible Summer Boot Though every woman enjoys the grace and smartness of a French heeled shoe, there is a growing tendency for a low heel on street shoes, and a very charming compromise is effected by the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, in a new white buckskin model. This smart boot has a medium heel yet the shoe is so gracefully arched that it is unusually becoming on the foot. A wing tip defined by perforations gives distinction to this model, and a splendid quality of buckskin, with that excellent ivory-white tone, is used. This boot sells for just $8.00.
