and Good Wishes Today

MR. AND MRS. HARRY L. PAGE

New York, coming here when just young man. He has been connected with the Bethlehem Steel Company during his residence here two years as a member of city council. In this connection he has the honor of having been elected to the

The Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sun-

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

SENIORS PICNIC IN HERSHEY PARK

Guests of the Junior Central High Class With Amusing Stunts Pulled Off

To-day was the second annual Hershey picnic given to the senior class by the juniors of Central High school, with secret preparations going on for the past month under the class president, Albert Rinken-

The following committee are in The following committes are in charge: Ticket—Albert Rinkenbach, chairman; Ben Wolfe, Kenneth Winseard, Seymour Nissley, Frederick Wagnt, Thomas Caldwell, Sandwich — Miss Ethel Forney, chairman; Miss Helen Hoffman, Miss Emma Keeney, Miss Katherine Bleckenridge, Miss Nancy McCullough, Miss Fanny Ness, Miss Hazel Snow, Miss Margaret Smith and Miss Lillian Speakman.

Sports — Thomas Nevitt, chairman; Ray Rice, Noble Frank and Harry Good.

sports — Thomas Nevitt, chairsman; Ray Rice, Noble Frank and Harry Good.

An excellent program was planned for the day. From the time the train left at 8.15 a.m., carrying the crowd of three hundred students to Hershey until it returns at night, every minute was taken up with a general good time.

All Sorts of Games
The games were as follows: Girls' baseball game (five innings), boys' 100-yard dash, prize fishing rod; boys' broad jump, prize Central H. 8. shield; girls' 50-yard dash, prize tennis racket presented by Heagy boys' three-legged race, prize pocketknives; girls' pennut race, prize gold brooch pin, presented by Kinkenbach; boys' ball throwing, prize D. and M. baseball glove; girls' ball throwing, prize 2-pound box Elias candy.

An added feature is the boys' wa-

An added feature is the boys' water pole in the afternoon.

Then for the "eats." Meals were served by the juniors with Miss Hamilton in charge, and such "eats" as they were from sandwiches to ice ream and cake everything was com-

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Hetrick and mer vacation.

Mrs. Kate Kugler, of Philadelphia, arrived in the city to-day for a visit with her daughter, Miss Edna Kugler, of the Sigler apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinley Tener, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, North.Front street.

MISS RAUSCH GRADUATES WITH MUSICAL HONORS

Col and Mrs. L. V. Rausch, of 2145 North Second street, are home from Ithaca, where they attended the commencement of the Conservatory of Music from which—their gifted daughter. Miss Marguerite Rausch, was graduated. Miss Rausch is considered a pianiste of considerable merit, with a charming state appearance, so the critics say, and in the senior recital received much hearty applause and commendation for her brilliant playing of Mendelssohn's "Cappriccio Brilliant," showing fine technique, a beautiful tone and sure interpretation in that number, as well as a Chonen "Pelanais", her second number, as well as a Chonen "Pelanais", her second number.

THE BARRINGTON BISHOP FAMILY SCHOOL CLOSES AT CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinley Tener, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. W. Howard Cordry, of Paxtang, was hostess yesterday afternoon at a benefit card party, the proceeds going to the Faxtang auxiliary of the Red Cross Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jenks, of Philadelphia, are week-end guests of Miss Evelyn Barrington, at Paxtang, Mrs. Jenks is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Norah Barrington.

Mrs. R. Lucien Reinhart and children, of Huntingdon, West Virginia, are guests of Mrs. Louis G. Fischer, in Camp Hill.

Mrs. W. W. Jennings and Miss Mary Jennings, of Front and North streets, went to Philadelphia during the week to attend a large wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fox and children, of 223 North Front street, are occupying their country place, Foxlea, Cumberland county.

Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle and son, Charles Dunkle, of Ninetants of Harles Winding Comments and State streets, with Miss Evelyn Barrington, he principal, presiding: "Wake, Says the Sunshine." "Little Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Wind Blow," "The Harrisburg Band," the Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Lambs So White and Fair." Inger Carbon, "See Here is Grandmamma." "Little Yellow Dandelion." "Blow, the Lambs So White and Fair." Inger Carbon, "See Here is Grandmam

Ant, and Mrs. John E. Fox and children, of 223 North Front street, are occupying their country place, Foxlea, Cumberland county. Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle and son, Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle and son, Derry streets, started to-day for Syracuse, N. Y., by automobile, to attend the commencement of Syracuse University, where Miss Isobel Dunkle graduates next week.

Mrs. Henry McCormick, Miss Anne McCormick and Vance C. McCormick are occupying their country home at Rose Garden, for the sumer.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cornish and breed with the street of the formed Sunday School was held Thursday evening at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cornish and mall son, Harold Cornish, of Ith-ca, N. Y., are week-end guests of Ir. and Mrs. Elbert Jones, of North hird street.

Miss Susanna Fleming, who is tudying in New York city, is visitage her sister, Mrs. Robert McCreath, of the Riverside apartments, for a ew days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Rogers, of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Rogers, of the William P. Sutton, George D. Wertz, Preston Smith, Herbert Rupp, Roy Felker, Harry Beisel, Clayton Heckert, and Ernest Sible. Plans were discussed for a class picnic to be held before a number of the young men who have enlisted are called

The following interesting program formed the closing exercises for the Barrington school pupils yesterday Julia Bishop and their brother, Dr. Baptist congregation 1742. It was with a large gathering of friends to greet them in the Technical high school auditorium last evening, the following young women of the teachers training class, under the direction of Miss Anne U. Wert, received their diplomas from Dr. C. E. L. Keene, of the School Board, on completing their course:

Teachers Training School in Annual Commencement

Miss Alice Barker, Miss Helen Broomall, Miss Hope Eyster, Miss Iyy Friedman, Miss Kathryn Gamble, Miss Ida Hoffman, Miss Margaret King, Miss Leah Klavans, Miss Lena Marcus, Miss Claudine Melville, Miss Blanche Minnig, Miss Helen Shuey, Miss Esther Wagner and Miss Elizabeth Kennedy.

Dr. Frederick E. Downes, city superintendent of schools, presided and during the opening exercises the Rev. Robert Bagnell made a prayer. Several of the graduates gave demonstrations of the school work with classes of children from the model school. Dr. J. George Becht, secretary of the State Board of Educiation, made the address of the evening and said "A teacher's work has three greta privileges. First, the privilege of being young through contact with youth; secondly, the privilege of polymist, and thirdly, the privilege of giving service."

Miss Emma Hamshaw Gives Enjoyable June Dance

Miss Emma Hanshaw entertained ist evening at a June dance in Han-naw's Hall, with F. Marion Sour-eer playing a twenty-dance program, here were festoons of old rose with asses of summer flowers in the dec-beer playing a twenty-dance postanter. There were festoons of old-rose with masses of summer flowers in the decorations. Refreshments were enjoyed at intermission in the Harrisburg Candy Kitchen.

Among those present were: Mr. And Mrs. Sterling J. Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling J. Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Grothe Misses Mary Anmon, Rose Garon, Lillian apkins, Rose Garon, Mr. and Hiss, Jennie Bloom, Helen Hoffman, Esther Crauer, Emma Hanshaw, Katherine First, Mary Gross, Marie Elscheid, Marie Vogt, Dorothy Cannon, N. Mabel Coxeter, Helen Fitzgerald, Helen Sebold, Sarah Faunce, Dorothy Bodenhorn, Ruth McCormick, Reatrice Welsh, Fannie Williams, Elizabeth Brown, Mary Gross, Rachael Gross, Marguerite Claire, Emma Tooney, Sarah Crabbe.

Philip Williams, John Frenic, Joseph Freedman, William J. Maguire, Harry Welsh, Robert L. Couter, Harry Long, William Claire, William M. Anderson, Charles Lingle, Frank Fill, Abe Arch, David Sherman, Samuel Arch, J. D. Sherman, George Goodman, Robert Angeut, Homer Evitts,

Miss Helen H. Fraim Bride of Professor Keir

3509 Baring street, Philadelphia, formerly of 1603 North Second street, this city, and Professor John Sibthis city, and Professor John Sibbett Keir were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mills, in Moylan, the Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by Miss Jeannette Keir, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor. Malcolm Keir, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Master william H. A. Mills was ring bearer. I and Master Russell Alexander and Master Russell Alexander and Master Robert Roland Fraim were flower boys.

A reception on the lawn followed. Professor and Mrs. Keir will be "at home" after September 10 in Pittsburgh. The bridegroom, who has been professor of economics in the University of Pennsylvania, has been appointed to a similar chair in the terest, as the parsonage will be dedicated, built on the land owned by

The Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society is celebrating its annual Flower Day with gifts of lovely blossoms to crippled children, the blind and shut-ins throughout the city. Flowers galore were brought to the Y. M. C. A. building this morning and 45 bouquets were made up by skillful fingers and sent out by automobile to bring cheer to those who are in such need of it.

The general ward of the Polyclinic Hospital, the children's ward of the Harrisburg Hospital, two special children receiving treatment in Philadelphia under the care of this society and Mrs. Homer Black, the president, who has been ill for many weeks, all received a share of the roses, peonies and other garden flowers so lavishly donated to-day.

Mrs. George E. Bratten chairman, and Mrs. Louis F. Haehlen, vicechairman of the flower committee thank the committee which so ably assisted and friends who so generously sent the flowers. Miss Mary E. Gotta presided at a meeting of the Lucknow Missionary Society of Grace Methodist Church last evening with Mrs. J. Horace McFarland, hostess, at her home, Breeze Hill, Bellevue. After a study of the lesson from "Peace and the Kingdom" a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Among those present were Mrs.

ants are attending the weeks service. Interesting exercises were arranged; and on the program is a travelog, "Italy," by Miss Julia Bishop, the proceeds for the benefit of the parsonage fund.

For more than a century, commemorative services have been held, annually the second Sunday in June in recognition of Mr. Sater's gift, and in memory of a good man.

SURPRISE AT CAMP HILL

RHOADS-PHALEN MARRIAGE

CELEBRATE THEIR Young Couple Marries

SILVER WEDDING Miss Ida Troxel, of Hagerstown, and Ira Oliver, of this city, secured a marriage license here last week and when they showed it to the minister who was to perform the service it was found to be for some other couple, so the ceremony couldn't go on until the matter was righted. Well-Known City Residents Receiving Congratulations righted.

Thursday morning they appeared again before the Rev. Dr. Edwin S. Rupp, of the Otterbein United Brethren Church, this time with the correct papers which the marriage license bureau had to advertise for, naval battles and disaster to Amer

After License Troubles

After License License

Remember Our New Address---308 MARKET STREET

Sale of White Hats For Monday Only

All the latest and most desirable Mid-Summer Shapes included in this sale. Hemps, Milan Hemps, Milans, Leghorns, Panama Hats, Java Hats, Hairbraid Hats, etc.

$1.98 Quality White Hemp Rats, This Monday at ... 79c Hemp Hats, This Monday $1.66

$4.00 Quality White Milan Hemp Sailors, MONDAY $2.88 white, pink, blue, black or any color to order.

$1.98 Quality Leghorn Hats 79c $2.98 Quality White Hair-braid Hats, This Monday . . $1.88 This Monday (All handmade.)

$2.98 Quality White Milan $1.66 $2.98 Quality White Milan Hats, This Monday $1.66 With black flanges.

$2,98 Quality Fine White S2.44 $1.00 Quality Girls' Tuscan Italian Milan Hats, Monday Hats, This Monday

$1.98 Quality Girls' Tuscan Hats, This Monday Openwork cord patterns.

Open Tuscan edge. 98c $1.98 Quality Girls' White Milan Hats, This Monday.

Openwork brim.

Our First Sale of Panama Hats

The largest variety ever brought to Harrisburg, including all the new, nobby little close-fitting Hats-comfortable and dressy shapes. Hat Bands, ready to put on, 19¢ and up.

Panamas, Actually Worth $1.49, This Monday 790 Panamas, Actually Worth $1.98, This Monday 980 Panamas, Actually Worth $2.50, This Monday . . $1.66 Panamas, Actually Worth $2.98, This Monday . . $1.88 Genuine South American Panamas, Five Best $3.66

Shapes; Worth $6.00; This Monday, Large Panama Sailors, This Monday, With $1.66

3½ in. Brims; Actually Worth $2.98, Children's Panamas, Worth $2.00; This Monday, 88c

Sale of Genuine Bangkok Hats

All beautiful Summer Shapes.

Bangkok Hats, worth to $3.88 Trimmed Bangkok Sailors, $4.88 worth to $8.50. This Monday, $4.88 All colors-with beautiful bands

Genuine White Italian Milan Sailors at . With 3½ inch Mushroom brim, grosgrain blinding — wide grosgrain bands with tailored bow trimmings—regularly $6.50. Special this Monday at $2.88

Large White Milan Sailors at 3½ inch brims — black velvet crowns — wide grosgrain bands — regularly $5.00. Special this Monday at $2.88.

Large White Hemp Fancy Shape at . .

With black Hatter's plush crown, and wide ribbon bands and bows. A regular $5.00 value. Special for this Monday at $2.88.

Children's $3.50 Trimmed White Milan Hats, at $1.79 Children's $3.50 Trimmed White Hemp Hats, at $1.79 Children's $3.98 Trimmed Fancy Tuscan Hats, at $1.88 Open lace brim-trimmed with fine Satin ribbon and flowers.

Mondays Are Always Ribbon Days

Every Monday we place our entire stock of high-grade ribbons on sale at money-saving prices. Any kind of ribbon you may need is reduced for Monday.

1
1	All 19c RIBBONS special at	All 39c RIBBONS spec	ial at 33¢
1	All 25c RIBBONS special at	All 45c RIBBONS spec	al at 37¢
ı	All 29c RIBBONS special at	All 49c RIBBONS spec	al at 42¢
ı	All 35c RIBBONS special at	AH 59c RIBBONS spec	ial at 48¢

Association. Nathan E. Hause and Miss Frances Hause, of Bellevue Park, leave Monday for New York and North-Impton, Mass, to meet Miss Mary Children Taking Part orie Hause, a student of Smith Colege, who is returning for the sumine National Part of Smith Colege, who is returning for the sumine National Part of National Part of

William T. Bishop, are present at the one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary exercises of Sater Baptist Church, Green Spring Valley, Balti-more county, Md. Sir Henry Sater, their great-great-grandfather, built the church on his own plantation, donated it, the Sater meeting house, with the surrounding land, to the closed only during the Civil War. This anniversary is of especial interest, as the parsonage will be dedicated, built on the land owned by the family two hundred years ago. Sufficient for a parsonage was repurchased and donated by members of the present generation to this "Mother Church of Maryland Baptists." Its congregation erecting the parsonage during this last year. The Rev. W. H. Brannock, the minister, is a graduate of Crozier Seminary. A great gathering of many descendants are attending the week's service. Interesting exercises were arise.

Henry Robb and his son, Henry tobb, Jr., of Richmond, Va., gave pleasant surprise to Miss Amanda

Miss Helen Harris Fraim, daughter Mr. and Mrs. William A. Fraim.

