"IN HOC SIGNO VINCES"

The International Sunday School Lesson For June 10 Is "Jesus Crucified"—John 19:16-30.

The keep to Christianity is a cross. The property of the for He knew that He was on the way to a victory great enough to satisfy His all-embracing love.

The pang which fairly rent His heart was that His people whom He had lavishly served, and passionately loved, could do such a deed. Not for Himself, but for the state of heart that could make possible so foul an act, and in the name of religion did He grieve. Therein, then, we see the significance of the cry, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do." He is truly Christlike who grieves less over a wrong done to himself than over the sin of the wrongdoer. Such was the magnanimous spirit of the Crucified. Man's sin was the Redeemer's sorrow.

"Work Was an Awful Drag But Not Now

"When I look back a few weeks and remember the misery that I went through every day, I often wonder how I managed to stand it as long as I did," says George M. Riefsnyder, a crane operator at the Reading Iron Works, who lives at 105 Amity street, Reading, Pa.

"I judge that my stomach and kidneys were in very bad shape for I had so much pain in my back and felt so weak and had so much distress just above my hips.
"I couldn't get comfortable in bed, I had no strength, no ambition and my work was an awful drag."

"But not now, for since I have been taking Tanlac I feel like an altogether different man. I eat well, my food digests properly and nourishes me as it should. I sleep better, my kidneys seldom bother me during the night and I wake up in the morning feeling rested and full of energy. And Tanlac brought about this change in me after I had been doctoring for years with other medicines without avail."
